INTRODUCTION TO THE KHAZARS

The Khazar theory argues that Ashkenazi Jews are the descendants of the Khazars a multi-ethnic collection of peoples who allegedly 'converted' to Judaism in the 8th-9th century AD. It is then claimed that it was these 'Jewish converts' that migrated into what is now Russia, Eastern Europe and later Northern and Western Europe. It is critical to highlight however, that the primary exponents of this theory are Jewish from the earliest alleged reference to a connection between Khazars and Ashkenazic Jews to Benjamin Freedman in a speech given before an audience in 1961 at the Willard Hotel, Washington, D.C and Jewish Communist Arthur Koestler in The Thirteenth Tribe first published in Britain in 1976.

Initially the Khazars were believed to be a semi-nomadic people of mostly Turkic decent dominating the Asian steppe and the North Caucasus between the 5th and 10th centuries. In the 7th century, they founded an independent Khaganate in the Northern Caucasus called Khazaria. This occupied the land locked between the Black Sea and the Caspian Sea now predominantly occupied by Georgia.

The general theme of Koestler's book is this trading empire that existed between the expanding power blocs of Christianity and Islam. He suggests that speculation exists about the origin of the word 'Khazar' and indicates that the Khazar was never ethnically homogenous but made up of tribes from various racial backgrounds, as steppe peoples traditionally absorbed those they conquered. Koestler also highlights modern 'deviations' for example the German Ketzler –heretic referring to the Jew thus inserting 'reasonable' doubt perhaps to add weight to his theory.

Nevertheless, the term is most likely tied to the Turkic verb form meaning "wandering" and likely derived from the Turkic gaz-, meaning 'to wander' or 'flee.' Initially Tengri shamanists, between the 8th or 9th century under the instruction of the Khazarian King, Koestler asserts that the Khaganate adopted Judaism as the state religion. However, Koestler's source for the 'conversion' are to be found in a work by the Hungarian Marxist historian, Dr Antal Bartha, supported by an article in the 1973 variant of Encyclopedia Judaica and the curious choice of a comment from a Muslim envoy a staunch enemy of the Jew. Indeed a 2013 critique argued that "A careful examination of the sources shows that some of them are pseud epigraphic, and the rest are of questionable reliability.

The majority of the book is padded with an attempt at historical context but when the flimsiness of Koestler's sources are revealed it is hard to judge fact from whimsical fantasy. In particular on matters of ethnicity it is clear that he desires to undermine European racial homogeneity thus providing the mixed race Jew with a greater status. Indeed in places Koestler's writing seems to applaud the Khazars for their apparent 'services' to Europe remembering that his thesis makes them Jewish if only 'converts' and in keeping with Jewish chutzpah he cannot help infusing some self-congratulation.

Nevertheless, producing a 'pseudo-Jew' does provide a suitable scapegoat onto which one can deflect one's crimes. In fact the so-called 'good Jew' Benjamin Freedman laid the groundwork for this defense (33 mins) during his 1961 speech at the Willard Hotel in Washington D.C. However, the concept falls apart when one considers the extraordinary amount of evidence proving that the Jew has been a problem throughout gentile specifically European history well before the so-called 'Khazar conversion'.

The vulgar Talmud written in 70 AD is a testament to the contempt that the Jew holds for the gentile and in its own words "To communicate to a Goy anything about our religious relations would be equal to killing all Jews, for if the Goyim knew what we teach about them, they would kill us openly." Libbre David 37 This only confirms that the despicable religion originates from a despicable tribe and that the Jew is not a product of converting to a loathsome religion. The Roman historian Tacitus reinforces this notion of the Jewish religion in his most famous work Histories written 109 AD –

"Moses prescribed for them a novel religion quite different from those of the rest of mankind. Among the Jews all things are profane that we hold sacred; on the other hand they regard as permissible what seems to us immoral. The other practices of the Jews are sinister and revolting, and have entrenched themselves by their very wickedness. Wretches of the most abandoned kind who had no use for the religion of their fathers took to contributing dues and free-will offerings to swell the Jewish exchequer; and other reasons for their increasing wealth may be found in their stubborn loyalty and ready benevolence towards brother Jews. But the rest of the world they confront with the hatred reserved for enemies. They will not feed or intermarry with gentiles... They have introduced the practice of circumcision to show that they are different from others."* (Tacitus, Histories, 5.2–5).

Indeed it was not long before the wicked activities of the Jews roused Roman public opinion against them following the establishment of the very first Jewish community outside the Middle East in Rome in 139 BC. During sittings of the Roman senate the famous orator Cicero, among others, frequently spoke against the Jewish presence in Rome. Equally there is historical evidence relating to their negative impact on Romans during the first century AD.

The world's first anti-Jewish riots broke out in the city of Alexandria in 38 AD, and re-occurred in 66 AD, 115 AD, 118 AD, and 411 AD. In that year Cyril, the archbishop of Alexandria ordered the expulsion of all Jews from the city. The Roman Emperor Tiberius formally expelled Jews from Rome in 19 AD. They returned shortly after, only to be expelled again in 49 AD. In 116 AD, Emperor Trajan ordered that all Jews in Mesopotamia should be killed on the grounds that they were the cause of continual uprisings in that region. One of the most famous emperors of the Eastern Roman Empire, Justinian (527–565 AD), adopted a comprehensive anti-Jewish policy which barred Jews from the civil service, military posts, and any other positions of influence in his government.

All of these events that pre-date the supposed 'Khazar conversion' serve to highlight the devastating impact the Jew had on Roman life and provide substantial proof that the Jew displayed identical behavioral patterns centuries prior to the alleged 'conversion'. Patently the Khazar theory has been produced to suggest an "Ashkenazi" problem rather than a "Jewish problem" yet it was the Middle Eastern Mizrahi bloodline that interfered with Roman life 900 years prior to the Khazars and the Sephardi are currently notoriously anti-Gentile easily proving that all Jews have been and remain a problem throughout history.

Logic would also dictate that if a massive conversion of substantially different racial stock took place after the 7th century the racial make-up of Jews in that area would alter dramatically compared to that of their Sephardi and Mizrahi (Middle Eastern) brethren. However, to date twelve DNA studies prove otherwise. Beginning in 1999 the studies all reached very similar conclusions that Jewish community's whether Ashkenazi, Sephardi, or Mizrahi formed a clearly distinct cluster sharing a common lineage consistent with origins in the region of the Middle East.

While the most recent involving Harry Ostrer, a professor of Pathology and Genetics at Albert Einstein College of Medicine of Yeshiva University and the Jewish HapMap Project are a double edged sword in that they tend to compound the notion that the Jew is a race alone and not a tribal facet of a larger Semitic race that has long existed and continues to live in the Middle East. Nevertheless, there is conclusive DNA evidence against the reality of the so called 'Khazar theory' thus substantiating the notion that it is a mechanism to distract from the "Jewish problem". Indeed by associating Zionism with only the Ashkenazi strain the Jew attempts to disassociate from his crimes against Europe and the globe.

So it remains only to explain why so called reasoned Nationalists would entertain this obviously weak hypothesis meant to distract. What is transparent from the substantial evidence presented is that those claiming that only the 'Khazar/Ashkenazi' pose a problem are verifiably wrong. The concept of only "some Jews" or "false Jews" has been addressed and exposed as black propaganda. Consequently those pushing the Khazar theory are shills participating in a Jewish construct designed to distract from the Jew regardless of what historical documentation records

NATION

A Nation is a racially homogenous tribal group occupying a native homeland and partaking in a shared history, culture and language.

Miscegenation

Comes from the Latin miscere, “to mix” and genus, “kind” and refers to sexual relations between individuals of different racial origins that lead to the production of children. Today it is known as “race mixing”. Merriam-Webster: “a mixture of races; especially: marriage, cohabitation, or sexual intercourse between a white person and a member of another race”. Miscegenation defiles, degrades and destroys the Caucasoid race and on a mass scale is White racial genocide. As such subsequent dictionaries omit the word as it interferes with the Jewish Marxist agenda. Consequently those that uphold White racial integrity do not have a duty to those that debase the race or a responsibility to their progeny

Racial solidarity

Race is Nation. There can be no National integrity without racial homogeneity. An Englishman provided the privilege of the citizenship of Germany should put German interests above his own and visa-versa. We are racial brethren and Europe in particular is one race of many Nations.

Nation State

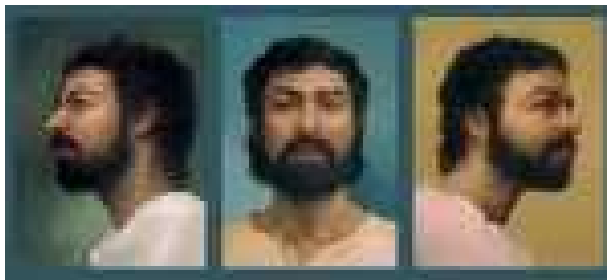

The Nation State operates as an organic system of government based on racial homogeneity. The best example is the body politic where each individual organ functions as part of the more complex whole body. If a single organ works erratically or shuts down the whole body is placed in jeopardy. Similarly, all folk benefit when each person performs the function for which he is best suited. Should one person fail to perform his duty, usurp or interfere with the duty of others, or devour all available nourishment growing wildly and selfishly out of proportion to his task, he will render devastation on all. Given the cost to racial brethren one would have to be mentally unstable to commit such an act. This is the true meaning of treason.

Homogeneous

Origin Greek homogenes, homogeneity is the state in which all are of the same kind or nature so as to be alike, similar or congruous. A racially homogenous group share the same or similar physical and psychological characteristics and consequently develop a shared history, culture and language.

Semite

A Semite is a member of a group of peoples reputed to be from the Near East and northern Africa, including Arabs, Ethiopians and Hebrews (Jews). The Semitic peoples are actually variant admixtures of the core racial types—Caucasoid (White Race), the Mongoloid and Negroid (Black race).

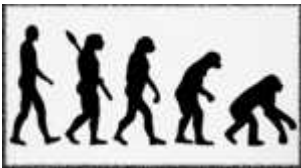

Eugenics

Eugenics Selective breeding was suggested at least as far back as Plato. He recorded these ideals in The Republic: “The best men must have intercourse with the best women as frequently as possible, and the opposite is true of the very inferior.” Eugenics is a social philosophy which advocates the improvement of racial hereditary traits through various forms of intervention. The word etymologically derives from the Greek word eus (good or well) and the suffix -genēs (born), and was coined by Sir Francis Galton in 1883.

Though it is often used to refer to movements and social policies that were influential during the early 20th century, in a broader sense, eugenics is a study of improving racial genetic qualities. The goals of various groups advocating eugenics have been to create healthier, more intelligent people, to save state resources, and lessen human suffering. It is also critical to note that the tribe that has occupied and terrorised sovereign Palestinian people since 1948 has a eugenics program. Meanwhile, in the West most of the leading voices against eugenics are Jews. Indeed it is the Jews who are implementing a program of malgenics in the West (dumbing down). This should not be confused with dysgenics which is about tearing down and destroying the race.

Dysgenics

Dysgenics refers to a genetic deterioration of a population or populations. It was coined in 1915 for the genetic deterioration in modern human populations that eugenics aimed to correct. Much of the polemics in the Jewish media against “eugenics” actually refers to dysgenics. For example present-day fixation on ‘family planning’, screening, birth control and abortions is less like “eugenic” gene selection more like Marxist dysgenic racial genocide.

Celts, Slavs & Germanic’s

Celts, Slavs and Germanics were and are cultural and linguistic groupings not sub-racial or ‘ethnic’ types. Certain tribes will have had identical origins that were later divided by language and culture. Shared racial origins would explain Tacitus’ description of the German tribe as ‘red haired, blue eyed and the purest race’.

Aryan

Meaning ‘noble’, ‘venerable’ or of ‘good family,’ in pre-historic times the term Aryan was a tribal name that constituted an ethnic and linguistic unity. It is applied to the great

Indo-European nations and the language families they have developed including

Sanskrit, Zend, Persian, Greek, Latin, Celtic, Teutonic, and Slavonic. On 16th July 2005 Pravda reported a startling discovery in the town of Arkaim situated on the outskirts of the city of Chelyabinsk south of Ural Russia. Purportedly discovered in 1987 just like the Celtic graves in China the ruin of an ancient and very advanced civilization of Indo-Aryan origin was revealed. Whilst many White Russians are waking up to Jewish Bolshevik lies and every year at the summer solstice gather at this site to rediscover their heritage, it is not hard to believe that this dig has been subjected to Cultural Marxist interpretation just like all other recent and past archeologically discoveries.

In fact just recently Putin preached unifying the Russian people through a common history and it is ironic and somewhat politically embarrassing to think that the symbol Russians have been conditioned to hate most -the Swastika equally a motif of Aryan or European unity serves that purpose. This indicates not a desire to unify a people under their hereditary birth right but to construct or reconstruct a monopoly on reality. In the BBC broadcasts below we have ventured to edit out all the anti-European Jewish propaganda so you get to understand the full impact of these discoveries.

QUOTES

The first 'earth embodiment' of these spirits took place in a Polar body or Hyperborean race. From there in came the dramatic involutory story of the mixture of the pure race with the original earthly beings and then came the Aryans, which means 'twice born'; that is, those who try to recover the purity of the 'first born'. This is the true meaning of racism. – Miguel Serrano

Links

Today Cultural Marxist scholars intentionally misuse the term Teuton to promote an artificial dichotomy amongst the European tribes.

Swastika

Swastika, Fylfot, or Hakenkreuz, is an equilateral cross with its arms bent or curved either left or right. A sun wheel the ancient Aryan symbol represents the expansion or extraction of light. The symbol has its origins in Europe, the earliest known object with swastika-motifs is a bird made from the tusk of a mammoth from the Palaeolithic settlement of Mezine, in Ukraine.

On the torso of the bird is engraved an intricate meander pattern of joined up swastikas. It is the oldest identified swastika pattern in the world and has been radio carbon-dated to an astonishing 15 thousand years ago. In antiquity, the swastika was used extensively by pre-Christian European cultures such as the Indo-Aryans, Hittites, Celts and Greeks, among others appearing regularly on their artefacts. For example, the gammadion, or rather the tetra-gammadion, is a form of swastika. The name gammadion comes from the fact that it can be seen as being made up of four Greek gamma (Γ) letters.

Ancient Greek priestesses would tattoo the symbol, along with the triskelion and tetraskelion, a figure consisting of three or four stylized human arms or legs (or bent lines) radiating from a centre on their bodies. The gammadion was used to symbolize the four cardinal corners of the world and the guardianship of this world. Like the Aryan language tree this symbol can be used to chart the movement of Aryan tribes across the global landscape and consequently the development of civilization.

Archaeologist Heinrich Schliemann discovered the symbol in the site of ancient Troy in the late 19th century and connected it to the ancient migrations of Proto-Indo-Europeans. He associated it with similar shapes found on ancient pots in Germany, linking Germanic, Greek and Persian cultures and theorized that the swastika was a “significant religious symbol of our remote [European] ancestors”. Thus by the early 20th century Europeans worldwide regarded it as a symbol of good luck and success. Was it by chance then that the first lands in Europe to be violently occupied by Jewish insertion-Russia and the Ukraine-gave birth to our Aryan civilization? Indeed one must recall that the earliest known object with swastika-motifs is a bird made from the tusk of a mammoth from the Palaeolithic settlement of Mezine in Ukraine.

Consequently, the image was used by National Socialism because it was a symbol of 'Aryan' or European ethnic identity and cultural heritage. Yet in the years 1920-21 Jewish Bolshevism instigated the first of the Holodomor genocides annihilating European folk and concealing it under the 'Holocaust' construct following the Jewish victory over Europe in 1945. The result is that Jewish propaganda has so demonised this ancient European design that it has been rendered a symbol of disgust rather than European racial unity.

It is also noteworthy in this vein that on 16th July 2005 Pravda reported a startling discovery in the town of Arkaim situated on the outskirts of the city of Chelyabinsk south of Ural Russia. Purportedly discovered in 1987 just like the Celtic graves in China the ruin of an ancient and very advanced civilization of Indo-Aryan origin was revealed. Whilst many White Russians are waking up to Jewish Bolshevik lies and every year at the summer solstice gather at this site to rediscover their heritage, it is not hard to believe that this dig has been subjected to Cultural Marxist interpretation just like all other recent and past archeologically discoveries. In fact just recently Putin preached unifying the Russian people though a common history and it is ironic and somewhat politically embarrassing to think that the symbol Russians have been conditioned to hate most -the Swastika equally a motif of Aryan or European unity serves that purpose.

This indicates not a desire to unify a people under their hereditary birth right but to construct or reconstruct a monopoly on reality. In the BBC broadcasts below we have ventured to edit out all the anti-European Jewish propaganda so you get to understand the full impact of these discoveries.

Triskelion

While the triskelion is considered a Celtic symbol it is in fact more generally Indo-European (Aryan). Like the familiar sun wheel (Swastika) invariably it has rotational symmetry and is a motif consisting of three interlocked spirals, three bent human legs, or three bent/curved lines extending from the centre of the symbol. Both words are from Greek "τρισκέλιον" (triskelion) or "τρισκελής" (triskeles), "three-legged", from prefix "τρι-" (tri-), "three times" + "σκέλος" (skelos), "leg". In pre-Christian antiquity the triskelion symbol appeared in many Aryan cultures. The earliest known so far is in Malta 4400–3600 BC but it has been speculated to be a contemporary of the Swastika.

The triple spiral motif is a Neolithic symbol in Western Europe and the design is carved into the rock of a stone lozenge near the main entrance of the prehistoric Newgrange monument in County Meath, Ireland which was built around 3200 BC, corresponding with images found in other parts of Europe such as Mycenaean vessels, on coinage in Lycia, and on staters of Pamphylia (at Aspendos, 370–333 BC) and Pisidia. It also appears as a heraldic emblem on warriors' shields depicted on Greek pottery.

The Celtic symbol of three conjoined spirals may have had triple significance similar to the imagery that lies behind the triskelion. In Sicily the triskelion is called trinacria. It is also a very familiar banner in the Isle of Man, Brittany, and the town of Füssen in Germany.

Malgenics

The natural racial European allele frequency would tend to favour those who were both intelligent and strong/rebellious. Following the Jewish victory in Europe the frequency of those traits have considerably reduced. Through the practice of malgenics, the complete opposite of eugenics, Jewish 'science' is promoting the mating of horribly dysfunctional people. This is selectively killing off anyone who they believe might possess the intelligence and strength to resist Jewish tyranny. The social aspect of malgenics works in direct opposition to meritocracy by subjugating the strong and capable, while promoting the weak and dysfunctional.

Republic

The concept of 'Republic' as defined by classical Greek philosophers such as Plato place great emphasis on the importance of civic virtue (aiming for the good of the whole city) together with personal virtue ('just man'). The theory is closely related to the Nationalist state in which society functions properly and successfully only as a living organism. All parts benefit when each part performs the function for which it is best suited.

Should one part fail to perform its own function, usurp or interfere with the function of another part, or like a cancer devour all the nourishment and grow wildly and selfishly out of all proportion to its task, it will render devastation on all. A unified, single-purposed whole is capable of out-performing any single part. This vastly increases the powers of all the cooperating parts.

However, the parts must subordinate a portion of their individual freedom to the whole for if the whole is destroyed all of the constituent parts will suffer. Plato asserts such in his famous Republic. Rome developed its legislation, notably the transition from a kingdom to a republic, by following the example of the Greeks. Unfortunately in modernity the term 'Republic' has been violated by a notion of 'egalitarian election' conceived by Jewish democracy.

Jews

Contrary to popular belief the Jew is not a pure race for as specified there are three basic races-the Caucasoid or White Race, the Mongoloid and Negroid or Black race. It claims to be 'Semitic', a variant admixtures of the core racial types-Caucasoid (White Race), the Mongoloid and Negroid (Black race). This has been the strategy the Jew has used to legitimize territorial claim to Palestinian land for over 3000 years. Nevertheless, while it is true that a people of variant 'Semitic' admixture existed in the area of Palestine for over 2000 years the Jewish declaration is absurd it is like the Celts 'demanding' England back from the Saxon after 15 hundred years of occupation. Yet this is indicative of Jewish methodology. As an itinerant tribe without anything of substance expropriation or theft of money, property or territory from the host population is the Jewish staple. Their nomadic existence has spread them across the globe with further dispersals instituting global communication between Jewish communities added through their own private languages, while propaganda conceals their criminality with cries of persecution.

Jews in America

Jews contaminated the Americas as early as 1700 AD. As with the European continent the itinerant tribe specified types that squatted in America. For example initially the majority were Sephardim. Such Jews landed on the shores of Spain and Portugal and had the chutzpah to suggest that this gave them Spanish or Portuguese 'ancestry'. After 1720 Ashkenazi Jews who lay claim to Central and Eastern Europe under the same chutzpah predominated in America.

JEWISH ORGANISATIONS

Jewish organizations describes any movement, union or facility developed or established with heavy financial, terrorist or manipulative influence of the Jew. The aim of Jewish organisations, whether marketed as purely religious or camouflaged as political institutions, is to propagate Jewish Talmudic hatred manifested through Marxism/Communism.

Thus a key feature of the Jewish organisation is that it changes name or merges with other groups, a particular example is the NKVD that became the KGB and is now Mossad. This tactic enables it to cast off any previous negative associations and repackage for a new generation.

Nakam

Nakam was a Jewish terrorist organization founded by Abba Kovner whose ideological intention was to murder six million European civilians. This mass genocide was never realised as Kovner was exposed smuggling enough concentrated toxin to poison a large city. Kovner was detained and deported from Europe back to Jewish terrorist Israel. Nakam then attempted a mass assassination on April 14, 1946 at the Langwasser internment camp near Nuremberg. Bread for 12,000 to 15,000 German POWs was painted with arsenic. According to the New York Times in 1946, 207 of the interned soldiers fell ill and were admitted into the hospital but none died. Nevertheless Kovner's terror group did succeed in murdering an untold number of European civilians by kidnapping them with the use of English military uniforms, driving them into a forest, forcing them to dig their own graves and then shooting them into the grave.

Abba Kovner

Abba Kovner (1918–1987) was a Jewish terrorist leader, mass murderer, poet and writer. Kovner was born in the Crimean Black Sea port city of Sevastopol but soon moved with his family to Vilnius, Lithuania where he joined and became an active member in the Marxist–Zionist youth movement Hashomer Hatzair.

In June 1941 Germany troops liberated the city, which had been seized by Bolshevism during the 1920's. Kovner assembled a Jewish terrorist force known as the United Partisan Organization in the forests near Vilnius and engaged in sabotage and terrorist attacks against German troops. He continued his terrorist efforts throughout the war. After the occupation of Vilnius by the Jewish Bolshevik Red Army in July 1944, Kovner became one of the founders of the Beriiah movement, helping Jewish terrorists escape Eastern Europe after the war. He went to Palestine for a short time in 1945 where Hashomer Hatzair headquarters issued him orders.

Kovner then returned to Europe to found Nakam a Jewish terrorist organization whose ideological intention was to murder a mythical number of German civilians in 'retribution' for the Jewish historical construct. This mass genocide was never realized as Kovner was exposed smuggling enough concentrated toxin to poison four large European cities. Kovner was detained and deported from Europe back to Jewish terrorist Israel. Nakam then attempted a mass assassination on April 14, 1946 at the Langwasser internment camp near Nuremberg.

Bread for 12,000 to 15,000 German POWs was painted with arsenic. According to the American press in 1946, 2300 of the interned soldiers fell ill and were admitted into the hospital but none died. Nevertheless Kovner's terror group did succeed in the torture and gruesome deaths of an untold number of German civilians. In 1961 Kovner fabricated lies that led to the Jewish occupied Palestine's murder of Adolf Eichmann, sanctioned by the occupied Jewish Western states.

Israel

'Israel' is the name given to the central Jewish terrorist organization operating on Jewish occupied sovereign Palestinian land. It was founded unlawfully in 1948 by the United Nations council, a global Jewish Zionist operation that facilitates international Jewish 'intervention'. Almost every Jewish occupied White Western government supported and still supports this criminal endeavour-USA, France, Russia, Italy, Spain.

It is critical to appreciate that while Jews and criminals (UN) recognise the theft of Palestine as a Jewish 'state' it does not make it so. The reality is that the world has become complicate in another Jewish act of criminality. This is exactly the same as the events of 1917 when Jewish Bolsheviks seized the European land of Russia and enforced upon it the Jewish ideology of Communism.

Hashomer Hatzair

Hashomer Hatzair (translating as The Youth Guard) is an international Marxist–Zionist Jewish youth movement founded in 1913 in Galicia, Austria-Hungary, and was also the name of the group's political party in Palestine prior to Jewish seizure in 1948. (See Hashomer Hatzair Workers Party) Hashomer Hatzair came into being as a result of the merger of two groups, Hashomer ("The Guard") a politically motivated Zionist youth group, and Ze'irei Zion ("The Youth of Zion") an ideological circle that studied Zionism, Marxism and the Jewish narrative. Initially the political policy of Hashomer Hatzair was the capture of Palestine achieved by mass immigration of Jewish youth to seize living space in the form of 'kibbutzim'.

In fact the first kibbutz called Degania Alef was established in 1909 by Jewish Zionists while Palestine was under Ottoman rule indicating that Hashomer Hatzair policy was Zionist policy. In Romania Communists including Hashomer Hatzair were involved in Jewish subversive political activities leading to the execution of anti-Communist Romanian patriotic leader Corneliu Zelea Codreanu in 1938.

The leaders of Hashomer Hatzair were later arrested and executed for their activities. By 1939, Hashomer Hatzair had 70,000 members worldwide. After the war the movement had infiltrated European nations throughout the world concealing itself as a scouting movement within the Jewish communities. Hashomer Hatzair achieved its goal in 1948 as mass sympathy incited by the Jewish construct finalised the Jewish land grab of Palestine.

Hashomer Hatzair is now the oldest ideological Marxist–Zionist youth movement still in existence and continues to operate internationally from its base in Jewish occupied Palestine.

Hashomer Hatzair Workers Party of Palestine

The Hashomer Hatzair Workers Party of Palestine was a Marxist–Zionist political party in Palestine, connected to the Hashomer Hatzair movement. Founded in 1946 with around 10,000 members the Hashomer Hatzair Workers Party paraded a façade of sole Zionist political organization in Palestine at the time that recognized the national rights of the Palestinian Arabs.

It conveniently neglects to mention that the Hashomer Hatzair Jewish youth movement out of which it was formed had been actively grabbing Palestinian land for decades without consideration for Arab sovereignty. Palestine was under Ottoman rule when in 1909 the first kibbutz called Degania Alef was instituted on land seized by Jewish Zionists.

Sayanim

Sayanim (single. Sayan; Hebrew: helpers, assistants) are Jews living outside Israel who volunteer to provide assistance to Israel and/or the Israeli Mossad utilising the capacity of their own citizenship to procure assistance. This assistance includes facilitating medical care, money, logistics, and even overt intelligence gathering. They can be Judges, Court Clerks, Expert Witnesses, Child Protective Service Workers, Assistant District Attorneys, Police Officers, or anyone with a great degree of power over people's lives, and will do anything at the behest of Mossad case officers (katsa) for the Jewish terrorist organisation called Israel.

Estimates put the number of sayanim in the hundreds of thousands. While not official Mossad agents and sometimes acting without explicit knowledge, they may work in the capacity of unregistered representatives of the government of Israel in their respective nations. Generally-speaking, these non-Israeli Jewish volunteers are asked to engage in low level activities that will not bring them into trouble with the authorities, such as using Wikipedia to spread Jewish propaganda and other forms of popular social media such as Facebook and Twitter to proliferate their lies instilling an atmosphere of confusion. There are exceptions like the case of Jonathan Pollard, the U.S.

Naval intelligence employee who engaged in espionage on behalf of Israel's intelligence agencies and whose exposure by the FBI strained relations between the U.S. and Israel.

Quotes

"The next day Ran S. delivered a lecture on the sayanim, a unique and important part of the Mossad's operation. Sayanim assistants must be 100 percent Jewish. They live abroad, and though they are not Israeli citizens, many are reached through their relatives in Israel. An Israeli with a relative in England, for example, might be asked to write a letter saying the person bearing the letter represents an organization whose main goal is to help save Jewish people in the Diaspora. Could the British relative help in any way?"

There are thousands of sayanim around the world. In London alone, there are about 2,000 who are active, and another 5,000 on the list. They fulfill many different roles. A car sayan, for example, running a rental agency, could help the Mossad rent a car without having to complete the usual documentation. An apartment sayan would find accommodation without raising suspicions, a bank sayan could get you money if you needed it in the middle of the night, a doctor sayan would treat a bullet wound without reporting it to the police, and so on.

The idea is to have a pool of people available when needed who can provide services but will keep quiet about them out of loyalty to the cause. They are paid only costs. Often the loyalty of sayanim is abused by katsas who take advantage of the available help for their own personal use. There is no way for the sayan to check this.

One thing you know for sure is that even if a Jewish person knows it is the Mossad, he might not agree to work with you but he won't turn you in. You have at your disposal a non risk recruitment system that actually gives you a pool of millions of Jewish people to tap from outside your own borders. It's much easier to operate with what is available on the spot, and sayanim offer incredible practical support everywhere. But they are never put at risk nor are they privy to classified information." Former Mossad Officer Viktor Ostrovsky "By Way Of Deception: The Unmasking Of A Mossad Officer" p.86-87

Mossad

Only a recent nomenclature the organization now known as Mossad has existed as part of the Judaic infrastructure long prior to 1948. Whispered about as the Jewish 'hidden hand' since many ex-KGB headed for sanctuary in Jewish occupied Palestine Mossad is the new incarnation. Meant to be the intelligence gathering agency of the Jewish terrorist organization known as Israel, Mossad is responsible for false flags like the attack on the SS Patria (November 25th 1940), the bombing of the King David Hotel (July 22nd 1946), the attack on the USS liberty (June 8th 1967) and the 9/11 and 7/7 attacks. Coinciding with the 70 year Jewish Holocaust construct, it has also come to light that the 'night of broken glass' was engineered by this organisation under one of its previous guises-Cheka, KGB, a fact that Dr Goebbels was already suspicious of at the time.

Shabtai Kalmanovich

Shabtai Kalmanovich (18 Dec 1947 to 2 Nov 2009), alternatively spelled Shabtai Kalmanovic, was typical of the KGB agents sent to Jewish occupied Palestine to work in the organization's fledgling mirror establishment Mossad. Kalmanovich was born in Kaunas, Jewish Bolshevik controlled Lithuania to a Jewish family in 1947. He studied chemical engineering, and joined the Bolshevik Army soon after his studies. Kalmanovich received reassignment to the Mossad branch in the early 1970's he and his family 'immigrated' to the Jewish terrorist state in 1971. Kalmanovich worked with Mossad for a period of 17 years.

However, during the 1980's it was leaked to the press that the KGB was working for Mossad. Therefore, to conceal the fact that the KGB and Mossad were one in the same it was necessary to 'sacrifice' an agent. Kalmanovich was used for this purpose. He was arrested by British police during a 1987 visit to the United Kingdom for having allegedly passing over $2 million in forged cheques to the United States.

Extradited to the United States Kalmanovich was immediately released on bail to return to Israel where he was arrested and charged with espionage. Kalmanovich was sentenced to seven years in 1988 but released after five. Officially, his release was due to 'good behaviour and medical concerns' however more likely was that Kalmanovich's prison term had served its purpose in distracting the mass. Kalmanovich was greatly compensated as a businessman both before and after his term of imprisonment after the KGB funded investments for him.

Nevertheless, on November 2nd, 2009, Kalmanovich was assassinated in Moscow likely by Mossad disposing of loose ends. Moscow police confirmed that he had been the victim of a professional hit.

World Zionist Congress

The first Zionist Congress was held in Basel, Switzerland in 1897 by Theodor Herzl, a conference of alien itinerants it was founded as the supreme organ of the Zionist Organization (ZO) and its legislative authority. In 1960 the names were changed to World Zionist Organization (WZO).

After the First Zionist Congress in 1897, the Zionist Congress met every year until 1901, then every second year from 1903 to 1913 and 1921 to 1939. Until 1946, the Congress was held every two years in various European cities, save for interruptions during the two World Wars. Their goal is world dominance governed centrally from Palestine. Thus the agenda involved building an infrastructure that would lead to the Jewish seizure, continual occupation and largely gentile maintenance of that territory.

World Zionist Organization (WZO)

The World Zionist Organization or WZO, was founded as the Zionist Organization (ZO; 1897–1960) by Theodor Herzl at the First World Zionist Congress (Basel, Switzerland 1897). A movement and conference of itinerant aliens their sole purpose was to supplant the host people and to this end drafted a manifesto intent on strengthening Jewish feeling and consciousness, the unification of all Jews into local or general groups in the lands they were occupying, promoting the instillation of Jewish itinerants in Palestine all at the expense of the host through "governmental grants which are necessary to the achievement of the Zionist purpose."

Their goal is world dominance governed centrally from Palestine. Thus the agenda involved building an infrastructure that would lead to the Jewish seizure, continual occupation and largely gentile maintenance of that territory.

The WZO currently consists of the following bodies: The World Zionist Unions, international Zionist federations; and international organizations that define themselves as Zionist, such as WIZO, Hadassah, B'nai B'rith, Maccabi, the International Sephardic Federation, the three streams of world Judaism (Orthodox, Conservative, Reform), delegation from the CIS Commonwealth of Independent States (some states of the former Soviet Union), the World Union of Jewish Students (WUJS), and more.

The Jewish Agency is also a parallel organisation consequently it is possible to see the breath of coverage the Jewish tribe has over the global population.

Yehoshua Hankin

Yehoshua Hankin (1864 to 1945) was a Jewish Zionist activist who was responsible for most of the major land acquisitions of the Zionist Organization in Ottoman Palestine and Mandatory Palestine.

Yishuv

Yishuv refers to Jewish itinerants who converged on Palestine prior to the seizure by Jewish terrorists in 1948. From the 1880s there were about 25,000 Jews occupying Palestine, then comprising the southern part of Ottoman Syria, Jews continued to be imported into the territory. By 1948 it had increased to a standing army of about 700,000 Jews at which point the occupying Jewish terrorists seized Palestine and constructed their terror organisation called 'Israel'.

B'nai B'rith

The Independent Order of B'nai B'rith is the oldest continually-operating Jewish supremacist group in the world. The fraternity was founded on 13 October 1843 by Ashkenazi Jews who first became acquainted through their membership in the Freemasons. However, although freemasonry at least pretended to be about the so-called "international brotherhood of mankind", where "all are equal", B'nai B'rith didn't bother with this facade—its focus was explicitly group identity based, ethnocentric and racially exclusive from the start.

No goyim were allowed to join, only "God's Chosen". Its openly professed aim was "uniting and elevating the Sons of Abraham." The organization is engaged in a wide variety of political lobbying, including the promotion of Jewish group interests in social, economic, political and media forums, through its so-called Human Rights and Public Policy. B'nai B'rith is a hawkish advocate of Israeli foreign policy interests. Together with AIPAC, it created in 2002 an initiative called "BBYO 4 Israel" the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization (BBYO). Noted members of the organisation have included the sexual deviant and cultural terrorist Sigmund Freud.

European Union (EU)

1917 onwards saw the Russian Nation subjugated under the yoke of Jewish Bolshevism. The architects of the Bolshevik seizure of Russia Jews the likes of Lenin and Trotsky masked their European Genocide under the title 'Soviet Union'. Similarly in 1945 Jewish Bolshevik allies and their international Jewish tribe members celebrated their victory over Europe.

The current pseudonym for Jewish terror and debt slavery is 'European Union'. It is critical to note that whether labelled 'soviet' or 'European' this 'union' is a political construct engineered by the Jew to destroy racial and cultural identity. It is therefore an illusion and has no racial, ethnic or territorial value to the European.

Richard Nikolaus Eijiro von Coudenhove-Kalergi

Richard Nikolaus Eijiro von Coudenhove-Kalergi (November 16th, 1894 – July 27th, 1972) was a politician, geopolitician, philosopher and of count of Coudenhove-Kalergi. Of mixed race ancestry, his parents were Heinrich von Coudenhove-Kalergi, an Austro-Hungarian diplomat, and Mitsuko Aoyama, the daughter of an antiques-dealer and oil tycoon in Tokyo, Coudenhove-Kalergi's father was a close friend of Theodor Herzl, the founder of Zionism. Kalergi himself was a Freemason who strove to replace the nationalist German ideal of a European racial community with an ethnically heterogeneous (international miscegenation) society. He married Jewish actress Ida Roland born Klausner in 1915 both whom left Austria in 1938.

She died in 1951 and Kalergi almost immediately remarried the Jewess Alexandra Gräfin von Tiele, born Bally in 1952. Von Tiele died in 1968 yet by 1969 Kalergi was married again to the Jewess Melanie Benatzky Hoffmann. At the beginning of 1924 Coudenhove-Kalergi through his close friend Baron Louis de Rothschild had contact with Max Warburg who offered to finance his movement for the next 3 years.

Warburg gave him 60,000 gold marks and, serving as an intermediate brought him in contact with other influential B'nai B'rith personalities in America such as Jewish banker Paul Warburg and Jewish financier Bernard Baruch. Coudenhove-Kalergi complemented his liberal views of the political role of the Jews with distinctive advocacy of race mixing. In his book Praktischer Idealismus (Practical Idealism), obviously based on the current racial mix of Egypt as Egypt at its zenith had a European cast at the heart of its monarchy, he wrote:

“The man of the future will be of mixed race. Today’s races and classes will gradually disappear owing to the vanishing of space, time, and prejudice. The Eurasian-Negroid race of the future, similar in its appearance to the Egyptians, will replace the diversity of peoples with a diversity of individuals.”

(ADL) Anti-Defamation League

The Anti-Defamation League (ADL), formerly known as the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, is an international Jewish terrorist organization based in America with its headquarters in New York City, New York. The public are lead to believe that the ADL of B'nai B'rith was established in direct response to the case of Leo Frank, a Jew, who had been arrested, indicted and convicted in 1913 for the beating, rape and murder of thirteen year old little Mary Phagan.

While for 100 years the Jewish Zionist ADL and its supporters have been using every perfidious, deceptive and treacherous means to turn

Leo M. Frank from a paedophile-rapist murderer into an innocent 'martyr', this is to distract attention away from the ADL's real agenda. Its goal is to secure the continuing hegemony of Jewry particularly in the United States. Fields which are particularly important to the ADL in this respect are business, finance, mass media, foreign policy, immigration policy and gun-ownership. The Jewish Zionist ADL regards Ethnic Europeans and European Americans as their enemy and so oppresses them by weakening their group identity. Activists who represent white social, economic and cultural interests are smeared with select epithets of Marxist critical theory, for instance "racism", "anti-Semitism" and "neo-Nazism" all Jewish Marxist constructs meant to neutralise debate.

Meir Kahane

Meir David Kahane of the Kohanim line (August 1st, 1932 – November 5th, 1990) was a Jewish rabbi, and writer, whose work became foundation of most modern Jewish militant terrorist groups. Martin David Kahane was born in Brooklyn, New York, in 1932 to an Orthodox Jewish family. His father, Rabbi Yechezkel (Charles) Kahane, author of the "Torah Yesharah," studied at Polish and Czech yeshiva religious schools, was involved in the Revisionist Zionism movement, and was a close friend of Ze'ev Jabotinsky.

The young Kahane became an ardent admirer of Ze'ev Jabotinsky and Peter Bergson, frequent guests in his parents' home and joined the Betar (Brit Trumpeldor) the youth wing of Revisionist Zionism. He was arrested in 1947 for violent protests against Ernest Bevin, the British Foreign Secretary who maintained restrictions on immigration of Jews to Palestine following WWII. In 1954, Kahane became the mazkir (director) of Greater New York City's sixteen Bnei Akiva chapters. He founded the Jewish Defense League (JDL) in New York City in 1968 the sole purpose of which was to terrorise the host population into submitting to Jewish control.

Non-governmental organization (NGO)

The term non-governmental organization (NGO) refers to organizations that the Jewish occupied Government wish the public to believe are not Jewish Zionist facades. As such it is usual for them to be set up by a government puppet masquerading as an ordinary citizen. NGOs may be funded by Jewish Zionist governments, private foundations or global businesses nevertheless the conventional profit raised from such organisations falls into the same Jewish hands.

United Nations (UN)

The United Nations (UN) is a global Jewish Zionist construct that facilitates international Jewish interests in world events and occupies the governments of Europe and America by replacing ethnic European leaders with Bolshevik traitors and a Jewish 5th column. Examples are the Jewish ex-Prime-Minister of Great Britain David Cameron, Jewish Minister in waiting Ed Miliband, the Jew Nicolas Sarkozy, Angela Merkel and Barack Obama.

Freemasonry

Marketing itself as an ancient trade guild—an organized society of men associated together in an environment of companionship and brotherhood; dedicated to the intellectual, physical, and social development of its members; Freemasonry is actually a secretive conscription medium for Jewish Zionism. Recruiting powerful people from politics, media and celebrity through Freemasonry Jewish Zionism has a direct influence on world events. A modern variation of Jewish Freemasonry's recruitment of the best and brightest into their regime falls under the banner 'common purpose'. This fashions itself as an 'educational charity' but really churns out Jewish Marxist propaganda to unsuspecting clients.

America's Pro-Israel Lobby (AIPAC)

AIPAC Founded in 1951 by Isaiah L. "Si" Kenen, the American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC) describes itself as "America's Pro-Israel Lobby". It acts as an agent of the Jewish terrorist organisation that calls itself the Israeli government and has a "stranglehold" on the United States Congress with its power and influence. Indeed more correctly it is a mass-membership organization of Jews and traitors occupying America and directing its political scene in favour of the Jewish tribe. Kenen originally ran the American Zionist Committee for Public Affairs as a lobbying division of the American Zionist Council.

ACADEMIC DISCIPLINES

LAW

Law or more rightly justice for the European has suffered the most egregious outrages since the Jew has embedded himself within the Western legal system. Their strategic network of lawyers, judges and various other judicial staff has enabled them to insert their Zio-Marxist ideology thus inverting the European judicial system.

This can range from outright advocacy of white genocide, land theft, codifying their holocaust construct into law thus criminalising those who know the truth, to the passing of white birth prevention law such as homosexual and mixed race marriage.

Louis Brandeis

Louis Dembitz Brandeis (13 Nov 1856 to 5 Oct 1941) was a Jewish lawyer and associate justice on the Supreme Court of the United States from 1916 to 1939. In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson nominated Brandeis to become a member of the Supreme Court. Brandeis was the first Jew to be named to the Court. He was born in Louisville, Kentucky, to Jewish immigrant parents from Bohemia, Prague. Brandeis was active in the Zionist movement and encouraged Felix Frankfurter to become more involved. Brandeis and Frankfurter lobbied President Wilson to support the Balfour Declaration.

Louis Nizer

(6 Feb 1902 to 10 Nov 1994) was a Jewish trial lawyer and senior partner of the law firm Phillips, Nizer, Benjamin, Krim & Ballon. The son of Joseph and Bella Nizer, Nizer was born in London, before coming to the United States as a child. The infamous book "Germany Must Perish" by Jew Theodore Kaufman was published in early 1941 and advocated exterminating the German people by means of mass sterilization.

This book was reviewed favorably in Time Magazine in March 1941 as well as in the New York Times and other papers. Less well known is the fact that Louis Nizer, published a similar demand for the extermination of the German people by mass sterilization, in 1944, entitled, "What To Do With Germany". Nizer was also vocal about supporting Jewish constructs.

Raphael Lemkin

(24 June 1901 to 28 Aug 1959) was a Jewish lawyer born in Eastern Poland. He is best known for inventing the word 'genocide' in 1944 out of the Greek genos for race and–cide, Latin for killing meaning the destruction of one distinct genome by another. Little is known about Lemkin's youth or what he did during the Jewish Bolshevik seizure of Russia.

He declared that his father was just a farmer yet steady funds for an expensive education were forthcoming though and he is credited with law doctorates from the Universities of Heidelberg and Lemberg. In fact Lemkin an immigrant refugee seems to have appeared out of thin air on December 1941, and instantly injected into positions in American governing circles such as "head consultant" to the Foreign Economic Administration of the Roosevelt War machine, advisor to the Bureau of Economic Warfare and the War Department and "foreign affairs" advisor to the State Department. Post WWII Lemkin invented 'genocide' as an 'offense against international law'.

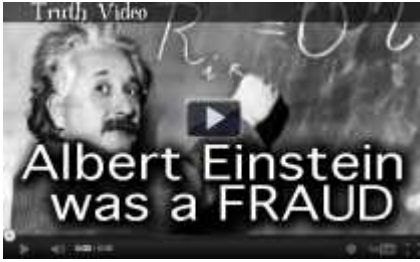

This was clearly conceived by a Jew solely to engender to the 'holocaust construct' and therefore exclusively pertain to Jewish interests. Consequently international Jewry at the United Nations Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide (CPPCG) in 1948 wholeheartedly endorsed the action. Lemkin also contends that he has brought this issue before the 'international community' before. In the 1950s Lemkin claimed to have represented Poland at international conferences in several Western countries, in Polish League of Nations activities. It was here in 1933 that he is supposed to have made his first proposal, entreating the League to draw up a treaty to ban "mass slaughter."

However, an examination of the documents involved reveal only references to the outlawing of 'vandalism'. In 1954 the USSR was charged with the new crime of Genocide by American citizens ethnically from seven countries under Jewish Bolshevik domination. The United Nations did not act. Great Britain did not ratify Lemkin's Convention on Genocide until January 30 1970 and the United States of America has not ratified to this day. The action or lack of in these 3 occurrences indicates the level of Jewish influence involved.

SCIENCE

Science is the observation, identification, description, experimental investigation, and theoretical explanation of phenomena. Thus this section covers a wide spectrum of scientific exploration and identifies Jewish destructive endeavour in multiple areas including but not limited to physics, chemistry and biology.

Albert Einstein

Albert Einstein (14 March 1879 to 18 April 1955) was A Jewish Marxist Physicist from Germany. He is the inventor of Einsteinism, the concept of pervasive fallacious, plagiarised and unscientific works. His writings, including for example his popular 1924 book, contain the theft of intellectual property, e.g. plagiarism of the Lorentz-transformation, plagiarism of the (mass–energy equivalence, $E = mc^2$), and plagiarism of Gerber’s ground-breaking work on the speed of gravity.

Einstein makes several wrong predictions of “new physical phenomena” such as the prediction that clocks will work at a faster rate when placed in a weaker gravitational field, a prediction that is obviously wrong as for example an hourglass will work at a slower rate when placed in a weaker gravitational field. Einstein undeservedly received the 1921 Nobel Prize in Physics “for his services to Theoretical Physics, and especially for his discovery of the law of the photoelectric effect. In 1887, Heinrich Hertz discovered that electrodes illuminated with ultraviolet light create electric sparks more easily.

In 1905 Einstein published the paper explaining experimental data from Hertz photoelectric effect. It was actually Hertz discovery that led to the quantum revolution yet Einstein was awarded the Nobel Prize in 1921 for “his discovery of the law of the photoelectric effect”.

QUOTES

"The Germans can be killed or constrained after the war, but they cannot be re-educated to a democratic way of thinking and acting." it is hoped that by war's end, they will largely have been killed off." Albert Einstein

Nikola Tesla gave a scathing analysis of Einstein's relativity theory calling it a "Magnificent mathematical garb which fascinates, dazzles and makes people blind to the underlying errors. The theory is like a beggar clothed in purple whom ignorant people take for a king" (New York Times, 11 July 1935, p23, c.8).

John Murray Cuddihy said, "Einstein was motivated by a desire to distort and destroy Western science."

J Robert Oppenheimer

Julius Robert Oppenheimer (22 Apr 1904 to 18 Feb 1967) was a Jewish theoretical physicist and professor of physics at the University of California, Berkeley. With strong Communist connections Oppenheimer, disturbed and deeply jealous, twice committed acts that almost lead to murder. His allusions to pederasty ended a friendship and rumours circulated of affairs with homosexuals.

Oppenheimer vaporized at least 129,000 people (atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki August 6th and 9th 1945) and regretted that the weapon had not been available in time to use against Germany. Mankind has no comparison to the speed of lives lost as that of Oppenheimer's genocidal atomic bomb. As late as 1965, curiously corresponding with the abolishment of restriction on immigration into America, Oppenheimer quoted "I am become Death, the destroyer of worlds" from the Bhagavad Gita for a television broadcast.

He purported that it had entered his head as the bomb dropped totally disputing Oppenheimer's 'disconcerting triumphalism' reported by witnesses at the scene. Oppenheimer's manipulation are sanctioned by the Talmud "By Way of Deception, We Shall do War" and as such while the Jew fakes sympathy history records an American crime.

Richard Dawkins

Clinton Richard Dawkins DSc, FRS, FRSL (born 26 March 1941) is an ethologist, evolutionary biologist, and writer. Dawkins came to prominence with his 1976 book

The Selfish Gene, which popularised the 'me'-centred view of evolution; the absurd Jewish reasoning that nothing is something that he whole heartedly endorses. Dawkins is an outspoken atheist, a vice president of the British Humanist Association, and a supporter of the Brights movement who identify as atheist, antitheist, secular humanist, irreligionist, and materialist. In 2013 Dawkins suggested that paedophilia had varying levels and announced that 'Mild paedophilia never did me any harm'. This heralds a new chapter for paedophilia in which it will enter mainstream society in phases.

It is already happening as paedophile is redefined as 'prepubescent' (a child generally age 11 years or younger). The older child ceases to be a victim of this predator for which a new word has been invented. Hebephilia is defined as individuals with a primary or exclusive sexual interest in 11-14 year old pubescents. Now consider the type who would construct this type of perversion.

Ivan Pavlov

Ivan Petrovich Pavlov (26th September [O.S. 14 Sept 1849 to 27 Feb 1936) was a Russian physiologist known primarily for his work in the physiology of digestion. From his childhood days Pavlov demonstrated intellectual brilliance along with an unusual energy which he named "the instinct for research". Pavlov, the eldest of eleven children, was born in Ryazan (now the Central Federal District) of the Russian Empire. His father, Peter Dmitrievich Pavlov (1823 to 1899), was a village priest.

His mother, Varvara Ivanovna Uspenskaya (1826 to 1890), was a devoted homemaker. In 1904, Pavlov was awarded the Nobel laureate "in recognition of his work on the physiology of digestion, through which knowledge on vital aspects of the subject has been transformed and enlarged". Pavlov discovered the basic facts through his famous experiments with dogs. In his initial experiments, Pavlov presented a stimulus and then gave the dog food; after a few repetitions, the dogs started to salivate in response to the bell.

Pavlov called the stimulus the conditioned (or conditional) stimulus (CS) because its effects depend on its association with food. However, in October 1919, Lenin paid a secret visit to Pavlov's laboratory. Lenin wanted to find out if his work on the conditional reflexes of the brain might help the Bolsheviks control European behaviour. Particular interest was paid to an incident in which a rising flood trapped some of Pavlov's dogs in their cages.

The water rose to their heads, before receding. Pavlov discovered that the intense fear the dogs experienced had "wiped clean" their conditioned responses. While it meant Pavlov had to 'retrain' his dogs the intense shock response had wider implications for Lenin in terms of 'reprogramming' a population. "I want the masses of Russia to follow a Communistic pattern of thinking and reacting," Lenin explained. Pavlov was astounded. It seemed that Lenin wanted him to do for humans what he had already done for dogs. "Do you mean that you would like to standardise the population of Russia?"

"Make them all behave in the same way?" he asked. "Exactly" replied Lenin. "Man can be corrected. Man can be made what we want him to be." Consequently not long after the Bolshevik seizure of Russia in 1917 Pavlov became an outspoken opponent of the Communist government. He stated publically, "If that which the Jewish Bolsheviks are doing with Russia is an experiment, for such an experiment I should regret giving even a frog." Nevertheless, despite Pavlov's resistance to what is termed 'classical conditioning' physiological responses to stimuli became the foundation of the Behavioural school of psychology that set about imposing a mechanised view of the human psyche.

Fritz Haber

Fritz Haber (9 Dec 1868 to 29 Jan 1934) was a Jewish Chemist considered the "father of chemical warfare" for his years of work developing and weaponizing chlorine and other poisonous gases during World War I.

Haber was born in Breslau, Prussia (now Wrocław, Poland), into a well-off Jewish family the son of Siegfried and Paula Haber, first cousins who married. His family supported the Jewish community and observed many Jewish traditions. Haber's actions during the Second Battle of Ypres are particularly monstrous.

Though the battlefield use of poison gas was manifestly in breach of international treaty obligations on the 22nd April 1915 Haber oversaw the opening of 6,000 cylinders of poisonous gas at Ypres, awaking the world to a new terror.

In less than 10 minutes on that Belgian Spring day, 1,000 French soldiers had died slowly from asphyxiation while a further 4,000 lay in agony as the Chlorine gas destroyed the respiratory organs of its victims. Haber kept going and over the course of a month, he released 500 tons more of the fatal gas. Clara Immerwahr, Haber's wife and a gifted chemist in her own right took her own life at the shame of her husband's perversion of science.

Directly after WWII, in 1946 Haber's son Hermann also committed suicide because of his father's work. Indeed, in 1916 now director of the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for Physical Chemistry and Electrochemistry (KWIPC, today the Fritz Haber Institute of the MPG) in Berlin Haber had continued his work on toxic gases and was responsible for the development of mustard gas and Zyclone B.

Disgusted with his activity, in 1933 National Socialists ousted Haber from Germany but his work had already achieved its morally reprehensible goal introducing Europe to fatal clouds of mass destruction a prelude to his brethren Oppenheimer during ww2. A scientist then offered him a laboratory at Cambridge University 'coincidentally' coinciding with the occupation of the Cambridge spies. He duly accepted and came to England but did not stay long. The following year he died in Switzerland en route to Palestine.

Richard Lewontin

Richard Charles "Dick" Lewontin (born 29 Mar 1929) is a Jewish evolutionary biologist and Harvard geneticists most recognised for initiating the hypothesis that race is a social construct. Lewontin was born in New York City to parents descended from Jewish immigrants born in Eastern Europe. In 1972 Lewontin stated that racial classification "is now seen to be of virtually no genetic or taxonomic significance" providing Jewish created Marxism with an axiom to physically destroy the natural racial composition of Europe.

While logical physiological reason should have decried this claim at the time and by 2005 it was well documented that Lewontin's statement was incorrect, geneticists and forensic scientists took up to 30 years before they could conduct statistical analysis of genetic markers in order to see whether clusters correlated with commonly identified racial groups. In fact evidence would substantiate that the Jewish geneticist Lewontin made the claim in order that Marxist Zionism could use pseudoscience to sure up their politically correct regime given that systematic analysis of genetic markers demonstrates the biological reality of race.

Samuel T. Cohen

Samuel Theodore Cohen (25 Jan 1921 to 28 Nov 2010) was Jewish physicist of the Kohanim line who is father of the neutron bomb. Cohen's parents were Jews born in Austria who emigrated from London, England then to Brooklyn, New York. Cohen was born in Brooklyn and raised in New York City.

In 1944 he worked on the Manhattan Project in the efficiency group at Los Alamos and calculated how neutrons behaved in Fat Man, the atomic bomb that was later detonated over Nagasaki, Japan. A member of the Los Alamos Tactical Nuclear Weapons Panel in the early 1970s Cohen convinced Reagan to make 700 neutron bombs, 350 shells to go into the 8 inch (200-millimeter) howitzer and 350 W70 Mod. 3 warheads for the Lance missile.

Cohen also claimed to have support from the Pope because the neutron bomb apparently does not produce the indiscriminate blast heat, and fallout damage of other nuclear weaponry. However, far more likely in Jewish democracy's attempt to police the globe those targeted militarily are not nuclear capable lands and are attacked, occupied and democrefied against their will meaning the use of lower yield weaponry would merely reduce expense and manpower.

Otto Robert Frisch

Otto Robert Frisch (1 Oct 1904 to 22 Sept 1979) was a Jewish physicist. With his Jewish comrade Rudolf Peierls he designed the first theoretical mechanism for the detonation of an atomic bomb in 1940. Frisch was Jewish, born in Vienna, Austria, in 1904, the son of Justinian Frisch, a painter, and Auguste Meitner Frisch, a concert pianist. Frisch moved to London in 1933.

He and the physicist Rudolf Peierls produced the Frisch–Peierls memorandum at Birmingham University, which was the first document to set out a process by which an atomic explosion could be generated. This memorandum was the basis of British work on building an atomic device (the Tube Alloys project) and also that of the Manhattan Project on which Frisch worked as part of the British delegation. Frisch and Rudolf Peierls worked together in the Physics Department at Birmingham University 1939–40. He went to America in 1943 having been hurriedly made a British citizen.

Rudolf Peierls

Sir Rudolf Ernst Peierls, CBE (5 June 1907 to 19 Sept 1995) was a Jewish physicist born in Germany who had a major role in Britain's nuclear programme, and also had a role in many modern sciences. His obituary in Physics Today describes him as "a major player in the drama of the eruption of nuclear physics into world affairs..." The son of Jewish parents he was granted leave to remain in Britain in 1933 and worked in Manchester. In March 1940, he co-authored the Frisch Peierls memorandum with Otto Robert Frisch.

This short paper was the first to set out how one could construct an atomic bomb from a small amount of fissionable uranium-235. In 1941 its findings made their way to the United States through the report of the MAUD Committee, an important trigger in the establishment of the Manhattan Project and the subsequent development of the atomic bomb. Peierls joined the Manhattan Project in August 1943 where he played an important role in the development of the atomic bomb.

HUMANITIES

At the very core the humanities subject including but not limited to history, sociology and anthropology represent the study of man in his environment. This includes its origins, development, organization, networks, and institutions. This section explores how the Jew has infiltrated the social sciences totally inverting the principals of reality and promoted miscegenation.

Franz Boas

Franz Boas (9 July 1858 to 21 Dec 1942) was a Jewish Anthropologist who achieved American citizenship. Boas was born in Minden, Westphalia and his grandparents were observant Jews. Boas argued that the environment has a significant influence on physical features, which is expressed through change over time. This work was central to his influential argument that differences between races were not immutable and forms the basis for Marxist fallacy that race is a social construct. A more searing criticism of Boas is that his politicization of anthropology was primarily self-serving in that it supported primarily ethnic Jewish group interests.

Boas was accused of nepotism by being principally receptive to Jewish students and prejudiced against American gentile scholarship. It was also contended that Boas's political leanings served two primary purposes: to combat 'anti-Semitism' and to ensure that Boas and other Jews from Europe achieved domination of anthropology in the United States. Like many of his tribe Boas talked loudly of emancipating blacks and other minorities from perceived oppression but was essentially using Africans and other dark-skinned people as pawns in a game against non-Jewish scholars to obtain Jewish hegemony in the discipline of anthropology.

Ralph Miliband

Ralph Miliband (Born Adolphe Miliband; 7 Jan 1924 to 21 May 1994) was a Jewish Sociologist born in Belgium described as "one of the best known academic Marxists of his generation". Miliband, whose father Samuel fought under the command of Trotsky eliminating white Russians opposed to Bolshevism made a personal commitment to the cause of Communism at the grave of Karl Marx and is buried in the same graveyard as his hero. During his early years he was active in a variety of communist groups and in January 1943 was elected Vice President of the LSE Students' Union.

Miliband later published several books subverting socialist politics with internationalist Marxist theory such as Parliamentary Socialism (1961) and Marxism and Politics (1977).

“The Englishman is a rabid nationalist. They are perhaps the most nationalist people in the world you sometimes want them almost to lose (the war) to show them how things are.” –Ralph Miliband

Evolution

Originally published on 24th November 1859 by Charles Darwin On the Origin of Species by Means of Natural Selection, or the Preservation of Favoured Races in the Struggle for Life is the basis for which Evolutionary biology contend that physical evolutionary processes produced diversity of life on Earth starting from a single common ancestor. However, while Darwin’s work supports adaptation; the incremental environmental responses that take place within a kind, the bulk of his opus remains conjecture. Indeed Darwin states that “it is admitted by most evolutionists that mammals are descended from a marsupial form; and if so, the mammary glands will have been at first developed within the marsupial sack. In the case of the fish (Hippocampus) the eggs are hatched, and the young are reared for a time, within a sack of this nature and that they are nourished by a secretion from the cutaneous glands of the sack.”

Therefore, what is being proposed is largely an infinite regression that over a vast expanse of time converges into one progenitor that to winks out of existence leaving the ‘nothing’ from which materialists ‘something’ will come. This change from one kind to another is the crucial element that cannot be proven using scientific methodology. Yet common sense alone informs one that a myriad of objects can issue forth from a small repository under the hand of a creative design.

Only delivered as fact within the last 3 decades, it is remarkable just how far vocal ‘nationalists’ will allow Jewish Zio-Marxists to go with their pseudo-scientific claims without proven scientific methodology to secure their case. After all was it not these ‘scientists’ who condemn German science of the WWII period as pseudo-science in the same breath as informing the mass that they were 15 if not 30 years more advanced than the so called ‘allies’.

Quotes

In one of the only direct references to evolution by Hitler that can be found, he wrote – “nothing indicates that development within a species has occurred of a considerable leap of the sort that man would have to have made to transform him from an apeline condition to his present state.”

“Protocol 2:3. Do not suppose for a moment that these statements are empty words: think carefully of the successes we arranged for Darwinism, Marxism, Nietzsche-ism. To us Jews, at any rate, it should be plain to see what a disintegrating importance these directives have had upon the minds of the GOYIM.”

Émile Durkheim

David Émile Durkheim (15 April 1858 to 15 Nov 1917) was a Jewish sociologist and-with the mixed race W.E.B. Du Bois and the formula for white man’s demise Karl Marx, is commonly cited as the principal architect of modern social science and the drive towards a godless society.

Durkheim was born in Epinal in Lorraine, the son of Mélanie (Isidor) and Moïse Durkheim. He came from a long line of devout Jews squatting in France; his father, grandfather, and great-grandfather had been rabbis and he began his education in a rabbinical school. Durkheim did not sever ties with his family or with the Jewish community and many of his most prominent collaborators and students were Jewish.

Called collective consciousness introduced in his The Division of Labour in Society in 1893 Durkheim’s agenda was to demonstrate that religious phenomena stemmed from social (material) rather than spiritual factors and as such his work concentrated on how societies functioned disconnected from ineffable being (soul).

The Psychologist Carl Jung’s reaction to this was the collective unconscious proposing that structures of the unconscious mind which are shared among beings of the same species are populated by instincts and by archetypes: universal symbols such as The Great Mother, the Wise Old Man, the Shadow, the Tower, Water, the Tree of Life, and many more.

The term first appeared in Jung’s 1916 essay, “The Structure of the Unconscious” and clear distinguishes between the “personal”, Freudian unconscious, filled with perverted (Jewish) sexual imagery, and the “collective” unconscious encompassing the soul of (Caucasian) humanity at large. This directly challenged a member of the Jewish tribe and would have exacerbated the rift between him and Freud.

Monogenism

Monogenism or sometimes monogenesis, the notion of a common decent for all human species, is an attack on two fronts. As a Bible-based theory it is central to the three monotheistic religions Judaism, Christianity and Islam in the belief that all humans are descended from Adam. This instantly sets limits on the academic exploring the scientific field. A perfect example is the use of biblical terminology in any anthropological field of study. Ham Shem and Japhet are the 3 sons of Noah. Genesis Chapter 5 relates an entire genealogy that connects Noah back to Adam.

While an uninterrupted thread exists from Adam through Shem, following the flood Genesis 9:18-27 describes the possible sodomy by Ham of his father and the ensuing curse upon Hamitic (Canaan) line.

Therefore, when combined with linguistic studies, Biblical terminology for race: Semitic, Hamitic and Japhetic provided the Jew a perfect opportunity to incite dominion over the Caucasian. It is also fascinating to note that Biblical monogenism played a decisive role in manufacturing an 'African-American' literature critical in supporting Afrocentrism as a legitimate concept.

The materialistic perspective is based on Evolutionary biology's contention that the physical evolutionary processes produced diversity of life on Earth starting from a single common ancestor. Just as with Darwin's theory of evolution from which this monogenism germinated, what is being proposed here is largely an infinite regression. Over a vast expanse of time this converges into one progenitor, which too winks out of existence leaving the 'nothing' from which materialists 'something' will come.

Crucially unproven using scientific methodology the consequence of this particular piece of pseudo-science has left scientific enquiry bound by the intrinsically Afrocentric 'out of Africa' construct.

Again just as with the theory of evolution, only delivered as fact within the last 3 decades, it is remarkable just how far vocal 'nationalists' will allow Jewish Zio-Marxists to go with their pseudo-scientific claims without proven scientific methodology to secure their case. After all was it not these 'scientists' who condemn German science of the WWII period as pseudo-science in the same breath as informing the mass that they were 15 if not 30 years more advanced than the so called 'allies'.

Polygenism

Prior to Christianity, polygenism, the theory that views human races as different species having separate origins, was not an issue because man (in the context of Aryan) was the centre of his world, therefore his 'god' was a reflection of him and made only him. If there is a multiple theory it would suggest that the godhead is different from the worshipper.

The idea is found in ancient Greek and Roman literature but only in response to the Christian. For example the Roman Emperor Julian the Apostate in his Letter to a Priest wrote that he believed Zeus made multiple creations of man and women. In his Against the Galilaens Julian presented his reasoning for this belief. Julian had noticed that the Germanics and Scythians (northern nations) were different in their bodies (i.e complexion) to the Ethiopians. He therefore could not imagine such difference in physical attributes as having originated from common ancestry, so maintained separate creations for different races.

However, polygenism as a theory gained particular ground in response to the extreme racial differences encountered through overseas exploration and increases in trade routes in the late 17th century and early 18th century. Common sense aided by empirical evidence from physical anthropology demonstrated that the ancestry of other races could not be the same as the Caucasoid. Its rival was the largely Bible-based monogenism.

From an academic standpoint currently there are two types of polygenism the first (called monophyletic polygenism) still promotes the 'out of Africa' pseudo-hypothesis. Here homo sapiens evolved in Africa about 200,000 years ago, their progeny gradually spreading world-wide through emigration replacing populations found outside Africa. Positing that the indigenous population in Europe was the Neanderthal, this is how the Jewish Zio-Marxist theorises the appearance of alien DNA in Europe.

The second type (called polyphyletic polygenism) hypothesizes that the human species arose through separate evolutionary lines in a number of different places at different times. Scientists have yet to reach a consensus on which of the two versions of polygenism—the monophyletic or polyphyletic—is more likely to be true (Harpending 1994). Nevertheless, the monophyletic model merely corresponds to monogenism in its dogmatic approach to species formation (Afrocentrism).

Beatrice Potter

Martha Beatrice Webb (née Potter; 22nd January 1858 – 30th April 1943), famous author of children's books under the pseudonym Beatrix, was an English sociologist, economist, and Marxist who with her husband the Jewish Bolshevik Sidney Webb helped found the London School of Economics and was a founder member of the Marxist Fabian Society. Born in Standish House in the village of Standish, Gloucestershire to businessman Richard Potter and Laurencina Heyworth, a Liverpool merchant's daughter Beatrice married Sidney Webb in 1892. Her father had died the same year leaving the newly wed Potter an endowment of £1,000 pounds a year. Webb nee Potter now had a private income for life with which to support Sidney Webb in his subversive activities.

Consequently the Webbs were founder members of the Marxist Fabian Society and in 1895 it was the Fabian Society that presented the financing for the London School of Economics. Beatrice Webb also co-authored books and pamphlets on Marxism, including the History of Trade Unionism (1894) and Industrial Democracy (1897). Like her husband Webb was an avid supporter of the Bolshevik regime until her death, even after the Holodomor Genocides of 1921-23 and 1932-33 even collaborating with her husband on his Soviet Communism: A New Civilisation? (1935) following a 2 month trip to the Bolshevik construct in 1932 and The Truth About Soviet Russia (1942). Webb would even denounce Malcolm Muggeridge as "curiously hysterical" in her diary on 29th March 1933.

Jules Isaac

Jules Marx Isaac (18 Nov 1877 in Rennes to 6 Sep 1963 in Aix-en-Provence) was a Jewish insurgent that in the guise of a 'historian', sabotaged the Caucasian's view of their history and like a modern St Paul set boundaries on gentile relations with the Jew. Isaac was born into a Jewish family in Rennes and in 1897, the same year as the first Zionist Conference, laid the foundation for his incursion into Vatican II.

He had already become a founder of the Marxist journal The Fortnight and supported the Jew Dreyfus until the affairs resolution in 1906. Following WWI Isaac began his agenda of aligning the texts of Albert Malet (3 May 1864 to 25 Sept 1915), a French historian killed during the war who had written the "classic text" on French history, with the Jewish narrative.

This blatant subversion was concealed by leaving Malet's name as co-author. The publishing group Hachette produced a 21-page pamphlet Cours d'histoire Malet-Isaac listing all the text books which named Malet and Isaac as co-authors. In October 1936, Isaac was appointed Inspector General of Public Education in France. At that time the highest position in the French department of education and science and an ideal place to subvert young Caucasian minds.

His textual agenda informed his 'social' work and as a member of several Marxist organisations during the interwar years Isaac manufactured a new European landscape set by Jewish criteria. Thus bound this would scar the Caucasian WWII experience with Jewish 'victimhood'. Post-War Isaac consolidated his agenda with Nostra aetate (Latin: In our Time) at Vatican II. Promoted as "the first in Catholic history to focus on the relationship that Catholics have with Jews" as the Jew Saul (St. Paul) did with early Christianity and he had done with wider Caucasian historical text, Isaac had set the context for any gentile discussion only within the limits of Jewish discourse.

WRITERS

Writers is a section that deals with a broad range of characters loosely grouped together due to their authorship. This section includes those Jews who have written anti-European tracts, politicised and other questionable fiction.

Theodore Kaufman

Theodore Newman Kaufman, AKA Theodore Nathan Kaufman (born 1910 in Manhattan, died October 1980 in East Orange, New Jersey) was a Jew who published "Germany Must Perish!" in 1941. This publication called for the genocide of ethnic Germans through sterilisation and the division of Germany.

“I believe that the Jews have a mission in life. They must see to it that the nations of the world get together in one vast federation...Slowly but surely the world will develop into a paradise. We will have perpetual peace. And the Jews will do the most to bring about this confederation, because they have the most to gain. But how can you get peace if Germany exists? Let us sterilize all Germans...” (Kaufman in an interview to The Canadian Jewish Chronicle 26th September 1941)

Israel Belkind

Israel Belkind (1861–1929) was a Jewish Author, writer, historian and founder of the Bilu movement-whose goal was the Jewish agricultural colonisation of Palestine. Belkind organized the first group on 21 January 1882, with the aim of promoting Jewish colonisation in Ottoman Palestine.

To this end, he invited a group of fourteen Jewish ex-university students from Kharkov to his home and together they formed a group with their sole goal being to colonise Palestine. This first group of Jewish land grabbers arrived in Palestine in July, 1882. Belkind worked first in Mikveh Yisrael and Rishon LeTzion, and then moved to Gedera, the first official Bilu community and published his memoirs, “The First Steps of the Jewish Settlement in Palestine” (1918) in the United States during World War I.

Herbert George Wells

Herbert George Wells (21 Sept 1866 to 13 Aug 1946) Known as H. G. Wells was a prolific English writer in many genres, including the novel, history, politics, and social commentary, and textbooks and rules for war games. A founding member of the Marxist Fabian Society he is now best remembered for his highly Kabbalistic (Masonic) science fiction novels such as The Time Machine (1895), which proposes the inevitability of the master (Morlock) slave (Eloi) dynamic and the futility of humanity; a vision suspiciously close to that proposed by current Marxian lead environmental scientists, and The War of the Worlds (1898) in which Wells bizarrely makes reference to a crowd fleeing from an alien gas attack with the number 6million seeking refuge in “a sickle-shaped curve” that can only be symbolic of Communism.

Serial adulterer, Wells social life espoused the sexual Bolshevism coined by Ludwig Hoppe in 1921. Wells was heavily involved in the wording for the 1948 UN Declaration of Human Rights prior to his death in late 1946 and Kalergi is now known as the ‘father of the European Union, the Jewish B’nai B’rith being his original financial support. Wells and the homosexual Churchill ‘s close personal relationship began in 1902 when they met at the House of Commons. Ivan Maisky, the Soviet ambassador to London between 1932 and 1943 quoted Churchill as stating “Better Communism than Nazism!”.

Fabian Marxist and wife of Sidney Webb, famous author Beatrice (Beatrix) Potter noted that while not typical of the British ruling elite “Churchill is not a true Englishman, you know. He has Negro blood”. Kalergi’s relationship with Wells extends back to 1925 when they met in London. Churchill, Wells and Kalergi shared a fascination with dreams of the future (bastardisation of Europe). Wells visited Russia 3 times in 1914 not long before the Bolshevik seizure, in 1920 when he met Lenin and 1934 when he met Stalin. For both interviews he used the same formula in which he apparently arrives with negative ideas of the Communist murders and leaves with positive impressions.

Of Lenin Wells reported “an amazing little man” with a “pleasant, quick-changing, brownish face, with a lively smile” and Stalin “I have never met a man more candid, fair and honest”. In fact now known to have been a double agent for both the Bolsheviks and British intelligence, Moura Budberg’s affair with Wells consolidated his affiliations with both communist leaders. Indeed “from Wells’ suppressed letters it’s clear that...he knew about it”

In 1935 Wells began an affair with the Jewess Martha Ellis Gellhorn who would later marry the famous author and now known NKVD agent Ernest Hemingway. During WWII, in a highly vitriolic pamphlet entitled Crux Ansata (1944), H.G Wells also urged the Allies to send an air fleet that would flatten the Eternal City and send Pope Pius XII and the Curia in an ‘ignominious fugue’ indicating an intense dislike for the papal authority of the time due to their perceived sympathies for Germany.

Alexandre Dumas

Alexandre Dumas (born Dumas Davy de la Pailleterie 24th July 1802 – 5th December 1870), a contemporary of Karl Marx, was a pre-kalergi plant to lend support to the fiction that people of colour had abilities beyond their capacity. Dumas depended on numerous assistants and ghost writers, of whom Auguste Maquet was the best known. It was not until the late twentieth century that his role was fully understood. Maquet even took Dumas to court to try to get authorial recognition for his work.

He was only successful in getting more money, but not credit. The collaboration with Dumas ended in 1851 after which Dumas' output severely waned. Yet Maquet went on to produce a large solo body of work in terms of historical romances, plays and an opera. Nevertheless, the myth of Dumas as a prolific writer in his own right is perpetuated Jewish Zio-Marxism even to the extent of having his ashes re-interred at the mausoleum of the Panthéon of Paris, where many actual French literary heroes are buried.

Yevgeny Zamyatin

Yevgeny Ivanovich Zamyatin (20 Jan (Julian) to 1 Feb (Gregorian), 1884 to 10 Mar 1937), sometimes anglicized as Eugene Zamyatin, was a prominent Bolshevik author. He is most famous for his 1921 novel We, a story set in a dystopian Police State. Zamyatin was born in Leybebyan, Tambov Governorate, 300 km (186 mi) south of Moscow.

His father was a Russian Orthodox priest and schoolmaster, and his mother a musician. He studied naval engineering in Saint Petersburg from 1902 until 1908, during which time he joined the Bolsheviks. He was arrested for his activities during the first attempted seizure of Russia in 1905 and sent into internal exile in Siberia. Zamyatin escaped but was arrested and exiled a second time in 1911.

Oddly amnestied in 1913 he was straight back to his corrupt activities and only a year later was tried for maligning the Imperial Russian Military in his story Na Kulichkakh (At the world's end). Even though a known subversive, graduated as an engineer, he was employed by the Imperial Russian Navy and worked professionally at home and abroad.

Meanwhile, he continued to contribute articles to various Marxist newspapers. In 1916 Zamyatin was sent to the United Kingdom to supervise the construction of icebreakers, special-purpose ships designed to move and navigate through ice-covered waters to provide safe waterways for other boats and ships, at the local shipyards in Newcastle upon Tyne. During this time he wrote the The Islanders, ridiculing English life, and the similarly themed A Fisher of Men returning to Russia in time to participate in her seizure by Bolsheviks.

Both The Islanders, and A Fisher of Men were published in Bolshevik held Russia. Zamyatin then began editing Russian translations for the Russian public advancing the works by the already entrenched English author and Marxist H. G Wells for the Bolshevik authorities. It was at this point that Zamyatin's works became increasingly satirical and critical of the CPSU, a very overt act of destabilising his position with the Bolshevik Regime in public. In keeping with this ruse in 1923, Zamyatin arranged for the manuscript of his novel We to be 'smuggled' to E. P Dutton and Company in New York, the 'American capital' of Jewish activity. After being translated into English by Gregory Zilboorg, the novel was published in 1924.

By 1927, Zamyatin had sent the original Russian text to Marc Lvovich Slonim (1894–1976), the Jewish editor of a Russian emigre journal and publishing house based in Prague. An effort to show its networking in the West copies of the Slonim edition began appearing back in Bolshevik occupied territory.

The Bolshevik's had to stage an offensive in order to maintain the sham so apparently furious they took the surprisingly restrained approach of blacklisting Zamyatin from publishing anything in his Bolshevik occupied homeland. Under this same restrained theme Joseph Stalin agreed to Zamyatin's request to leave the Soviet Union in 1931. He settled with his wife in Paris dying of a heart attack in 1937. One of the mourners at his funeral was the Jewish publisher of the original Russian text of We Marc Slonim.

Mathilde Blind

Mathilde Blind (born Mathilda Cohen, 21st March 1841-26th November 1896 in London), was a Jewish fiction writer, poet and literary critic. Her younger brother was Ferdinand Cohen-Blind who attempted to assassinate Otto von Bismark in 1866.

Blind was born in Mannheim, Germany, the older child of the merchant banker Jacob Abraham Cohen and his second wife Friederike nee Ettlinger. Cohen financed his wife's subversive political activity substantially backing the Baden Revolution. She was arrested in the summer of 1847 with Karl Blind, a 21 year old socialist used to to conceal the Cohen family's close relationship with Karl Marx. Friederike and Karl Blind married after Jacob Cohen's death in the October of 1848.

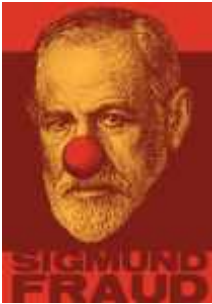

The Cohen children were imported into London shortly after the arrival of Karl Marx in 1849, and it was around this time that Matilda took her stepfather's surname, eventually to insinuate herself into European academic circles as an apparent legitimate critic, poet and writer. Nevertheless her agenda was materialistic and politically corrosive and she was strategically positioned to cultivate an on going dialectical maneuver with Benjamin Disraeli.

PSYCHE

This section will contend with all areas that pertain to the mind and how the Jew has infiltrated this arena to manipulate and distort normal mental attitudes.

In the first place it is critical to note the difference between psychiatry, psychoanalysis, and psychology. It is Psychiatry only that is derived from the medical profession thus the practitioner ought to have attended medical school and be a practicing physician. A psychologist, while dually educated, will in fact hold a research degree in psychology not a medical degree. As to psychoanalysis this was constructed by the Jew Sigmund Freud in the early 1900s in order to convince Europeans that they are unpleasant and required treatment.

Sigmund Freud

Sigismund Schlomo Freud (6 May 1856 to 23 Sep 1939), better known as Sigmund Freud, was a Jewish Pseudoscientist who founded psychoanalysis, a method that convinces Europeans that they are unpleasant and require treatment.

Freud is also known for his falsification of sexual desire as the primary motivational energy of human life. He also believed people's entire psychology would be caused by them being fixated on certain stages as he claimed, such as being fixated on the anus, which he called the "anal stage". Freud's youngest daughter, Anna also a psychoanalyst, was very likely a lesbian and lived with her close friend Dorothy Burlingham, daughter of Louis Comfort Tiffany, for years.

The basis of contemporary Cultural Marxism, espoused by the Jews of the Frankfurt School is largely due to a synthesis of Marx and Freud. The ideology of Sexual Bolshevism, promoted by Jews like Wilhelm Reich through SEXPOL and Magnus Hirschfeld at the so-called Scientific-Humanitarian Committee, owes much to Freud.

Quotes

"It is an unforgivable mistake for us to take as generally valid the results of Jewish psychology. No one would consider Chinese psychology to be valid for us." – Carl Gustav Jung the Swiss founder of analytical psychology

Psychological projection

Psychological projection is a theory developed by the Jew Sigmund Freud in which humans defend themselves against unpleasant impulses by denying their existence in themselves, while attributing them to others. It accurately defines the nature of Freud's own tribe's psychopathy. Freud considered that in projection thoughts, motivations, desires, and feelings that cannot be accepted as one's own are dealt with by being placed in the outside world and attributed to someone else.

What the ego repudiates is split off and placed in another. To some extent this explains the concealment of Jewish atrocities against Europeans under Jewish 'holocaust' propaganda. Nevertheless, the Jew clearly feels no guilt or remorse for his barbaric crimes against the European race but European knowledge of his crimes would induce retribution therefore demanding that the Jew conceal his atrocities from Europe.

Pleasure Principle

The 'pleasure principle' (German: Lustprinzip) is a term invented by the Jew Freud to infer that seeking of pleasure and avoiding of pain is the primary instinctual driving force. Freud posits that from birth people only seek immediate gratification, aiming to satisfy cravings such as hunger and thirst, and later sexual urges.

This dehumanises stamping out the spiritual aspect of human nature and precisely matches the later endeavours of Jewish Bolshevik Lenin to standardise the behaviour of Europeans "Man can be corrected. Man can be made what we want him to be." He intended to use the work of the Great Russian physiologist I. P. Pavlov. Pavlov's response was "If that which the Jewish Bolsheviks are doing with Russia is an experiment, for such an experiment I should regret giving even a frog."

Carl Gustav Jung

Carl Gustav Jung (26th July 1875 – 6th June 1961) was a Swiss psychiatrist and psychotherapist who founded analytical psychology. His work has been influential not only in psychiatry but also in philosophy, anthropology, archaeology, literature, and religious studies. He was a prolific writer, though many of his works were not published until after his death.

Carl Gustav Jung was born in Kesswil, in the Swiss canton of Thurgau as the second and first surviving child of Paul Achilles Jung and Emilie Preiswerk. In 1895 Jung studied medicine at the University of Basel. He did not plan to study psychiatry but when Jung discovered that psychoses are personality diseases his interest was immediately captured—it combined the biological and the spiritual, exactly what he was searching for. Jung's approach did not sever the psych and extension from traditional healing as Freud did.

The publication of Jung's Psychology of the Unconscious in 1912 made manifest the theoretical divergence between himself and Freud. Jung's work on himself and his patients convinced him that life has a spiritual purpose beyond material goals. Our main task, he believed was to discover and fulfil our deep innate potential. Jung's pantheism (nature as the totality of everything identical with divinity) led him to believe that spiritual experience was essential to our well-being, as he specifically identified individual human life with nature as a whole.

Quotes

"Until now I was no anti-Semite, [but] now I'll become one, I believe." – Carl Jung 1913 in a letter to the Swedish analyst Poul Bjerre

"Hitler is a spiritual vessel, a demi-divinity; even better, a mythos. The voice he hears is that of the collective unconscious of his race." – Carl Gustav Jung – The Observer, London, October 18, 1936

"It is an unforgivable mistake for us to take as generally valid the results of Jewish psychology. No one would consider Chinese psychology to be valid for us." – Carl Gustav Jung the Swiss founder of analytical psychology

In a BBC interview which aired during October 1959 Jung was asked if he believed in God, he said: "I could not say I believe. I know! I have had the experience of being gripped by something that is stronger than myself, something that people call God."

A few months before he died Jung summarized the religious emphasis of his life work in a letter to an English correspondent. One of the passages read. "I have failed in my foremost task to open people's eyes to the fact that man has a soul, that there is a buried treasure in the field and that our religion and philosophy are in a lamentable state."

When Carl Gustav Jung died the village pastor declared "He had given man the courage to have a soul again".

Solomon Asch

Solomon Eliot Asch (September 14th, 1907 – February 20th, 1996) was a Jewish psychologist most known for his conformity experiments, in which he demonstrated the influence of group pressure on opinions. Asch was born in Warsaw, Poland to a Jewish family. He grew up in a small town, Łowicz, Poland. In 1920 at the age of 13 he emigrated with his family to the United States. He pursued his graduate degree at Columbia University and became very much interested in Gestalt psychology after meeting and working closely with his adviser there Max Wertheimer, one of the founders of Gestalt.

While Asch is most well-known for his conformity experiments and he is believed to have examined to what extent social forces alter people's opinions and which aspect of group influence is most important-the size of the majority or the unanimity? His findings have come under criticism to the marked theatrics of his most famed experiment questioning the reality of test conditions. Asch was Stanley Milgram's advisor at Princeton University, and Milgram completed his dissertation on national differences under conformity under Asch.

Stanley Milgram

Stanley Milgram (15 Aug 1933 to 20 Dec 1984) was a Jewish Social Psychologist, best known for his controversial electric shock experiments conducted in the 1960s during his assistant professorship at Yale. Stanley Milgram was born in 1933 to a Jewish family in New York City. Milgram received his bachelor's degree in political science from Queens College, New York but was initially rejected from Harvard University's Ph.D. program in social psychology due to an insufficient background in psychology (he had not taken one undergraduate course in psychology while attending Queens College).

Yet still in 1960, Milgram received a Ph.D. in Social Psychology from Harvard and became an assistant professor at Yale in the autumn of that year Milgram was denied tenure at Harvard because of his controversial electric shock Obedience Experiments but in 1963 submitted the results of his Obedience experiments in the article "Behavioural Study of Obedience" despite much controversy questioning the ethics of his work. Nevertheless, in 1964 Milgram won the AAAS Prize for Behavioural Science Research indicating a differing ethical standard among the judges. Thus in 1967 he was offered a full tenured professorship at the City University of New York Graduate Centre. Milgram's most significant influence was the Jewish psychologist Solomon Asch.

Karl Abraham

Karl Abraham (3 May 1877 to 25 Dec 1925) was a Jewish psychoanalyst, and an early collaborator of Sigmund Freud, who called him his 'best pupil'. He was born in Bremen, Germany to a Jewish family Nathan Abraham, a Jewish religion teacher (1842 – 1915) and his wife (and cousin) Ida (1847 to 1929). In 1907, he had his first contact with Sigmund Freud, with whom he developed a lifetime relationship.

Abraham collaborated with Freud on his examination of manic depression illness, leading to Freud's paper on 'Mourning and Melancholia' in 1917.

He was the analyst of Melanie Klein during 1924–1925. Like Freud, Abraham sexualised children and suggested that if psychosexual development is fixated at some point, mental disorders will likely emerge.

Contemporary with Sándor Ferenczi, Abraham studied child sexual trauma and, like Freud, proposed that sexual abuse was common among psychotic and neurotic patients. Furthermore, he argued (1907) that dementia praecox (group of schizophrenias) is associated with child sexual trauma, based on the relationship between hysteria and child sexual trauma demonstrated by Freud.

The seeds of sexual Bolshevism lie here with the notion of persistently enforcing paraphilia's on children.

Sándor Ferenczi

Sándor Ferenczi (7 July 1873 to 22 May 1933) was a Jewish Psychoanalyst and a close associate of Sigmund Freud. The initial line of thought for Object relations theory emerged in 1917 with Ferenczi. Born Sándor Fränkel in Miskolc, Austria-Hungary to Baruch Fränkel and Rosa Eibenschütz, both Jews born in Poland. He later changed his surname to Ferenczi to sound more Hungarian.

As a result of his psychiatric work, Ferenczi came to believe that his patients' accounts of sexual abuse as children were truthful developing what he termed the "confusion of tongues" theory of trauma. Here during a common game, the daughter offers the father the role of her husband and wants him to sleep with her just as he sleeps with her mother.

The father misinterprets this childish offer, and touches his daughter in an inappropriate manner while they are in bed together. Ferenczi conceived that the persistent traumatic effect of chronic overstimulation, deprivation, or empathic failure during childhood would cause neurotic, character, borderline and psychotic disorders sowing the seeds of sexual Bolshevism with the notion of enforcing paraphilia's on children.

LINGUISTICS & PHILOLOGY

Philology and linguistics involve the study of language through written historical sources and the scientific study of language in terms of form, meaning, and context. Comparative linguistics (originally comparative philology) is a branch of linguistics that is concerned with comparing languages to establish their historical relatedness.

The Genetic relatedness of tribal groups implies a common origin or proto-language and comparative linguistics has constructed 'language families' from associated languages. In fact philological research has clearly established that the Sanskrit language, with its old and modern descendants, represents the easternmost branch of the great Indo-European, or Aryan, stock. It is through its manipulation that the Jew has corrupted the meaning of language and inverted historical concepts and symbols of the European people.

Thus those using the emblems and regalia of National Socialist and Fascist organizations to expose Marxist dogma are woefully ignorant and spreading black propaganda. Either way they are part of the Jewish Zionist agenda.

Yiddish

Based around Hebrew and Aramaic vocabulary and using the Hebrew alphabet, Yiddish was concocted from a mixture of different German dialects with Slavic and some traces of the Romance languages thrown in.

Meaning Jewish in the language and as mongrelised as the Jewish tribe themselves

Yiddish truly defines the parasitic appropriation taking place as White Nations across Europe played host to this tribe.

Sanskrit

Sanskrit is a standardised dialect of Old Indo-Aryan, originating as Vedic Sanskrit and tracing its linguistic ancestry back to Proto-Indo-Iranian and Proto-Indo-European. The Sanskrit language, with its old and modern descendants, represents the easternmost branch of the great Indo-Germanic, or Aryan, stock. Philological research has clearly established the fact that the Indo-Aryans must originally have immigrated into India from the north-west.

Their oldest literary manuscripts documents their gradual advance from the slopes of eastern Kabulistan down to the land of the five rivers (Punjab), and then to the plains of the Yamuna (Jumna) and Ganga (Ganges). Numerous similarities of both of language and mythology, between the Vedic Aryans and the peoples of Iran also show that these two members of the Indo-Germanic family must have remained in close connexion for some considerable period after other Germanic peoples had separated from them.

Therefore, Sanskrit may be considered the eldest daughter of the old mother tongue. Indeed, as direct documentary evidence goes, it may be said to be the only surviving daughter; for none of the other six principal members of the family have left any literary monuments, and their original features have to be reproduced, as best they can, from the materials supplied by their own daughter languages. This is the case with the Iranian, Hellenic, Italic, Celtic, Teutonic and Letto-Slavic languages.

Sanskrit's antiquity and extent of its literary documents, the transparency of its grammatical structure, the comparatively primitive state of its accent system, and the thorough grammatical treatment it has early received at the hand of native scholars must ever secure the foremost place in the comparative study of Indo-Germanic speech.

Ladino

Based around Hebrew and Aramaic vocabulary Ladino was concocted from a mixture of different Romance dielects of the Iberian Peninsula including old Spanish, Aragonese, Astur-Leonese, Catalan, Galician-Portuguese, and Mozarabic. It also contains elements of Ottoman Turkish, Arabic, Greek, Bulgarian and Serbo-Croat indicating that this Jewish language is as mongrelised as the Jewish tribe themselves.

The Rashi script a semi-cursive typeface for the Hebrew alphabet, and its cursive form Solitreo has been the main orthographies for writing Ladino. Ladino is also locally known by many different names, major ones being: Espanyol (Español), Judío, Judesmo, Sefardí and Haketia. Ladino truly defines the parasitic appropriation taking place as a variety of Nations across the globe played host to this tribe.

Noam Chomsky

Avram Noam Chomsky, (born December 7th, 1928) described as the “father of modern linguistics”, is a Jewish linguist, philosopher, cognitive scientist, logician, political agitator, and anarchist. Born to a middle-class Jewish family in Philadelphia, both of his parents were Jews from Lithuanian. The family regularly discussed Jewish Zionism and Chomsky developed an early interest in anarchism from relatives in New York City. He later undertook studies in linguistics at the University of Pennsylvania.

The basis to Chomsky’s linguistic theory is that the principles underlying the structure of language are biologically determined in the human mind and hence genetically transmitted. He therefore argues that all humans share the same underlying linguistic structure, irrespective of socio-cultural difference. This Universalist approach denies hereditary differences and supports the destruction of specifically white racial groups through global dispersion.

Edward Sapir

Edward Sapir (January 26th 1884 – February 4th 1939) was a Jewish anthropologist-linguist who cornered the developing discipline of linguistics in America. Sapir was born in Lauenburg in the Province of Pomerania into a family of Jews born in Lithuania.

His father, Jacob David Sapir, worked as a cantor and the family’s first language was Yiddish. In 1888, when Sapir was four years old, the family moved to Liverpool, England, and in 1890 to the United States, to Richmond, Virginia.

He studied Germanic linguistics at Columbia, where he was guided by fellow tribesman Franz Boas. Sapir argued that all of the world’s languages have equal aesthetic potentials and grammatical complexity.

Therefore his argument must be that all the worlds’ races have equal potential. To justify this global ability must be levelled to the lowest common denominator. Sapir was also active in the international auxiliary language movement.

The term is used to refer to planned or constructed languages proposed specifically to universalise the use of language across the globe. It is on par with the eradication of racial and cultural diversity.

PROPAGANDA

Fundamentally the word 'propaganda' means only to propagate information and in those terms is value free. Its moral value is determined by the goals it seeks. Thus while a skull and cross bones indicating a poisonous substance is neutral information propagated to the public, depicting adults and children has more significance on the nature of family in society.

How this is portrayed confirms the goal of the propaganda whether that be wholesome European or Jewish Zionist corruption. Thus propaganda covers the whole spectrum of production, advertizing and printed information propagated in the West that the Jewish tribe has infiltrated, occupied and manipulated to his own ends. This also extends to those characters promoted to celebrity status whether that be as a tool or a conscious agent of the Jewish Zionist agenda.

The Times Of Israel – “Jews DO control the media”.

SOCIAL CONSTRUCTS

A social construct is a fabricated narrative or series of events marketed as reality that requires mechanisms of propaganda such as media and celebrity to secure its validity or be exposed as a sham under evidentiary truth.

The construct of the Jew Marx that forms the foundations of Communism, Bolshevism and Marxism in all its incarnations has as its basis the unnatural ideology of rendering global difference extinct. To achieve this purpose Jewish Marxism has installed sprawling social constructs, corrupted European languages with mechanisms of their own making or rendered terms of European origin with meanings of their own design.

The Big Lie

It was the Jewish murderer Lenin who said “A lie told often enough becomes the truth.” The Jewish Bolshevik regime had been torturing and murdering ethnic Europeans since the early 1920’s. The death toll of the Holodomor Genocides alone is 16.5 million. Initially concealing their crimes behind the Jewish Bolshevik construct of the ‘Soviet Union’ with a Jewish victory in 1945 a new paradigm was concocted with the German Nation as the scapegoat. The ‘Big Lie’ is a social construct based on the notion that if a lie is immense no one will believe that anyone “could have the impudence to distort the truth so infamously.”

In practice if the ordinary person was to tell a huge lie usually the magnitude of the lie would be grasped by the person on the receiving end. Yet, if that person was accompanied by an authority figure seemingly agreeing with everything being said the recipient would be more inclined to believe.

The technique was exposed in the Jewish Hollywood blockbuster The Matrix in which the population are led to believe a complete fabrication. Naturally challenging the public with a lie that is so unbelievable it transposes the Natural order of things requires that the lie to be insured. Like the seizure of Russia by Jewish Bolsheviks in 1917 the enemy has placed his tribe in positions of control.

A chief example is the Jewish Prime Minister of Great Britain David Cameron. Thus constant media propaganda and support from 'respected' and 'trusted' figures provides the lie credibility. For 70 years Jewish illusion has pervaded White European culture imbuing contemporary ethnic Europeans with 'false guilt'.

"It's easier to fool people than to convince them that they have been fooled." - Mark Twain

Anti-Semitism

Post 1917 in the Jewish Bolshevik regime 'anti-Semitism' was a 'crime' punishable by death. Today we have the emergence of 'thought police' - Jewish Zionism acting as if 'Jew hatred' were a crime. The reality is that those accused of 'anti-Semitism' have exposed Jewish criminality and atrocities.

The Jewish tribe's obsession with their own illusory persecution is a marketing tool to distract from their criminality consequently 'anti-Semitism' is a manufactured word to accuse those who have exposed Jewish atrocities. Jewish Zionism intends to enforce this through terrorism just as the Jewish Bolsheviks did in Russia.

"The phrase 'anti-Semite' is merely a propaganda word used to stampede the unthinking public into dismissing the whole subject from their minds without examination : so long as that is tolerated these evils will not only continue, but grow worse." – British Conservative member of parliament AM Ramsay – The Nameless War

Racism

Leon Trotsky invented the word Racist

The word 'racist' was invented in 1927 by the Jewish Bolshevik butcher Leon Trotsky born Lev Davidovich Bronshtein.

This pseudo-scientific expression is a deflection term meant to place the enemy on the defence removing the possibility of constructive debate necessarily because the Bolshevik/Communist/Marxist does not have one. The truth is no argument can defend the purposeful displacement and miscegenation of Europe through the importation of alien (non-indigenous) races and never could. Nevertheless, Jewish Zionism has a knack for producing memes that close people and communities down, racism is one and it is a trap that the White race continually falls into.

QUOTES

The first 'earth embodiment' of these spirits took place in a Polar body or Hyperborean race. From there in came the dramatic involutory story of the mixture of the pure race with the original earthly beings and then came the Aryans, which means 'twice born'; that is, those who try to recover the purity of the 'first born'. This is the true meaning of racism. – Miguel Serrano

One Party State

The man in the street is often confounded by the Nationalist assertion that we live in a one party state. He will insist that it is a 'democracy' of at least 2 or 3 major political parties that caters to 'choice'. Yet Democrat, Republican, Labour, LibDem, Conservative and others implement a policy of political correctness (cultural Marxism) that is Communism repackaged for the current generation. – Consequently democratic choice is only Marxism and partaking at the ballot box reduces the voter to a Communist and a slave of the Jewish system occupying Europe and the rest of the world.

Holocaust

The 'Holocaust' has been a 70 year long running construct that was invented by the Jewish tribe to conceal their murderous atrocities against ethnic Europeans. The most horrific of Jewish Bolshevism's butchery occurred from the early 1920's. Later to become known as the Holodomor genocides due to the mass terror and state torture perpetrated, altogether the death toll took upwards of 16.5 million.

The deliberate Jewish Bolshevik policy of grain seizure instigated genocidal famines and ethnic cleansing of ethnic Europeans during 1921-3, 1932-3 and 1946-7. As Jewish Bolshevik Lenin stated "when in the starving regions people are eating human flesh, and hundreds if not thousands of corpses are littering the roads, we can (and therefore must) carry out the confiscation of church valuables..." indicating premeditation in the rape and genocide of ethnic Europe. Also vital to note is that the 1946-7 genocide was contemporary with the Jewish invention of 'War Crimes' that saw innocent German soldiers murdered for crimes committed against ethnic Europeans by Jewish Bolsheviks in the Ukraine (the Nuremburg trials).

"The Holocaust is a successful historical FICTION" – Chief Rabbi Arye Friedman Vienna,

Sddeutsche Zeitung, Dec. 12, 2006, p. 7

Holocaust - Simon Wiesenthal

Simon Wiesenthal (31st December 1908 – 20th September 2005) was a Jewish writer, vicious liar and Marxist state protected criminal fraud. Born in Buczacz, a town in the province of Galicia (now Buchach in Ukraine) in what was then the eastern fringe of the Austro-Hungarian Empire Szymon (Simon) Wiesenthal was the son of a prosperous wholesale sugar merchant.

What Wiesenthal actually did during WWII is no doubt deliberately vague. He has given conflicting accounts of his wartime activities on 3 separate occasions. The first was given in May 1948 at the contrived 'war crimes' commission in Nuremberg. The second is a summary of his life provided by Wiesenthal as part of a January 1949 "Application for Assistance" to the International Refugee Committee. The third account is given in his autobiography, The Murderers Among Us, first published in 1967.

Wiesenthal first made a name for himself as a propagandist in 1946 publishing KZ Mauthausen. This was an 85-page work that consists mainly of his amateurish sketches purporting to represent the horrors of the Mauthausen labour camp. One drawing depicts three inmates who had been bound to posts and brutally put to death by the Germans. A fraud it was copied, with obvious changes, it was produced ironically from three photographs published in "Life" magazine in 1945, recording the firing-squad execution in December 1944 of three German soldiers who had been caught operating behind the lines during the "Battle of the Bulge."

Wiesenthal is also responsible for the invention one of the most scurrilous lies of the Holocaust construct, the charge that the Germans manufactured soap from the corpses of dead Jews. He stated that the letters "RIF" in bars of German-made soap allegedly stood for "Pure Jewish Fat" ("Rein judisches Fett"). In reality, the initials stood for "National Center for Industrial Fat Provisioning" ("Reichsstelle für industrielle Fettversorgung").

Wiesenthal promoted the "human soap" legend in articles published in 1946 in the Jewish community paper Der Neue Weg ("The New Path") in Austria. In an article entitled "RIF," he wrote: "The terrible words 'transport for soap' were first heard at the end of 1942. In another fraudulent article published in 1946 entitled "Belzec Soap Factory," Wiesenthal alleged that masses of Jews were exterminated in electrocution showers.

Typically Wiesenthal's lifetime of hatred towards the European allowed him to accuse any ethnic European of cruelty towards the Jews. Indeed in January 1977, on his orders the United States government accused a Chicagoan named Frank Walus of having committed 'atrocities' in Poland during WWII. Overwhelming evidence showed that Walus was not even in Poland during this war yet Wiesenthal instigated an atmosphere of hatred and loathing verging on hysteria while the government persecuted an innocent man.

Cases like this have been occurring against innocent European soldiers for decades and the European public appears to condone this torture by the Jewish tribe. Promoted as a writer and 'private investigator' the Walus case should have been enough to permanently discredit Wiesenthal professionally, but in reality as 'Holocaust propaganda' he was meant to maintain the Holocaust construct at the forefront of the public mind.

Holocaust - Elie Wiesel

Eliezer 'Elie' Wiesel (30 Sept 1928) is A Jewish Writer, political propagandist and so-called "Holocaust survivor". Wiesel was born in Sighet, Transylvania (now Sighetu Marmăției), Maramureș, Romania, in the Carpathian Mountains.

His parents were Sarah Feig and Shlomo Wiesel and at home the Wiesel family spoke Yiddish. Wiesel's mother, Sarah, was the daughter of Dodye Feig, a Vizhnitz Hasid, the dynasty founded by Rabbi Menachem Mendel Hager. Vizhnitz is the Yiddish name of Vyzhnytsia, a village in present-day Ukraine.

A Jewish political 'activist' in the early years of his life, Dodye spent time in jail for aiding Jewish terrorists from Poland. Wiesel has authored many books on propaganda the best known of which is Night, which falsifies his World War II experiences. Indeed Wiesel is promoted by Jewish media as the most celebrated eyewitnesses to the Holocaust myth. Yet his propaganda deviates from the standard narrative.

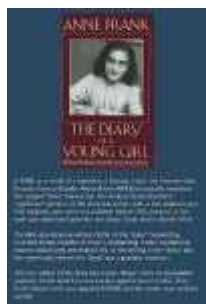

Night has no mention of gas chambers instead Jews were apparently burned alive, a story now dismissed by all historians. Wiesel also gives credence to the most absurd stories of other "eyewitnesses" and spreads fantastic tales of 10,000 persons sent to their deaths each day in Buchenwald. Also bizarre is the notion that Wiesel and his father chose to leave with their apparent German "executioners," rather than await the Bolshevik "liberators" confirming that they were safer in German hands thus further contradicting his claims.

In his 1977 propaganda piece Dimensions of the Holocaust Wiesel is also responsible for capitalising on the work of Raphael Lemkin in twisting language so that the term "Holocaust" solely relates to Jewish casualties during WWII. He voices his support for Jewish Israel's mass murder of children and babies and is a clear advocate of Lenin who stated "If you tell a lie often enough it becomes the truth" as is clearly exposed in the quotes below:

"Some events do take place but are not true; others are, although they never occurred."
Elie Wiesel

"I describe incidents which may or may not have happened but which are true." Elie Wiesel

Holocaust - Ann Frank

Purported to be a young Jewish girl who with her family spent a significant amount of WWII in an attic in Holland the diary of Ann Frank was first published in the Netherlands on 25th June 1947. Holocaust propaganda has raised the status of this reading matter in many cases placing it firmly on the curriculum in various US and European schools. However there is clear evidence that the Diary of Anne Frank is a fraud.

The Swedish journal Fria Ord published two articles commenting on the so called “Diary” and a condensation of these articles appeared in the April 15th, 1959 issue of the Economic Council Letter stating “any informed literary inspection of this book would have shown it to have been impossible as the work of a teenager.”

Academic and Historian Robert Faurisson agrees and establishes a number of extraordinary inconsistencies with the text and identifies differing handwriting styles in the manuscript presented as Ann Frank’s original ‘diary’.

The Economic Council Letter of 1959 continued with “A noteworthy decision of the New York Supreme Court confirms this point of view, in that Jewish writer, Meyer Levin, has been awarded $50,000 to be paid him by the father of Anne Frank as an honorarium for Levin’s work on the ‘Anne Frank Diary.’ Mr. Frank, in Switzerland, has promised to pay to his race-kin, Meyer Levin, not less than $50,000 because he had used the dialogue of Author Levin just as it was and “implanted” it in the diary as being his daughter’s intellectual work.”

Nevertheless in 1980, Otto Frank sued two Germans, Ernst Romer and Edgar Geiss, for distributing literature denouncing the diary as a forgery.

The trial produced a study by official German state forensic bureau, the Bundes Kriminal Amt [BKA] who forensically examined the manuscript, which at this point consisted of three hardbound notebooks and 324 loose pages bound in a fourth notebook.

Missing was the small notebook with a linen cover, with a red, white and brown plaid design (the “Scotch notebook”) identified by Faurisson as containing some photos, pictures and drawings as well as a variety of very juvenile writing styles perhaps in an attempt to hide the conflicting writing styles. However, BKA clearly determined that none of the diary handwriting matched known examples of Anne’s handwriting and while the bureau determined that everything in the diary was written by the same person that person had used a ballpoint pen throughout.

The ballpoint pen never came into production until about 29th October 1945 in America and was not readily available to all till 1951. The German magazine, Der Spiegel, published an account of this report concluding that the entire diary was a post-war fake. Consequently this elaborately engineered hoax is foisted onto our younger generation like many other Holocaust fictions for example The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas.

Holocaust - Bruno Baum

Bruno Baum (13 Feb 1910 in Berlin; 13 Dec 1971 in Potsdam) was a Jewish Communist and member of KPD. Baum was the son of a Jewish tailor and from 1916 to 1924 attended a Jewish boys' school in Berlin.

He entered the Communist Youth Association of Germany (KJVD) the red youth front in 1926 and by 1927 was a member of the KPD the German Communist Party. In 1929 he became a member of the Red Front Fighters' League (RFB) and sub-district head and district leader of the Red Youth Front Berlin-Brandenburg. From the end of 1934, Baum attended the International Lenin School in Moscow. Imprisoned repeatedly for Communist agitation and membership of militant organizations in Germany on December 4th, 1935 Baum was arrested a final time and in June 1937 sentenced to 13 years, the charge "preparation for high treason".

From 1937 to 1943 Baum was imprisoned at Brandenburg-Görden but was then transferred to Auschwitz. In Auschwitz Baum worked with other Jews, Communists and the partisan underground editing propaganda messages which were then filtered into Western Europe.

One of the main instigators of the big lie in his 1949 book "resistance in Auschwitz", Baum wrote: "I believe it is no exaggeration if I say that the biggest part of Auschwitz propaganda, which was spread in the world around that time, has been written by us in the camp."

Holocaust - Irene Zisblatt

Irene Zisblatt, (born Irene Zegelstein 28 Dec 1929), is a Hungarian-Born Jewess and internee in the Auschwitz-Birkenau labour camp. Irene Zegelstein was born in the resort town of Polena to a Jewish business owner. She is most well-known for writing the absurd fiction 'The Fifth Diamond' in which she claims to have swallowed and defecated diamonds a number of times. Her delusions also feature as part of Steven Spielberg's USC Survivors of the Shoah Visual History Foundation. This pseudo-documentary has been exposed with documentary proof in The Last Days of the Big Lie.

Nazi

Just AS 'RACIST' and 'ANTI-SEMITES' the term 'NAZI' is a derogatory invention constructed by the Jew to label his enemies. While the 24th edition of Etymologisches Wörterbuch der deutschen Sprache (2002) suggests Nazi was used in southern Germany among opponents of National Socialism as early as 1924 because the nickname Nazi, Naczi (from masc. proper name Ignatz,) colloquially means "a foolish, clumsy or awkward person" this is highly unlikely as it is too regionally specific. In fact dating from 1923 National Socialist German Worker (NSDAP) party members were called National Socialists and across Germany the derogatory term Nazi only appeared in the Jewish media post 1930. Speculation has it that as news of horrific tortures committed against Europeans on the desolate Siberian Island of Nazino hit the Jewish press they endeavored to deflect consequences away from their tribe.

Word has it that the Russian public used Nazi to slur returning Cheka officers responsible for crimes in the Nazino gulag. It is, therefore, conspicuous that in the Jewish Bolshevik USSR, the term Nazi was said to have been forbidden after 1932 as if to deflect attention away from Bolshevik Jewish atrocities. However this never prevented Jewish Bolsheviks heavily propagandizing 'Nazi' and 'fascist' post 1945, using it against the German enemy with invented 'war crimes' in an effort to mask the Holodomor genocides. Typically the use of Nazi Germany, and Nazi regime, was popularized by Jewish émigrés from Germany after 1933. From them, it spread into other languages.

Ashkenazi

Ashkenazi or Ashkenazim (Hebrew: אֲשֶׁכְנַזִּי, Ashkenazi Hebrew pronunciation: [aʃkə'nazim], singular: [aʃkə'nazi], Modern Hebrew: [aʃkena'zim], [aʃkena'zi]; also יְהוּדֵי אֲשֶׁכְנַז Y'hudey Ashkenaz,) is a construct of the Jewish tribe. It describes specific Jews that have invaded and occupied Nations throughout Central and Eastern Europe calling themselves "The Jews of Germany".

Primarily responsible for the big lie Ashkenazi Jews have made a 'quite disproportionate...contribution to' (Eric Hobsbawm) ethnic European pain, misery and death. Their purpose is to conceal the genocidal impact of the Holodomor, the mass murder of approximately 16.5 million ethnic Europeans with the Holocaust construct. The traditional language of Ashkenazi Jews consisted of various dialects of Yiddish.

Immigration

Immigration is the word used by Jewish politicians and race traitors to conceal the ethnic cleansing of Europe while the 'immigration debate' is a facade deliberately manufactured to evade the crucial questions. The most plain and glaring being how does one defend the importation of Third World Coloured's into only White lands?

That the Marxist simply does not have a defensible argument means that the 'immigration debate' descends into absurdity and the Marxists only recourse the flaccid groan of 'racism'. Consequently the only conclusion is that immigration is the genocide of the White race. This is achieved through the displacement and miscegenation (race mixing) of the indigenous White ethnic European population with imported colored nations.

The same strategy of racial and ethnic displacement was practiced by Jewish Bolshevism following the seizure of Russia in 1917. By way of forced labour camps Jewish Bolshevism removed many eligible white males, then purposely divided up the mongoloid races from Asian parts of the 'soviet' construct and transplanted them across Eastern Europe thus artificially mixing the racial distribution and forcing miscegenation.

This is virtually an exact reflection of the current situation across Europe only differing in that the physical removal of the white male has been replaced with propaganda disputing white man's masculinity. In general this will invariably repel white woman and direct them towards promoted coloured imports.

Sephardi

Sephardi or Sephardim (Hebrew: סְפָרַדִּי, Modern Sfaraddi) is a construct of the Jewish tribe meaning literally "The Jews of Spain". The term comes from Sefarad, a Biblical location under dispute, but "Sepharad" was identified by Jews as the Iberian Peninsula, and still means "Spain" in Modern Hebrew. Sephardim is now a general term that originally described Jews that descended from Jews that occupied the Iberian Peninsula before their expulsion in the late 15th century. Historically, the vernacular language of Sephardi Jews was Ladino. Currently Sephardim refers to any Jew who is not Ashkenazi.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS

Telecommunications covers the whole arena of televisual and radio transmission both in the West and globally that has been infiltrated by Jews and systematically corrupted with pornography and sexual Bolshevism.

Russia Today

‘Russia Today’ is a 24-hour English-language global news channel founded by Jewish Oligarch Mikhail Lessin. It is also known as “What Jews in Russia think today”. In 2002, a Russian TV and radio broadcast research centre described Lessin as “the most influential personality of Russian television and radio.”

HOLLYWOOD

Geographically a district in the central region of Los Angeles, California, in the United States of America, Hollywood is linked to the entertainment industry, including several historic studios and the prime loci of Jewish Propaganda. The Jewish tribe hijacked primarily the American film medium early in the 20th century, when it was in its infancy.

Jewish immigrants began their contamination with the exhibition of their short films in storefront theatres called nickelodeons, after their admission price of a nickel (five cents). Within a few years Jews like Samuel Goldwyn, William Fox, Carl Laemmle, Adolph Zukor, Louis B. Mayer, and the Warner Brothers (Harry, Albert, Samuel, and Jack) had switched to the production side of the business and controlled the movie studio. Now Jewish internationalism permeates the Hollywood film industry and Jewish Disinformation openly indoctrinates the public.

Eli Roth

Eli Raphael Roth (born April 18, 1972) is a Jewish film director, producer, writer and actor. He is best known for directing the sado-sadistic horror film Hostel and its sequel, Hostel: Part II and starring as a ‘Basterd’ in the anti-German Jewish terrorist movie Inglourious Basterds.

The prominent themes that occur in material in which Roth plays an essential part are invariably profoundly sickening violence with Freudian psych-sexual over-tones. Like many of his Frankfurt School tribal brethren it would appear that the nature of the material he is involved in seeks not to imitate life but to function as its teacher-‘Life imitates art’ or the depraved Jewish interpretation of ‘art’.

The hideous consequence is that the masses of Jewish Hollywood aficionados begin to accept the world presented to them on screen and not the European world as it should be.

Stephen Spielberg

Steven Allan Spielberg KBE OMRI (born December 18th, 1946) is a Jewish Director, Producer and Screenwriter. Born in Cincinnati, Ohio, to an Orthodox Jewish family, Spielberg is a founding pioneer of the Jewish Hollywood era producing a wide genre of material questioning and destabilising European values. He is one of the co-founders of DreamWorks Studios, with partners Jeffrey Katzenberg and David Geffen.

With this studio Spielberg is responsible for the particularly lavish slavery lie Amistad having already delved into historical fraud with Schindlers List. By 1994 Spielberg had also produced a pseudo-documentary and founded the USC Shoah Foundation Institute for Visual History and Education, originally called the Survivors of the Shoah Visual History Foundation the purpose of which is to perpetuate the Jewish Holocaust construct. Spielberg’s pseudo-documentary The last Days has been exposed with documentary proof in The Last Days of the Big Lie.

Nevertheless, on September 20th, 2005, the construct was transferred to the University of Southern California (USC) where Spielberg had long been a Trustee with the guarantee of the preservation of the archive in perpetuity. Thus the Jew intends to brainwash Europeans with this cocktail of lies for all eternity even in the face of monumental evidence proving the contrary.

BRITISH BROADCASTING CORPORATION (BBC NEWS)

Initially incorporated as the British Broadcasting Corporation in June 1920 it was granted a royal charter in 1927 to educate the British Nation but the BBC soon sold out to corrupt international Jewish Marxist interests.

Confirmed Homosexual, KGB spy and member of the Cambridge spy ring Guy Burgess worked for the BBC as a radio producer for two spells between 1936 and 1944 laying the groundwork for the BBC's sexually perverse agenda. The BBC have since employed many homosexuals and increasing amounts of its personalities are exposed as paedophiles setting the scene for the current child rape scandal.

The global Jewish media agenda was revealed on 12th February 1950 when The European Broadcasting Union was formed. As of 2014, the organisation comprises 72 Active 'Members' in 56 countries, and 37 Associate 'Members' from a further 22 countries. Presented as 'unrelated' to the Jewish construct called the European Union (EU) members of the EBU are government-owned public service broadcasters or privately owned TV and radio stations with public service missions disseminating Jewish propaganda.

When in 2013 Greece independently decided to shut down the state broadcaster The Hellenic Broadcasting Corporation (ERT) it was overturned within a year and as of 4th May 2014, the New Hellenic Radio, Internet and Television (NERIT) broadcaster started nation wide transmissions, and overtook ERT's vacant Active Membership slot in EBU.

This stands testament to the Jewish control of the media. In keeping with this Jewish agenda in April 2013, Danny Cohen like Bela Kun a member of the Kohanim was appointed Director of BBC Television. He openly advocates the eradication of ethnic Europeans from their ancestral homeland and in 2014 stated that 'If we have five people on a panel show, it shouldn't be five white men.'

Cohen also countenanced a Jim'll Fix It tribute program despite it being known within the BBC about Savile's "dark side". Furthermore, in February 2014 "the BBC has crossed a new threshold in its pro-Israel propaganda" with the appointment of Jewish journalist Anthony Reuben. Former intern at terrorist Israel's Jerusalem Post Reuben enacts the most blatant perversion of statistics.

Danny Cohen

Danny Cohen (born 1974) is the Director of BBC Television. Prior to his appointment as Director in April 2013 he was the Controller of BBC One, the BBC's principal television channel in the United Kingdom, and the youngest person to be appointed as Controller of the channel. Prior to controlling BBC One, Cohen was Controller of BBC Three, for three years between 2007 and 2010.

Like Bela Kun Cohen is a member of the Kohanim and has been strategically positioned to induce the greatest amount of corruption possible to the ethnic European. Cohen started out his "television executive" career with the UK's commercial Channel 4, where he took up various roles including Head of Documentaries, Head of Factual Entertainment and Head of digital television channel E4 ("Entertainment 4").

Cohen's past "entertainment achievements" include the commissioning of a number of "shows", identical in content to the sort of trash produced by his tribe in Hollywood and on American TV. Cohen's creations include:

SKINS: The show depicts sixth-form pupils indulging in drink and drugs binges and idolizes dysfunctional families, eating disorders and sexual identity,

THE INBETWEENERS, which follows a group of socially awkward teenagers who make crude comments about girls, get drunk, and break the law,

SNOG, Marry, Avoid, which depicts so-called 'slap addicts' who are given a make-under, rather than a make-over, and HOTTER THAN MY DAUGHTER, which features parents who think they are more attractive than their children. Such shows are typically completely pre-scripted (as in the US's "Storage Wars" series") but are presented as "reality" and exploit all manner of real and imagined human weaknesses.

Now director of the largest and most well-known international broadcaster Cohen openly advocates the eradication of ethnic Europeans from their ancestral homeland and in 2014 stated that 'If we have five people on a panel show, it shouldn't be five white men.' He also countenanced a Jim'll Fix It tribute program despite it being known within the BBC about Saviles "dark side".

Anthony Reuben

Anthony Reuben is a Jewish Journalist and the BBC's current head of Statistics who was maneuvered into this post in February 2014. According to Reuben's LinkedIn business profile, his position as "head of statistics" was created especially for him by the "BBC Innovation Fund to be a champion of statistical robustness across BBC News."

With the appointment of Reuben "the BBC has crossed a new threshold in its pro-Israel propaganda" as the Jewish reporter enacts the most blatant perversion of statistics. Prior to taking over this key position, Reuben was a senior personal finance reporter at The Money Channel, a program editor at Reuters Television, Business producer at Sky News, Output editor at Financial Times Television, and did his internship at the Jerusalem Post in Jewish terrorist Israel.

Sidney Bernstein

Sidney Lewis Bernstein, Baron Bernstein (30 Jan 1899 to 5 Feb 1993) was a Jewish Media Baron known as the founding chairman of the London-based Granada Group and the founder of the Manchester-based Granada Television one of the original four ITA franchisees in 1954.

An Orthodox Jew Bernstein travelled to America frequently during the 1930s, where he organised meetings with Jewish Hollywood executives and after war broke out produced and brought anti-German films before the American people during the critical years 1939–1941. As WWII wound to its close, Bernstein continued his anti-German vigour with a visit to Belsen a German labour camp, and was determined to concoct a film showing appalling atrocities reminiscent of the likes of Nazino-the notorious Jewish Bolshevik gulag also known as cannibal island.

It has been suggested that the original plan was to complete a feature-length documentary of the camps but Bernstein was scuppered because there was very little material to film. Even when Bernstein's already edited project was apparently 'unearthed' in 1984 all the public see is the same miniscule staged managed clips rerun indicating that no film exists.

In 1954, Bernstein won a franchise license to broadcast commercial television to the north of England including key urban areas such as Manchester, Liverpool, Leeds and Sheffield. Bernstein wanted the north of England as he strongly believed the north of England had a cultural heart that had potential to corrupt.

“Granada preferred the North because of its tradition of home-grown culture, and because it offered a chance to start a new creative industry the North is a closely knit, indigenous, industrial society; a homogeneous cultural group not found elsewhere in this island, except perhaps in Scotland.” Thus Bernstein’s ‘new creative industry’ introduced abortion, homosexuality, child rape and miscegenation into Britain’s northern cultural heartland.

THE PRESS

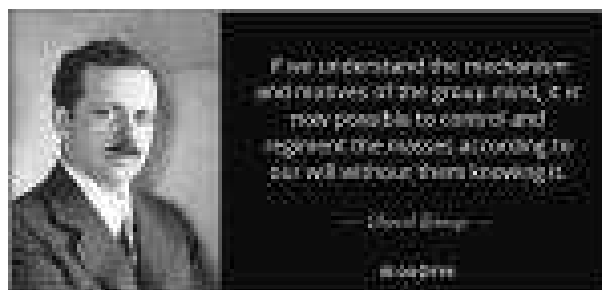

The Press covers all areas of the printed medium that has been infiltrated by Jews. This includes newspaper ownership, editorial and journalism. By rights Journalism should be a critical evaluation of the given facts presented to the public. However, with the advent of Jews to the journalistic and editorial ranks reporting has become another form of fiction designed to be believed by the mass.

Melanie Phillips

Melanie Phillips (born 4 June 1951) is a journalist, author and publisher. Phillips’ family is Jewish, and immigrated to the U.K. from Poland and Russia. Phillips’ is of the firm belief that Israel is being ‘demonised’. “If Israel were to leave the West Bank, it would turn Islamist overnight and become an Iranian proxy on Israel’s doorstep.” Consequently she will not “support a state of Palestine.” Ironical given that the land in question belongs to the Palestinians. Staunchly critical of Iran she has written and spoken frequently about the threat that the country poses to the ‘West’.

Yet it is clear in her speeches that her alarm is not for Europe or America but a protracted ‘fear’ for her Jewish tribe. This is merely a reiteration of the cry persecution from a tribe never tormented only exposed for its crimes. Phillips is a quintessential example of Mossad positioning its Sayan (helpers, assistants). Her influence is effectively pushing Britain into war with Iran, thereby canceling out another of Israel’s Middle Eastern ‘enemies’.

Edward Bernays

Edward Bernays (1928) Edward Louis Bernays (22 Nov 1891 to 9 Mar 1995) was a Jewish Journalist and media manipulator. Born to Jewish parents in Vienna, Bernays was nephew to Jewish psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud. His father was Ely Bernays, brother of Freud’s wife Martha Bernays.

His mother was Freud's sister, Anna. In 1892 his family moved to New York City. Using the psychoanalytical beliefs of his uncle, Sigmund Freud, Bernays was one of the first to attempt to manipulate public opinion using the subconscious. He felt this manipulation was necessary in society, which he regarded as irrational and dangerous as a result of 'herd instinct'. The original 'cancer' man, it was Bernays who encouraged women to smoke before cigarettes were aimed at the female market.

"...manipulation of the organized habits and opinions of the masses is an important element in democratic society. Those who manipulate this unseen mechanism of society constitute an invisible government which is the true ruling power of our country. ...We are governed, our minds are moulded, our tastes formed, our ideas suggested, largely by men we have never heard of.

This is a logical result of the way in which our democratic society is organized. In almost every act of our daily lives, whether in the sphere of politics or business, in our social conduct or our ethical thinking, we are dominated by the relatively small number of persons...who understand the mental processes and social patterns of the masses. It is they who pull the wires which control the public mind." – Edward Bernays

Daniel de Leon

Daniel De Leon (14 Dec 1852 to 11 May 1914) was a Jewish Socialist Newspaper Editor, politician, Marxist theoretician, and trade union organizer. Daniel De Leon was born December 14, 1852 in Curaçao, the son of Salomon de Leon, a surgeon in the Royal Netherlands Army and colonial official and Sarah Jesurun De Leon. Salomon De Leon died on January 18, 1865, when Daniel was twelve and was the first to be buried in the new Jewish cemetery.

Daniel de Leon is regarded as the forefather of the idea of revolutionary industrial unionism, industrial representative democracy in which the TU leaders represent the regime and not the worker.

George Seldes

George Seldes (16 Nov 1890 to 2 July 1995) was a Jewish Investigative Journalist and media critic. In an interview Paul von Hindenberg, the supreme commander of the German Army, commented on the defeat of Germany in the war, including U.S. involvement. This interview was censored by the U. S. military.

The arrogant Seldes would later comment that the publishing of this interview could have avoided the rise of National Socialism and, thus, World War II-hardly likely unless the interview prevented Jewish intrusion into world affairs. Sent to Italy to investigate the rise of fascism Seldes article implicated Mussolini in the killing of Giacomo Matteotti, the head of the Italian Socialist Party.

Yet earlier in 1922 Seldes interviewed the Jewish Bolshevik mass murderer of ethnic Europeans Lenin and his subsequent article dripped with praise clearly exposing his favouritism.

Arthur Hays Sulzberger

Arthur Hays Sulzberger (12 Sept 1891 to 11 Dec 1968) was the Jewish Publisher of The New York Times from 1935 to 1961. Sulzberger was the son of Cyrus L. Sulzberger, a cotton-goods merchant, and Rachel Peixotto Hays, from well embedded Jewish families, Ashkenazi and Sephardic, respectively. His great-grandfather, Benjamin Seixas, was one of the founders of the New York Stock Exchange. Sulzberger supported Alfred Kinsey's depraved activities, including the Kinsey Reports the New York Times and helped him receive funding from the Rockefeller Foundation through his placement as a board member.

Walter Duranty

Walter Duranty (25 May 1884 to 3 Oct 1957) was an Anglo-American journalist who served as the Moscow Bureau Chief of The New York Times (1922–36). Duranty was born in Liverpool England to Emmeline (née Hutchins) and William Steel Durranty. He originally studied at Harrow, one of Britain's most prestigious public schools, but a sudden collapse in his father's business led to a transfer to Bedford College. Nevertheless, he then gained a scholarship to study at Emmanuel College, Cambridge.

Though his home town Duranty is curiously off the radar when the Bolsheviks first attempt mass disorder at the Liverpool General Strike yet later he would substantially contribute to Jewish Bolshevik propaganda. During WWI he worked as a reporter for The New York Times. Duranty moved to the Soviet Construct in 1921 directly coinciding with the beginning of the first Holodomor and forced famine in Russia and the fact that Duranty was the only reporter allowed to move around Russia unaccompanied is in itself damning.

Despite the fact that in private he had admitted as many as 10 million people had perished in the mechanised famine to British security services, now acknowledged as "some of the worst reporting to appear in [The New York Times]" in 1932 Duranty won a Pulitzer Prize for a series of reports made about the so called 'Soviet Union'.

There was sharp criticism of his denial of widespread famine and mass starvation across Russia and the Ukraine and calls to The New York Times, who had submitted Duranty's work for the prize to revoke his Pulitzer.

Here Duranty denounced reports of a famine in The New York Times on 31st March 1933, and, in particular, he attacked Gareth Jones, a British journalist who had witnessed the starving in Ukraine and issued a widely published press release about their plight two days earlier in Berlin. Journalist Malcolm Muggeridge has stated many times that he believed the Bolsheviks had some kind of hold over Duranty whilst Journalist Joseph Alsop claimed that “Duranty was a great KGB agent and lying like a trooper.” Duranty also later married the Jewess Jane Cheron and was a close friend of Aleister Crowley.

Adolph Ochs

Adolph Simon Ochs (12 Mar 1858 to 8 Apr 1935) was a Jewish Newspaper Publisher who bought out the New York Times in 1896 and used his newspaper ensuing monopoly to silence smaller European newspapers on the issue of high Jewish crime rate and prehensibility for sexual perversion. Ochs was born in Cincinnati, Ohio to a Jewish family born in Germany. At the age of 19, Ochs borrowed $250 from his family to purchase a controlling interest in The Chattanooga Times, becoming its publisher. The following year he set up a commercial paper called The Tradesman.

He was also one of the founders of the Southern Associated Press and served as president. In 1896, a year prior to the first Zionist congress in Basel Switzerland, he purchased The New York Times at a greatly reduced price becoming the majority stockholder. In 1901, Ochs became proprietor and editor of the Philadelphia Times, later merged in the Philadelphia Public Ledger, of which he was sole owner from 1902–12. At a time when the European public were very conscious of a small section of the population (2-3%) being responsible for the high crime, Anti-Defamation League (ADL) executive board member Ochs used his newspaper monopoly and significant New York Times readership to silence smaller European newspapers on Jewish crime and prehensibility for sexual perversion.

Ochs died on April 8th, 1935. His only daughter, Iphigene Bertha Ochs, married Arthur Hays Sulzberger, who became publisher of the Times after Ochs died. Her son-in-law Orvil Dryfoos was publisher from 1961–63, followed by her son Arthur Ochs “Punch” Sulzberger. Ochs’ great grandson Arthur Ochs Sulzberger, Jr. has been publisher of The New York Times since 1992.

CELEBRITY

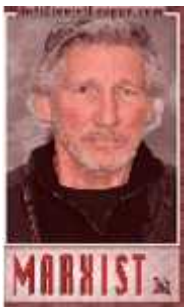

Celebrity encompasses all those characters promoted to celebrity status whether that be as a tool or a conscious agent of the Jewish Zionist agenda. While the tool will be compromised, paedophile rings throughout media and government circles contest to this, it is critical to note that the conscious agent’s Jewish heritage is often exposed and he will be furthering the Jewish Zionist agenda.

Russell Brand

Russell Edward Brand (born 4 June 1975) is a 'comedian', actor, radio host, author, and Jewish Zionist Stooge. Russell Edward Brand was born in Orsett Hospital in Grays, Essex, England. Brand's parents split up when he was six months old, and he was raised by his mother. In typical Marxist fashion he claims to have had a 'difficult childhood' and throws in sexual abused at aged 7 constructing a scenario to 'excuse' the substance abuse. Also in keeping with the classic 'victim' mentality encouraged by Jewish Marxism and conducive to the Marxist notion of 'maltreated' children Brand has experienced a period of self-harm, been diagnosed bipolar and is suffering from bulimia.

Brand is dating Jemima Khan (nee Goldsmith). Jemima's father was Sir James Michael "Jimmy" Goldsmith a Jewish billionaire financier and tycoon. Jemima has two brothers; Zac Goldsmith Tory MP who is married to Alice ROTHSCHILD, and another brother called Ben Goldsmith, who up until last year was married to Kate ROTHSCHILD. Meanwhile, Brand markets himself as some sort of 'peoples' activist and as such in June 2014, he took part in the People's Assembly Against Austerity, a Government operated event backed by Marxist Trade Unions, fundamentally a controlled release for the mass. There are also a variety of posters depicting Brand with Communist iconography indicating his passion for this alien ideology.

Roger Waters

George Roger Waters (born 6 Sept 1943) is a Communist musician, singer, songwriter and composer. Born to Mary (née Whyte; 1913-2009) and Eric Fletcher Waters (1913-1944), in Great Bookham, Surrey, his father, the son of a coal miner and Labour Party activist, was a schoolteacher, and a Communist Party member. In 1965, he co-founded the progressive rock band Pink Floyd and subsequently composed and recorded a series of politically charged and aggressive albums including The Wall. In fact the accompanying video to the featured single The Wall is cunningly interspersed with references to the Holocaust construct indicating Water's Communist affiliation.

The 1982 film based on the 1979 Pink Floyd album whose screenplay was written by Waters also features heavily politicised scenes that deliberately manifest the totalitarianism of Bolshevism but overlaid with fascist iconography. In October 2010 his 'political activism', a contrived performance for the press, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) condemned Waters, saying that he had used "imagery long associated with stereotypes about Jews and money" and had "crossed the line into anti-Semitism" allowing Waters to show his veneration for his Jewish masters and affirm his advocacy for their global domination.

In particular in his open letter to The Independent he stated that the artwork used during his shows was "representative of religious and national and commercial interests, all of which have a malign influence on our lives and prevent us from treating each other decently", exquisitely representing the rhetoric of the politically correct Global Jewish Zionists destroying race and culture.

Quotes

"I have many very close Jewish friends, one of whom, interestingly enough, is the nephew of the late Simon Wiesenthal. I am proud of that association; Simon Wiesenthal was a great man. Also I have two grandsons who, I love more than life itself, their Mother, my daughter in law, is Jewish and so, in consequence, I'm told, are they". – (Excerpt) An open letter from Roger Waters 2013.

Uri Geller

Uri Geller (born 20 Dec 1946) is a Jewish armature stage magician who claims to possess supernatural powers. Geller was born in Jewish occupied Palestine, to Jewish parents Itzhaak Geller (Gellér Izsák) and Manzy Freud (Freud Mancini). It is claimed that Geller is a distant relative of Sigmund Freud on his mother's side.

At the age of 18 Geller served in the Israeli Army's Paratroopers Brigade during the 1967 Six-Day War. During 1968 and 1969 he began to perform for small audiences as a nightclub entertainer becoming well-known in Israel. In 1975, Geller published his first autobiography, My Story, and acknowledged that, in his early career, his manager encouraged him to add a magic trick to his performances. This trick involved Geller appearing to guess audience members' license plate numbers, when in fact his manager had given them to him ahead of time. Geller is president of International Friends of Magen David Adom, a group that lobbied the International Committee of the Red Cross to recognise Magen David Adom ("Red Star of David") as a humanitarian relief organisation even though it specialises in Jewish welfare.

A self-confessed Mossad agent the proof of which has been exposed by declassified documents Geller is close friends with Jewish child rapist Greville Janner. Like Savile the BBC provided Geller with a rather unique cover. Presenting him as an eccentric crank not to be taken seriously with talents as equally limited as Savile, Geller had the uncanny ability to move round freely in powerful circles.

Nevertheless, following the police search of Janner's Westminster offices in March 2014 Geller revealed that he was quitting his mansion of 34 years in the UK for a small apartment in Jewish occupied Palestine. One cannot help but view this sudden move in connection with Janner, Savile and the intensive paedophile investigations it has uncovered.

Bob Geldof

Robert Frederick Zenon "Bob" Geldof, KBE (born 5 Oct 1951) is a Jewish singer, songwriter, author, occasional actor whom the Zio-Marxist regime has elevated to spokesman for the global conscience.

His widely recognisable trademark is convincing ever more destitute Europeans to part with their hard earned cash for the 'poor starving Africans'-another charity front for international Jewry. Geldof was born and brought up in Dún Laoghaire, Ireland, a son of Robert and Evelyn Geldof. His paternal grandfather Zenon Geldof was a Belgian immigrant and his paternal grandmother, Amelia Falk, was a Jewess born in London. Geldof has received many awards including in 2011 an honorary doctorate of Philosophy from Ben-Gurion University of the Negev in Israel, for his decades of 'charity' work for the Jewish agenda.

His daughter Peaches who died at the age of 25 of a heroin overdose was married to a Kohanim-the Jewish pop musician Thomas Cohen. Just prior to her death Peaches Geldof faced a criminal investigation for tweeting names that may have identified victims of paedophile rock star Ian Watkins. Bob Geldof's ex-wife Paula Yates wrote that Geldof had threatened them repeatedly with the phrase, "Don't forget, I am above the law".

James Cleveland “Jesse” Owens (September 12th, 1913 – March 31st, 1980) was a Black track and field athlete and four-time gold medallist for the American team in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin. The youngest of ten children, three girls and seven boys, born to Henry Cleveland Owens and Mary Emma Fitzgerald in Oakville, Alabama, the individual achievement of this athlete is not disputed.

However, not only is Owens’ personal achievement in the 1936 Berlin Olympics used by the Jewish media as propaganda to overshadow the accomplishment of the whole German Nation but a manifest lie is concocted to smear the German leader. The 1936 Olympics had been awarded to Germany prior to Hitler’s Chancellorship in 1933. Consequently despite the protests and boycotts organized by international Jewish groups, it was too late to take the games away from Germany.

The games provided an ideal opportunity to showcase the new Germany and visitors were naturally impressed at the spirit, positive outlook and accomplishment of the German people under this new leader in less than 3 years. Indeed that Germany won more medals than any other nation clearly validates Adolf Hitler’s leadership thus he had nothing to prove. Nevertheless, the Jewish press instantly concoct a story that the German leader had ‘snubbed’ the black athlete Owens by refusing to shake his hand.

Apparently the accomplishment of one black athlete wipes out the achievement of a whole white nation making it necessary for Hitler to give Owens the cold shoulder or so the Jewish media would have the public believe. Owens himself confirmed that the “snub” story was a hoax, stating in 1936: “When I passed the Chancellor, he arose, waved his hand at me, and I waved back. I think the writers showed bad taste in criticizing the man of the hour in Germany [Hitler].” Years later, in his autobiography, Owens again clarified “Hitler didn’t snub me -it was FDR who snubbed me. The president didn’t even send me a telegram.”

Finally, in 2009, well known German sportswriter Siegfried Mischner described an encounter he had with Jesse Owens in 1960’s. Mischner, now 83, claims that Owens carried around a photograph in his wallet of Hitler shaking Owen’s hand. He claimed Owens showed him the photograph and told him: ‘That was one of my most beautiful moments.’ Mischner said: ‘It was taken behind the honour stand and so not captured by the world’s press. Owens felt the newspapers of the day reported ‘unfairly’ on Hitler’s attitude towards him and tried to get Mischner and his journalist colleagues to change the accepted version of history. To Owens disappointment the existence of the photo was never reported at the time. Mischner stated later that “the press then was very obedient...” proving they were under a Jewish Zionist yolk.

Bob Marley

Robert Nesta “Bob” Marley, OM (6 Feb 1945 to 11 May 1981) was a Black Jewish Reggae Singer, Songwriter, Musician, and guitarist born in Jamaica. Marley was born on the farm of his maternal grandfather in Nine Mile, Saint Ann Parish, Jamaica, to Norval Sinclair Marley (1885–1955) and Cedella Booker an Afro-Jamaican (1926–2008). Norval Marley was born in Britain and his family had Jewish origins.

Starting out in 1963 with the group The Wailers Marley pursued a solo career after the Wailers disbanded in 1974 and his relocation to England. On 3rd December 1976, two days before “Smile Jamaica”, a support rally for the Jamaican Prime Minister Michael Manley who was consistently accused of being communist or attempting to introduce ‘communism’ Marley, his wife, and manager Don Taylor were shot inside Marley’s home.

Nonetheless, the concert proceeded, and an injured Marley a great supporter of Prime Minister Manley performed as scheduled. The album which established Marley into the international consciousness in 1977 with its title track Exodus pays a significant overture to his tribal brethren. Containing tracks like ‘One Love’ with various lyrics extolling the ‘virtues’ of miscegenation, globalisation, remonstrating for a ‘victimised’ people and sung by a coloured it was elegant propaganda for the Jewish Zionist agenda.

Marley also began to use cannabis when he converted to ‘Rastafari’ in 1966. He considered cannabis a healing herb, a “sacrament”, and an “aid to medication”. He also supported the legalization of the drug. Nevertheless, in July 1977, Marley was found to have a type of malignant melanoma under the nail of a toe. He died of cancer on 11th May 1981.

PHILOSOPHY & IDEOLOGY

Philosophy and ideology describes social or political theories and the people involved developed by Europeans or foreign entities to the good or ill of the masses.

RELATIVISM

Relativism is the concept that points of view have no absolute truth or validity, having only relative, subjective value according to differences in perception and consideration. This way of assessment doubts all knowledge and goes against the basic principles of logical thinking. Relativism is a key component of critical theory used by Jewish cultural Marxism as a weapon to attack and distort the truth. For example, the relativistic point of view that “all human races are equal” or even that “races do not exist”, is used as an “argument” for the mass-immigration of non-Whites to White countries.

The real (geopolitical) purpose of this Jewish-driven mass-immigration, the abolishment of the White race, is disguised as the relativism “all humans are equal”. An extreme form of relativism is subjectivism, in which even the objective existence of the physical world is denied. Although popular in the 19th century relativism had disappeared by the beginning of the 20th century. Relativistic movements were re-launched in the twentieth century by Jews such as Karl Popper, Franz Boas, Herbert Marcuse, Albert Einstein and Niels Bohr.

PAN-NATIONALISM

Since the Nations of Europe are racially homogenous i.e. White/Caucasoid we should band together and present a united front against the Jewish Zionist threat that seeks the annihilation of our race. This understanding would work on the preservation and conservation of individual heritage and not the submergence of National Consciousness (identity) into an international Jewish ‘community’.

ZIONISM

Zionism is often marketed as Jewish Nationalism. This is a misnomer for Nationalism is a natural, organic phenomena based on the protection and conservation of one’s own tribe/race. Based on usury, theft and manipulation of gentile Nations, Zionism maintains greedy Jewish Oligarchical banking control and enslaves the world in debt.

“Zionism is Judaism, and Judaism is unthinkable without Zionism.” (Harper’s Encyclopedia of United States History, Vol. X, “Zionists”).

“Some call it Communism, I call it JUDAISM.” – Rabbi Stephen Samuel Wise – The American Bulletin, May 5, 1935. (Judaism is nothing but disguised, camouflaged Communism, therefore, Zionism is nothing but disguised, camouflaged Communism) !!!

Moses Hess

Moses (Moshe) Hess (21 June 1812 to 6 April 1875) was a Jewish philosopher, international socialist, and one of the founders of Zionism. Though, Moses Hess never used the term “Zionism”, that was coined by Nathan Birnbaum in 1890, he laid the foundation of what is considered as the philosophical base of Zionism. Marx was a student of Hess and his Communist Manifesto owes much to his input.

Theodor Herzl

Theodor Herzl (2 May 1860 to 3 July 1904) was a Jewish journalist and the father of modern political Zionism. Herzl was born in Pest, the Kingdom of Hungary (today the eastern half of Budapest, then a separate city) to a Jewish family. In 1896, Herzl published the book Judenstaat. (The Jewish State). Herzl also assembled the first Zionist congress in Basel, Switzerland, in 1897 of which the protocols are purported to be the minutes.

Quotes

“The wealthy Jews rule the world; the fate of the governments lies in their hands. They start wars between countries, and when they wish, the governments make peace. When the wealthy Jews sing, the nations and their leaders dance along, and meanwhile the Jews get richer!” (Published by Herzl in Deutsche zeitung)

Max Nordau

Max Simon Nordau (AKA Simon Maximilian Südfeld; 29 July 1849 to 23 Jan 1923), was a Jewish Zionist leader and co-founder of the World Zionist Organization together with Theodor Herzl, and president or vice president of several Zionist congresses. Nordau’s father was Gabriel Südfeld, a Hebrew poet and his family were Orthodox Jews. Nordau attended a Jewish elementary school. Nordau played a significant role in the World Zionist Organisation and is credited with manipulating the word ‘democratic’ to suit the character of the organisation.

Samuel Untermyer

Samuel Untermyer, (6 Mar 1858 to 16 March 1940) was a Jewish lawyer, Rothschild banking agent and an active Zionist leader as President of the Keren Hayesod, the agency through which the movement was conducted in America. Untermyer introduced C.I. Scofield to numerous Jewish Zionist leaders that would finance the publication of his Scofield Reference Bible a tool to enslave fundamentalist Christians to the Jewish Zionist agenda. He was also one of the leading agitators in the international Jewish declaration of war on Germany that occurred shortly after Adolf Hitler became chancellor of Germany.

He described the Jewish campaign as nothing less than a “holy war.” The March 24th 1933 issue of The Daily Express of London described how Jewish leaders, in combination with powerful international Jewish financial interests, had launched a boycott of Germany for the express purpose of crippling her already precarious economy in the hope of bringing down the new movement. It was only then that Germany struck back responding with official German government sanctions and reprisals against Jews in Germany.

Stephen Wise

Stephen Samuel Wise (born Weisz, 17 Mar 1874 to 19 April 1949) was a Jewish Rabbi and Zionist Leader born in Budapest in the Austro-Hungarian Empire, the son and grandson of rabbis. He immigrated to New York as an infant with his family. Wise was an early supporter of Zionism, and showed particular support and commitment to Political Zionism. He founded the New York Federation of Zionist Societies in 1897, which led to the formation of the national Federation of American Zionists (FAZ), a forerunner of the Zionist Organization of America.

Wise was a delegate and secretary for the English language at the Second Zionist Congress (Basel, 1898), and served as honorary secretary of FAZ, in close cooperation with Theodor Herzl until the latter's death in 1904. Wise, Louis Brandeis and Felix Frankfurter laid the groundwork for a nationwide organization of ‘ardently Zionist’ Jews, ‘to represent Jews as a group and not as individuals’.

In 1918, following national elections, this Jewish faction convened the first American Jewish Congress in Philadelphia's historic Independence Hall. In 1933 while acting as honorary president of the American Jewish Congress, Wise led efforts for a Jewish Boycott of Germany along with Samuel Untermyer. Wise, along with Leo Motzkin and Nahum Goldmann, encouraged the creation in August 1936 of the World Jewish Congress in order to create a broader representative body to terrorise the newly formed German regime.

Wise served as founding president of the World Jewish Congress president until his death in 1949. He was succeeded by Nahum Goldmann. On November 24, 1942 Wise held a press conference in Washington, D.C. to proclaim a plan for the extermination of all Jews in Europe. Given that Jews have tried this scam on many occasions his propaganda never made front page news.

“Hitler was right in one thing. He calls the Jewish people a race, and we are a race.” – Rabbi Stephen Wise

Leo Motzkin

Leo Motzkin (1867 to 7 Nov 1933) was a Jewish Zionist leader and a leader of the World Zionist Congress and numerous Jewish Zionist organizations. Leo Motzkin was born in the town of Brovary, near the city of Kiev in Ukraine, then a part of the Russian Empire. He was raised and educated in a Jewish family. Motzkin participated in the First Zionist Congress in 1897 and became close to the Zionist leader Theodore Herzl. In 1909, the Zionist Organization commissioned Motzkin to write propaganda alleging pogroms against Jews in Russia.

During WWI, Motzkin presided over the Copenhagen office of the Zionist organization and worked as liaison between Zionist organizations across Europe. Leo Motzkin also travelled to the United States to collect funds for Jewish refugees and lobby for Jews in Russia.

In August 1914, Motzkin joined Franz Oppenheimer and Adolf Friedemann to create a ‘Committee for Freeing of Russian Jews’. In 1919 he established a Jewish delegation for the Paris Peace Conference to represent Jewish interests across Europe and lobbied for the creation of a World Jewish Congress to represent Jews worldwide (the organization was later made a permanent institution as the League of Nations). Motzkin was also one of the first Jewish leaders to organize opposition to the NSDAP in Germany.

CAPITALISM & COMMUNISM

Capitalism and Marxism/Communism are two sides of the same coin with capitalist banking systems funding the exploits of global communism. Capitalism (democracy) and Communism (Marxism) are merely products of the Jewish mind manufactured to control slave Nations. Therefore, given the ‘divine right to rule’ both are ideologically lower than Judaism in the paradigm of the Jewish Zionist.

The nature of the game for the Zionist Capitalist is to withhold a land's wealth from its people. Henceforth the Zionist Capitalist gets immensely rich while the nations conquered suffer crippling debt. Consequently capitalism is basically state sponsored usury and any revolutionary response from the slave nations are corralled into Jewish Marxist (Communist) state funded trade unions whose organizers are earmarked to become the leaders of the new Jewish Zionist regime. Thus Jewish Zionism controls both rich and poor. This vicious circle is a representation of the Jewish Marxist one party state.

SOCIALISM

Socialism is a term used to describe a political and economic movement that emerged in Europe during the early 1800s. Primarily a response to the Industrial Revolution, this was a hopeful time of great change. Periods like this tend to occur in Europe every couple of centuries making her the vibrant creative civilisation she is. Initially there were various expressions of socialism, distinct to each nation, its circumstances and sensibilities.

Noted amongst these include Pierre-Joseph Proudhon in France; Eugen Dühring in Germany, Karl Lueger in Austria; Mikhail Bakunin in Russia; and Henry Hyndman in the United Kingdom. However, Karl Marx, descended from rabbis and a relative of "Lord" Rothschild, also invented Communism rooted in a materialistic ideology discarded by Europeans.

This Jewish ideology infiltrated European socialism inserting anti-socialist ideas like internationalism, consumerism, feminism, 'Europhobia', and sexual Bolshevism into the movement to make the concept of 'socialism' negative, corrosive and destructive to the implicitly patriotic host nation. Such agendas are promoted so actual socialist ideals never gains enough influence to reform the monetary system that Jews dominate. Jewish leadership roles in all parties are also desired so when political upheaval takes place, they are in a position to push Jewish tribal interests ahead of the interests of the host population.

Marx's pseudo-socialism was the platform or synonymous with Lenin's Bolshevism that seized Russia in 1917 aided by Jewish bankers like Jacob Schiff. The Jewish Bolshevik regime murdered at least 66 million ethnic Europeans.

A counter to Jewish hijacking of the name socialism emerged through new political movements. These reconnected with the original essence of European socialism and were patriotically race based. Such included the Fascists in Italy, the National Socialists in Germany, the Falange in Spain and various sibling social nationalists who allied with them in France and other nations.

As these movements were working in the interests of their own people, against the conspiracy of international Jewish finance, the forces of plutocracy and Bolshevism combined in an open union as the Allied forces during WWII to destroy true socialism of the Europeans and murder Ethnic European Nationalist leaders.

Quotes

“Socialism, is the science of dealing with the common weal. Communism is not Socialism. Marxism is not Socialism. The Marxians have stolen the term and confused its meaning. I shall take Socialism away from the Socialists. Socialism is an ancient Aryan, institution. Our Aryan ancestors held certain lands in common. They cultivated the idea of the common weal. Marxism has no right to disguise itself as socialism. Socialism, unlike Marxism, does not repudiate private property. Unlike Marxism, it involves no negation of personality, and unlike Marxism, it is patriotic.....We are not internationalists. Our socialism is national. We demand the fulfilment of the just claims of the productive classes by the state on the basis of race solidarity. To us state and race are one.” – Adolf Hitler interviewed by George Sylvester Viereck 1923

Henry Hyndman

Henry Mayers Hyndman (7 Mar 1842 to 20 Nov 1921) was a British politician, author and social activist best known as the founder of the Social Democratic Federation and the National Socialist Party. Born in England to a family of Ulster-Scots ancestry after achieving his degree in 1865 he studied law for two years before deciding to become a journalist. In 1866 Hyndman reported on the Italian war with Austria for the Pall Mall Gazette meeting the leaders of the Italian nationalist movement and was generally sympathetic to their cause.

Hyndman toured the world in 1869 visiting the United States, Australia and several European countries. A staunch patriot he praised the merits of British imperialism as he continued to write for the Pall Mall Gazette.

Hyndman stood as an Independent for the constituency of St Marylebone in the 1880 General Election. Denounced as a Tory by William Ewart Gladstone, Hyndman got very little support from the electorate and, facing certain defeat, withdrew from the contest. Soon after the election he became attracted to socialism. Hyndman even had close personal contact with Marx and formed this impression

“There can be no doubt whatever that his hatred of the system...was not only intellectual and philosophic but bitterly personal.” The Social Democratic Federation which Hyndman founded was the first significant socialist organisation in Britain and he was joined by the likes of William Morris.

Hyndman was the editor of the party newspaper named Justice. Marx had no direct influence over Hyndman’s socialism yet in 1884 Jews caused conflict in the party leading to splits. Hyndman continued to lead the remains of the SDF but in 1911 he set up the British Socialist Party (BSP) when it fused with a number of branches of the Independent Labour Party. However, after a further defeat in the 1916 leadership elections of the British Socialist Party Hyndman and his followers founded the National Socialist Party. Hyndman also supported small farmers, such as the Irish National Land League and a similar group in Great Britain and openly attacked the Jewish Rothschild banking family revealing their criminal hands (which he described as a “Jew clique” and “Semitic moneybags”) in conflicts such as the Anglo-Boer War.

"I am quite content to bear the reproach of chauvinism in regard to what I say about the English-speaking and Teutonic peoples. We have to base the first real socialistic combination upon the common interests and affinities of the great Celto-Teutonic peoples in America, in Australia, in these islands and possibly in Germany." Henry Hyndman

"It is high time that those who do not think that Beit, Barnato, Oppenheim, Rothschild and Co. ought to control the destinies of Englishmen at home and of their Empire abroad, should come together and speak their mind." Henry Hyndman

The Oppenheimers and Bischoffheims, the Rothschilds, the Barings and the Lawson Levys, Baron de Worms and the Right Hon. J. G. Goschen, the new Chancellor of the Exchequer, as some say – Sir George Elliot and Sir Julian Goldsmid, these are the main champions of the Egyptian War. This Semitic array and their bottle holders have made a fine thing of it." – Henry Hyndman

Eugen Dühring

Eugen Karl Dühring (12 Jan 1833, Berlin to 21 Sept 1921, Nowawes in modern-day Potsdam-Babelsberg) was a German philosopher, economist, socialist and strong critic of Marxism. Dühring was born in January 1833 in Berlin, Germany. After a legal education he practised at Berlin as a lawyer until 1859. A weakness of the eyes, ending in total blindness, occasioned his taking up the studies with which his name is now connected.

In 1864 Dühring became docent of the University of Berlin, but, in consequence of a quarrel with the professoriate, was deprived of his licence to teach in 1874. Among his works are Kapital und Arbeit (1865), Kursus der National und Sozialökonomie (1873) and Die Judenfrage als Frage der Racenschädlichkeit (1881, The Parties and the Jewish Question). He published his autobiography in 1882 under the title Sache, Leben und Feinde; the mention of Feinde (enemies) is characteristic. Dühring's philosophy claims to be emphatically the philosophy of reality.

He is passionate in his denunciation of everything which, like mysticism, tries to veil reality. Dühring's economic views are said to derive largely from those of Friedrich List's theory of "national economics".

List asserted that economists should realise that since the human race is divided into independent states, "a nation would act unwisely to endeavour to promote the welfare of the whole human race at the expense of its particular strength, welfare, and independence. It is a dictate of the law of self-preservation to make its particular advancement in power and strength the first principles of its policy".

On other matters particularly their attitude to Jews the two men held very different opinions. Dühring's attacked capitalism, Marxism, organized Christianity and Judaism.

Thus Theodor Herzl used the writings of the German social scientist Dr. Eugen Dühring in the 1890s as the genealogy of modern, 'racist' anti-semitism in Germany and Austria and continued to assert this over and over in his diaries and correspondence: "I will fight anti-Semitism in the place it originated in Germany and in Austria," As to Dühring, his patriotism was fervent, but narrow and exclusive. He idolized Frederick the Great and quite rightfully denounced the Jews but also dismissed Goethe as "cosmopolitan".

Karl Lueger

Karl Lueger (24 Oct 1844 to 10 Mar 1910) was an Austrian Christian Socialist politician, mayor of Vienna, and leader and co-founder of the Austrian Christian Social Party. Lueger was born at Wieden (since 1850 the 4th district of Vienna) to Leopold Lueger of Neustadt an der Donau and his wife Juliane. He studied law at the University of Vienna, receiving his doctorate in 1870. At university he was a member of the Catholic Student Association (Katholische akademische Verbindung Norica Wien, K.A.V. Norica Wien), part of the Österreichische Cartellverband (ÖCV) fraternities.

Lueger established his own lawyer's office in Vienna in 1874 and soon became known as a "little people's" („kleinen Leute“) advocate. Lueger's early political life was associated with the German National Party and his concern lay with ethnic German tradesmen, who saw the Jewish competition undermining their already precarious situation. In 1875 Lueger was elected as a deputy of Vienna's City Council (Gemeinderat).

He was a member from 1875 to 1876 and from 1878 to 1910. In 1885 he was elected to the lower house (Abgeordnetenhaus) of the Austrian Imperial Parliament (Reichsrat), representing the Fifth District of Vienna, and was returned in the 1891 election. From 1890 he was also a member of the Lower Austria parliament (Landtag).

After the 1895 elections for the Vienna Gemeinderat the Christian Socialists took political power from the ruling Liberals with two thirds of the seats and subsequently helped Lueger win the mayoralty. He was a zealous Catholic, and wished to "capture the university" for the Church. He would have neither Social Democrats nor Jews in the municipal administration.

He secured good treatment for Czech migrants. In his incumbency, Lueger is credited with the extension of the public water supply by its second main aquifer (Hochquellwasserleitung), which provides tap water of mineral water quality to large parts of the city. He also pursued the municipalization of gas and electricity works as well as the establishment of a public transport system introducing streetcars, and numerous institutions of social welfare, most of which strongly relied on debt financing.

He incorporated the suburbs, and built parks and gardens, and hospitals and schools. Der schöne Karl ("handsome Karl") achieved tremendous popularity among the citizens and a significant part of the infrastructure and organisations that are responsible for the high standard of living in the contemporary city were created during his terms of office. Lueger referred to himself as an admirer of Edouard Drumont, who founded the Antisemitic League of France in 1889. Lueger served as mayor of Vienna until his early death from in 1910.

Hundreds of thousands of Austrians, including Adolf Hitler, participated in his funeral. He was buried in the crypt of the newly erected St Charles Borromeo Church at the Zentralfriedhof (the so called Dr. Karl Lueger Memorial Church), whose ground-breaking ceremony he performed.

Hitler wrote about Lueger:

“At all events, these occasions slowly made me acquainted with the man and the movement, which in those days guided Vienna’s destinies: Dr. Karl Lueger I and the Christian Social Party. When I arrived in Vienna, I was hostile to both of them. The man and the movement seemed ‘reactionary’ in my eyes.

My common sense of justice, however, forced me to change this judgment in proportion as I had occasion to become acquainted with the man and his work; and slowly my fair judgment turned to unconcealed admiration. Today, more than ever, I regard this man as the greatest German mayor of all times” Adolf Hitler: Mein Kampf, page 54-65

DEMOCRACY

Democracy has always been provided credibility by its ascription to the Athenians of ancient Greece. Yet the ancient Greeks limited political participation to a racial and social elite and even then corruption was still manifest. Greece was not at her greatest under Democratic rule. Current mass democracy is predicated on the notion of one man one vote meaning in a homogenous society alone the most gifted and intelligent would be vastly outnumbered by mediocre minds.

Add to this the number of coloured races that have continue to flood Europe since 1945 and the small percentage of wise and knowledgeable do not stand a chance.

Easily manipulated this lowest common denominator has been subjected to decades of media subversion by the alien Jewish occupier. The continued barrage of propaganda expounds that a government is good or bad precisely to the degree that it is or is not democratic thus promoting war on Jewish enemies in the Middle East.

The mass will vote at their expense and in the interest of the Jew who imports ‘war refugees’ into Europe to vote against the indigenous European. Democracy and the ballot box is a vicious closed system rigged by an alien tribe that corrupts and perverts Europeans before they completely annihilate. Only when the Jewish occupier is removed will European interests be served again.

MATERIALISM

Materialism was a philosophy abandoned by the Greeks over 2000 years ago. It holds that the only thing that exists is matter or energy; that all things are composed of material and all phenomena (including consciousness) are the result of material interactions.

The concept was rejected because it fails to adequately encompass metaphysical expression. Marx resurrected the concept in order to quash European spirituality in his invention of Marxian socialism. He claimed this was a “scientific” socialism and according to his followers, this new international materialistic socialism must be followed with Talmudic precision by all humanity and any who disagree are heretics.

CONSUMERISM

Consumerism refers to economic policies placing emphasis on consumption. In an abstract sense, it is the consideration that the free choice of consumers should strongly orient the choice of what is produced and, therefore the economic organization of a society.

The Ancient European civilizations of Rome and Egypt did purchase and consume goods and materials in excess of basic need however, the notion of basing societies on this concept was rejected by those of European sentiment as mass desire was considered too easy to manipulate.

However, the post-war Jewish Capitalist economy restored the idea with gusto since the purchase of goods and services in ever-greater amounts can only lead to Western self-annihilation. Indeed in his role as media manipulator Sigmund Freud’s nephew Edward Bernays is responsible for modern day consumerism.

FINANCIAL ECONOMY

This particularly important section will highlight how the Jewish tribe has managed to infiltrated European host lands and completely usurp them financially and economically from within. In terms of industry it records how the Jewish element has monopolised entire swathes of industrial property, controlling the work force and limiting salaries. While on the banking front it has financed both divisive wars and land seizures in the interests of Jewry and the detriment of the European.

INDUSTRY

The Jewish tribe have a tried and tested method to usurp industrially the European people. They slowly and quietly “immigrate” into a host nation and once settled work together as a single unit to buy up an entire industry, for example clothing, metals or manufacturing.

With a monopoly the Jewish tribe jack up the prices to crippling heights and drop the worker’s wages to slave level. A perfect example is the cartel organised between Karl Wittgenstein steel works and Rothschild steel works. With profits from each conquest more industries fall into Jewish hands eventually having complete control of the host nation’s economy.

Rothschild

Rothschild is the name of a Jewish international and multigenerational family banking conglomerate. A decedent of Rabbi Meir ben Isaac Katzenellenbogen the Rothchild origins lie with Meyer Amschel Rothschild.

He learned that loaning money to governments and kings was much more profitable than loaning to private individuals. Not only were the loans bigger, but they were secured by the nation’s taxes.

Meyer Rothschild instructed his five sons, Amschel, Salomon, Nathan, Karl and Jakob, in the secret techniques of money creation and manipulation. As they came of age, he sent them to the major capitals of Europe to open branch offices of the family banking business. Amschel, stayed in Frankfurt, Salomon was sent to Vienna, Nathan to London, Karl to Naples, and Jakob to Paris.

All became astute bankers with Nathan exhibiting a superior affinity for manipulating the banking system. In 1815 at the close of the Battle of Waterloo Nathan Rothschild managed the ultimate insider trading operation that multiplied his already vast fortune and bought control of the British economy.

Then on November 28th, 1829 the family purchased Jerusalem. The Rothschild name is synonymous with multinational conglomerates and had already formed a cartel between Karl Wittgenstein's steel works at Kladno and its own steel works at Wittkowitz. This controlled the iron and steel output of central Europe in the 19th century.

Karl Wittgenstein

Karl Wittgenstein (8 Apr 1847 to 20 Jan 1913) was a Jewish Industrialist born in Gohlis, now part of Leipzig. Initially the managing director of a steel rolling mill Wittgenstein organised a cartel between his own steel works at Kladno and the Rothschild steel works at Wittkowitz that controlled the iron and steel output of central Europe, and had by the 1890s acquired one of the largest fortunes in the world.

Centred on Bohemia in the Czech lands, the Wittgenstein cartel produced over 60% of the Austro-Hungarian Empire's iron and steel and controlled its railroad and tyre industries. Paralleling Rothschild and their insider trading following the battle of Waterloo, accusations that Wittgenstein had acquired his wealth by nefarious means were rife.

Wittgenstein strenuously denied these allegations even to the point of making a public declaration that was published in the Arbeiterzeitung a notorious Communist newspaper used by Marx. Nevertheless the allegations were continuous, widespread and the Jewish industrialist sought propaganda support from a Marxist source.

Prior to his death Wittgenstein transferred virtually all his liquid capital into American stocks and bonds, principally in the United States Steel Company thus vastly augmenting the prosperity of the nation that would bring about the defeat of Austria and supporting the notion that the Jewish tribe infiltrate a nation to syphon off its wealth and destroy it.

Goldman Sachs

The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. is a Jewish International Investment Banking Firm that engages in global investment banking, securities, investment management, and other financial services.

It has sparked a great deal of controversy over its improper practices, including the loosening of financial industry underwriting guidelines which had been intact since the 1930s, and in particular its actions since the 2007 to 2012 global financial crisis that resulted in the threat of total collapse of large financial institutions and the bailout of banks by many governments.

Goldman Sachs was founded in New York in 1869 by Marcus Goldman. Goldman (9 Dec 1821 to 20 July 1904) came from an Ashkenazi Jewish family, the son of Ella and Wolf Goldmann, a cattle dealer. He immigrated to the United States from Frankfurt am Main, Germany, in 1848. In 1882, Goldman's son-in-law Samuel Sachs joined the firm. Sachs (28 July 1851 to 2 Mar 1935) was an investment banker born in the state of Maryland to Jewish immigrants from Bavaria, Germany.

Sassoon Family

The Sassoon family is of Jewish descent and was originally based in Baghdad, Iraq, before moving to Mumbai, India and then spreading to China, England, and other countries. From the 18th century, the Sassoon's were one of the wealthiest families in the world, with a merchant empire spanning the continent of Asia. The Jewish Encyclopaedia of 1905, states that Sassoon expanded his opium trade into China and Japan. He placed his eight sons in charge of the various major opium exchanges in China.

According to the 1944 Jewish Encyclopaedia "he employed only Jews in his business, and wherever he sent them he built synagogues and schools for them. He imported whole families of fellow Jews and put them to work." Between 1830 and 1831 they had trafficked 18,956 chests of opium earning millions of dollars. In the year 1836 the trade increased to over 30,000 chests and addiction to this mind-destroying drug became endemic in coastal cities. Yet Sir Edward Albert Sassoon (1856 to 1912), the son of Albert, settled in England and married Aline Caroline de Rothschild and was a Conservative member of Parliament from 1899 until his death. The seat was then inherited by his son Sir Philip Sassoon (1888 to 1939) from 1912 until his death.

Montague Burton

Sir Montague Maurice Burton (15 Aug 1885, Lithuania to 21 Sept 1952, Leeds) founded Burton, one of Britain's largest chains of clothes shops. Born Moshe Osinsky in Kaunas province Lithuanian to a Jewish family he came alone to Britain in 1900.

Giving his name as Montague Maurice Burton he began as a peddler in 1901 yet by 1913 had five men's tailor shops with headquarters in Sheffield and manufacturing in Leeds. 'Burton' married Sophie Marks changing the company name from M Burton to Burton+Burton. By 1929 Burton had four hundred shops, and factories and mills. His firm made a quarter of the British military uniforms during WWII and a third of demobilisation clothing indicating just how profitable war is for the Jew.

Nevertheless, even though he never changed his name legally causing problems during the First World War, Burton was knighted in 1931 for "services to industrial relations" and was a Justice of the Peace for many years. Burton endowed chairs in industrial relations in the University of Leeds and Cardiff in 1929 and Cambridge in 1930.

He also endowed chairs of international relations in Jerusalem (1929), at Oxford University (1930), the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE) (1936) and The University of Edinburgh (1948).

Monsanto

Monsanto Company is a publicly traded Jewish multinational agricultural biotechnology corporation headquartered in Creve Coeur, Missouri. It is a leading producer of genetically engineered (GE) seed and of the herbicide glyphosate, which it markets under the Roundup brand. Monsanto was founded in St. Louis, Missouri, in 1901 under John Francis Queeny, a businessman born in Chicago who originally worked for the Jewish-owned Meyer Brothers Drug Company, one of the largest wholesale pharmaceutical companies at the time. Queeny married a Sephardic Jewess named Olga Mendez Monsanto the daughter of Don Emmanuel Mendes de Monsanto.

The Jewish Monsanto family were involved in the trans-Atlantic slave trade and sugar plantation industry owning and dealing in Negro slaves. Queeny and Monsanto had children, including Edgar Monsanto Queeny, who was the second Chairman of Monsanto.

Spreading to Europe in 1919 by the 1920s Monsanto had expanded into basic industrial chemicals like sulfuric acid and PCBs. In the 1940s, Monsanto began manufacturing DDT banned in 1972 in the United States due to its toxicity and operating Laboratories for the development of the first nuclear weapons. Monsanto was also one of the most important producers of Agent Orange, an extremely toxic dioxin compound for United States Armed Forces biological warfare in Vietnam.

Monsanto is also the dubious 'pioneer' of terminator technology also known as suicide seeds the genetic modification of plants to make them produce sterile seeds. Currently farmers save seeds from their crop to sow the next year. Terminator's official name used by the UN and scientists is Genetic Use Restriction Technologies (GURTs). Although we are told Terminator seeds are not yet being sold in Europe already Monsanto's terminator seeds have led to mass suicides in India because farmers were not informed of the technology.

If Monsanto's Terminator Technology is commercialised all farmers will be forced to pay each year for new seeds pricing many out of the business. This is very likely the aim for without the farmers' genetic engineering would have a monopoly on food production and the likes of Monsanto would have total control over what we eat.

BANKING

Banking in its simplest terms deals with the control of money. It was Mayer Amschel Bauer Rothschild that said “Give me control of a nation’s money and I care not who makes its laws” because once the enemy controls the purse strings people are much easier to manipulate. The infiltration of Jews into European banking has financed brothers wars the purpose of which was to fractionalise Europe and maintain disunity among the race. It also allowed the financing of such outrageous land seizures as that of Russia to take place leading to the greatest European genocide of modern times.

Usury

Usury is the method through which “credit” representing a debt can enter circulation as ‘new money’ borrowed from Jewish Zionist Bankers. It is money lending at a price because when “credit” (debt) is loaned out to borrowers it creates the illusion of wealth and abundance.

However, as “credit” (debt) is borrowed interest (further debt) accumulates at ever-increasing rates locking Nations into a vicious cycle. The system was designed, installed and is maintained by those of Jewish heritage and Mayer Amschel Rothschild quote

“Let me issue and control a nation’s money and I care not who writes its laws”

This quote is a testament to this. Manufacturing money is dirt cheap and its fabrication and issue is a profitable business asks the Federal Reserve. Pieces of worthless paper are printed with various denominations. Its ‘value’ is meaningless for only man can truly create something of value out of nothing.

Jacob Schiff

Jacob Henry Schiff (born Jakob Heinrich Schiff; 10 Jan 1847 to 25 Sept 1920) was a Jewish banker, businessman, and philanthropist. Schiff was born in 1847 in Frankfurt am Main, Germany, to Moses and Clara (née Niederhofheim) Schiff, members of an Ashkenazi Jewish rabbinical family that traced its lineage in Frankfurt back to 1370. His father, Moses Schiff, was a broker for the Rothschild's.

On 6 May 1875, Schiff married Therese Loeb, daughter of Solomon Loeb, and in 1885 became head of Kuhn, Loeb & Company. Walter Görlitz reported in "financiers of power":

"Above all, Leo Bronstein-Trotsky enjoyed the benevolence and also the financial support of those Wall Street tycoons who are in New York the, German Dukes' called by Jacob Schiff and the owner of the bank Kuhn, Loeb & Co. , bankers of German-Jewish origin. "

In 1913 Schiff founded the Anti-Defamation League (ADL) as a branch of the B'nai B'rith in the United States of America. Schiff was associated with E.H. Harriman in notable contests with James J. Hill and J.P. Morgan & Company for control of several Western railroads. Schiff was elected a director of Wells Fargo in September 1914 to succeed his brother-in-law, Paul Warburg, who had resigned to accept appointment to the original Federal Reserve Board.

Max Warburg

Max Moritz Warburg (5 June 1867 to 26 Dec 1946) was a Jewish Banker and scion of the wealthy Warburg family of bankers. Max Warburg was one of seven children including Paul Warburg the chief architect of the Federal Reserve Board of the United States, born to Moritz Warburg, the director of the family's Hamburg bank, and his wife Charlotte Oppenheim.

At the beginning of 1917 as the USA and Germany remained at war Max Warburg was a board director of Rothschild / Warburg bank in Frankfurt and at the same time boss of the German Secret Service, while his brother Paul Warburg, main author of the Federal Reserve Act was leading head of the FED. At this time Vladimir Lenin was in Switzerland and Leon Trotsky in the USA, the first received 'official' help from Germany, the second from American.

Shetar

The Shetar is a weapon of socio-economic power that tore apart the fabric of English feudal society and established the current cycle of debt and control of liquid wealth in place of land holding.

Before the Law of the Jews became the Law of the Land the obligation of knight service under Anglo-Saxon law barred a land transfer that would have imposed a new tenant (and therefore a different knight owing service) upon the lord.

Personal feudal loyalties also forbade the attachment of land in satisfaction of debt; only the debtor's chattels could be seized. These rules kept feudal obligations intact and assured that the lord would continue to be served by his own knights. However, in Jewish law debts against ethnic Europeans can be recovered against a loan secured on "all property, movable and immovable".

Stealthily manipulated into the English legal system, the written credit agreement shetar, or starr, as it appears in English documents is basically a lien on all property (including realty) that has been traced as a source of the modern mortgage. Under Jewish law, the shetar permits a creditor (the Jew) to proceed against all the goods and land of the defaulting debtor (European).

Gottfried Feder

Gottfried Feder (27 Jan 1883 to 24 Sept 1941) was a German economic theoretician, Nationalist and one of the early key members of the NSDAP. Feder was born in Würzburg, Germany the son of civil servant Hanse Feder and Mathilde Feder (née Luz). From 1917 on, Feder studied financial politics and economics on his own; he developed hostility towards wealthy bankers during World War I and wrote a "manifesto on breaking the shackles of interest" ("Brechung der Zinsknechtschaft") in 1919.

This was soon followed by the founding of a "task force" dedicated to those goals that demanded a nationalisation of all banks and an abolition of interest. In the same year, Feder, together with Anton Drexler and Dietrich Eckart was involved in the founding of the Deutsche Arbeiterpartei (German Workers' Party-DAP). Adolf Hitler met him in summer 1919 while he was in an anti-Bolshevik training course at Munich University.

Feder became Hitler's mentor in finance and economics. Using Feder's system under National Socialism Germany's money was not backed by gold as this was owned by the international banks. Thus in this National economy money was essentially a receipt for labour and materials delivered to the government. Hitler said,

"For every mark issued, we required the equivalent of a mark's worth of work done, or goods produced."

The government paid workers in Certificates. Workers spent those Certificates on other goods and services, thus creating more jobs for more people. In this way the German people climbed out of the crushing debt imposed on them by the international Jewish banks.

Within two years, the unemployment problem had been solved and Germany was back on its feet. It had a solid, stable currency without debt, and no inflation and this was at a time when millions of people in the United States and other Western countries (controlled by international Jewish banks) were still suffering crippling unemployment.

Within five years Germany went from the poorest nation in Europe to the richest. Germany even managed to restore foreign trade, despite the international banks denial of foreign credit to Germany, and despite the global boycott by Jewish-owned industries.

Germany succeeded in doing this through exchanging equipment and commodities directly with other countries.

By using a barter system that cut the banks out of the picture Germany flourished, since barter eliminates national debt and trade deficits.

HEROES

Heroes documents the brave and courageous folk who have made tremendous contributions to European historical and cultural records and who in times of great political, social and specifically racial strife have dutifully stood their ground as White European advocates.

Albert Spaggiari

Albert Spaggiari (14 Dec 1932 to 8 June 1989), nicknamed Bert, was a French Freedom Fighter (National Socialist) chiefly known as the organizer of a break-in into a Societe Generale Bank in Nice, France in 1976. Spaggiari was born in Laraga-Monteglin in the Hautes-Alpes department

He grew up in Hyeres, where his mother had a lingerie store. At the age of 17 he joined a paratroop regiment during the War against the Communist Chinese. Spaggiari was a tough soldier, wounded twice and decorated for bravery. During the Algerian War he worked for the Organisation armee secrete (OAS), a clandestine anti-de Gaulle and anti-decolonisation organization and was later sentenced to some years in prison for his OAS activities.

During his imprisonment at the Sante prison, Spaggiari wrote his first autobiographic book Faut pas rire avec les barbares ("One mustn't laugh with the barbarians").

An affluent businessman successful in his endeavours Spaggiari had no need to engage in criminal activity but his passionate political convictions dramatically steered the remainder of his life. Société Générale is a multinational investment bank and financial services company headquartered in Paris, France.

The company is a universal bank and has a worldwide network, Global Transaction Banking, International Retail Banking, Financial Services, Corporate and Investment Banking, Private Banking, Asset Management and Securities Services serving the Global Jewish Zio-Marxist Regime.

A National Socialist fighting for European freedom from alien tyranny with patriotic fervour and accompanied by old OAS friends, Spaggiari achieved the impossible breaking into the once considered impregnable Société Générale Bank, Nice. Spaggiari's comrades broke into the vault on 16th July 1976, during the long weekend of Bastille Day stealing an estimated 100 million francs worth of money, securities and valuables.

It was the largest heist in the history of bank robberies to that date. Leaving the remains of a banquet on 20th July, and as a direct insult to the Jewish Zio-Marxist regime, they left a message on the walls of the vault: sans armes, ni haine, ni violence ("without weapons, hatred, or violence")

Spaggiari was finally arrested at the airport on his return from a photographic shoot. However, once in the prosecutor's office Spaggiari calmly opened the window, smiled wished the judge 'Au revoir' and jumped out landing safely on a parked car escaping on a waiting motorcycle. The owner of the car later received a 5,000-franc cheque in the mail for the damage to his roof.

Spaggiari remained free for the rest of his life and the incident severely embarrassed the authorities so much so that the Judge sentenced him in absentia to life imprisonment. None of the proceeds of the robbery were ever found, no contributions to the course of European freedom from alien tyranny; no doubt frittered away by unscrupulous groups posing as nationalist fronts perhaps the Jewish Zio-Marxist regime's last laugh at a valiant hero.

Spaggiari died at the age of 52. His body was dumped outside his mothers house on 10th June 1989. This lead to speculation that he was murdered although the authorities, still to this day maintain he died of throat cancer on 8th June 1989.

William Joyce

William Brooke Joyce (24 Apr 1906 to 3 Jan 1946) was a politician, author and radio broadcaster, who was involved with the British Union of Fascists and later the National Socialist League. Joyce rightfully claimed that Winston Churchill was a servant “not of the British public, or of the British Empire, but of international Jewish finance. This charge must be preferred against a man who has so signally violated British tradition in the course of this war.” The Jewish occupied British government unlawfully executed him for “treason” as a result of his Nationalist activities broadcasting programs to the United Kingdom from Germany during the Second World War.

Aryan Martyr of World War II

William Joyce’s remains were exhumed from London’s Wandsworth Prison where he was executed, and buried at Galway in the Irish Republic. Joyce was hanged on 3 Jan 1946 on a trumped-up “treason” charge stemming from his ardent opposition to the senseless slaughter of Aryan lives in World War II.

An American by birth, Joyce had an Irish father and an English mother. He was only 39 when he died.

Joyce’s last words were:

“In death, as in life, I defy the Jews, who caused this last war: and I defy the power of Darkness which they represent, I warn the British people against the aggressive imperialism of the Soviet Union, May Britain be great once again; and in the hour of the greatest danger to the west, may the standard of the Swastika be raised from the dust, crowned with the historic words: ‘In spite of everything, you have been victorious:’ I am proud to die for my ideals/and I am sorry for the sons of Britain who have died without knowing why.” – William Brooke Joyce

[Winston Churchill] is the servant, not of the British public, or of the British Empire, but of International Jewish Finance. This charge must be preferred against a man who has so signally violated British tradition in the course of this war.” – William Brooke Joyce Broadcast, Radio Cologne, 8 April 1943.

“I, William Joyce, will merely say that I left England because I would not fight for Jewry against the Führer and National Socialism, and because I believe most ardently, as I do today, that victory and a perpetuation of the old system would be an incomparably greater evil for England than defeat coupled with a possibility of building something new, something really national, something truly socialist.” – William Brooke Joyce

“Man is guided by more than reason alone: and in this great conflict, I wanted to play a clear and definite part. In small matters, it is easy enough to be guided by conventional loyalty. In great matters, a man has the right to hold himself responsible to Higher Justice alone.” – William Brooke Joyce Twilight over England

John Amery

John Amery (14 Mar 1912 to 19 Dec 1945) was a British anti-Communist the son of Conservative Member of Parliament and cabinet minister Leo Amery. In Oct 1936 during the Spanish Civil War Amery joined Franco's Nationalists fighting against the Zio-Marxists. He gained Spanish citizenship and was awarded a medal of honour while serving as an intelligence officer. He then left for France and remained even after the German liberation and creation of the Vichy government.

It was German armistice commissioner Graf Ceschi who offered Amery the chance to leave France and go to Germany to work in the political arena. Ceschi was unable to get Amery out of France but later, in September of 1942, Hauptmann Werner Plack got Amery what he wanted and in October, Plack and Amery went to Berlin to speak to the German English Committee.

It was at this time that Amery suggested that the Germans consider forming a British anti-Bolshevik legion (what became the British Free Corps). Adolf Hitler was impressed by Amery and allowed him to remain in Germany as a guest of the Reich, where he made a series of recruitment efforts and pro-German radio broadcasts to Britain.

Amery continued to broadcast and write in Berlin until late 1944, when he travelled to Northern Italy to become an important advisor to the Mussolini administration. Amery was captured in the last weeks of the war by Communist partisans, who handed him over to the British and after the war was tried and convicted for treason by the Jewish authorities in control of Europe.

Amery was hanged by Albert Pierrepoint, who stated that Amery was “the bravest man he had ever hanged” that could instantly provide Nationalism with a martyred hero.

Therefore, Amery’s name has been brought into question by Jewish researcher a professor of modern history at the University of Wales. Asserting a Jewish heritage ‘concealed from John by his father Leo, it is highly suspicious that Rubenstein waited until 1999 after younger brother Julian Amery (1919-1996) was deceased and therefore unable to dispute, to publicise his ‘findings’.

John Amery, radio broadcast on 19th November, 1942.

Listeners will wonder what an Englishman is doing on the German radio tonight. You can imagine that before taking this step I hoped that someone better qualified than me would come forward. I dared to believe that some ray of common sense, some appreciation of our priceless civilization would guide the counsels of Mr Churchill’s Government.

Unfortunately this has not been the case! For two years living in a neutral country I have been able to see through the haze of propaganda to reach something which my conscience tells me is the truth. That is why I come forward tonight without any political label, without any bias, but just simply as an Englishman to say to you: a crime is being committed against civilization.

Not only the priceless heritage of our fathers, of our seamen, of our Empire builders is being thrown away in a war that serves no British interests – but our alliance leader Stalin dreams of nothing but the destruction of that heritage of our fathers? Morally this is a stain on our honour, practically it can only lead sooner or later to disaster and Communism in Great Britain, to a disintegration of all the values we cherish most.

It is not the Government, the members of Parliament to whom the ultimate decision belongs, it is up to you to go forward sure of your sacred right of free opinion, sure of your patriotism. It is up to you to decide that this has lasted long enough, that our boys are dying to serve no British interest but for the interests of a small clique of utterly unscrupulous men. There is more than enough room in the world for Germany and Britain. Your leaders say Germany seeks world domination.

Did it ever enter your mind that this is but another trick of that long-planned strategy of Jewish propaganda, expected to thwart Germany's commanding position on the continent, to which she is, after all, entitled? However fantastic it may sound, the German Army is at this moment the only thing that stands between Communism and you, the only protection that exists for private property. If that rampart collapsed your liberties would be a vague souvenir of a happy past.

John Amery, Proclamation To All British Subjects Interned At Home.

150,000 of our fellow countrymen are in prison in the home country, because they have declared themselves against this fratricidal war. In violation of the Habeas Corpus Act and the fundamental laws of our constitution these men have never been brought to trial or even allowed to see a lawyer.

American troops have not only occupied Ulster but are arriving in increasing numbers in England.

Naval bases and Colonies have been handed over to Mr. Roosevelt's administration.

Europe and our country, your wives and children at home are menaced by the invasion of the hordes of Bolshevik barbarity. For this reason I have approached the German Government with the proposal to form a British Legion Against Bolshevism, to be known as the Legion of St. George.

I appeal to all Britishers to answer this call to arms for the defence of all the principles that we Englishmen have been the first to proclaim in the world. The St. George Legion will fight only against the Communists and on no other front!

All men will commence in their present rank and promotion will be open to all men alike, without any distinctions or qualifications, political or otherwise.

Within the limits of the military possibilities the Legion of St. George will fight at the junction of the German-Finish front, beside the troops of the undaunted liberty loving Finish people.

Hundreds of soldiers have volunteered to join this Legion. Men who have escaped from England have come to join us. Three Royal Air Force aeroplanes have come over to us so far with their arms and equipment. It is up to you civilians to give a hand to show that we intend to take our responsibilities to maintain the integrity of our Empire, by giving the world proof that we have not all sold out to the Jew or Plutocrat.

Quotes....

"It came as a great shock to me when I heard that England and Soviet Russia had become allies. So much so that I thought that the people responsible in London were acting in a manner that no longer coincided with British imperial interests."

Victor E Marsden

Victor Emile Marsden (1866 to 28 Oct 1920) was a journalist, translator and Russian correspondent to the London morning post. A European patriot and wise to Jewish manipulation, "Marsden was imprisoned by the Jewish Bolsheviks during the Bolshevik Revolution, escaped and returned to Great Britain. In spite of bad health he is most well-known for translating what became the most read English language version of The Protocols of the Elders of Zion. The earliest known imprint of this translation was published in 1923, posthumously.

"The Protocols is the plan by which a handful of Jews, who compose the Sanhedrin, aim to rule the world by first destroying Christian civilization. Not only are the Protocols genuine, in my opinion, but they have been almost entirely fulfilled." – Jewish Attorney, Henry Klein 1950

William L Pierce

Dr William Luther Pierce III (11 Sept 1933 to 23 July 2002) was the original architect and leader of the National Alliance in 1974-the organisation for White racial revival and a principal ideologue of the American White Nationalist movement.

Educated as a physicist Pierce spoke with scientific clarity about race and preservation of culture. Pierce spent his final years living in West Virginia, where he hosted a weekly radio show, American Dissident Voices and oversaw his publishing, National Vanguard magazine, Free Speech and Resistance as well as books published by his book publishing firm National Vanguard Books, Inc and his record company, Resistance Records.

Henry Ford

Henry Ford (30 July 1863 to 7 Apr 1947) was the American founder of the Ford Motor Company and father of modern assembly lines used in mass production. In 1918, Ford purchased an obscure weekly newspaper, The Dearborn Independent. The Independent ran for eight years, from 1920 until 1927.

The newspaper published the controversial “Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion. In February 1921, the New York World published an interview with Ford, in which he said:

“The only statement I care to make about the Protocols is that they fit in with what is going on.”

Along with the Protocols articles on Jewish character were also published by The Dearborn Independent released in the early 1920s as a set of four bound volumes, cumulatively titled The International Jew, the World’s Foremost Problem.

HISTORY & CULTURE

Race alone is the standard bearer of a culture for contained within it is the nature and spirit of the people that produced it. Culture manifests through the creative endeavours of a race including but not restricted to art and music. Equally essential is that culture nurture the spirit providing a sense of belonging that binds the European race. Thus racial integrity has been strengthened through history as shared culture until the interference of the Jew.

Crusade

From the French croix ‘state of being marked with the cross’ a crusade is a vigorous campaign against the forces of ‘darkness’ (Jews). It is most associated with any of the military expeditions made by ethnic Europeans in the middle Ages to recover the Holy Land. Just as today the land was unlawfully occupied by Jews who through manipulation used others, primarily Muslims, to take the fall.

CULTURAL MARXISM

Invented by the Frankfurt School, Cultural Marxism deviates from the standard form of economic Marxism used to shatter Eastern Europe in that it attacks the traditions and culture of a people. It was specifically created to infiltrate Western Europe because the economic form of Marxism failed to breach the West.

FEMINISM

Like its primary ideology Jewish Marxism Feminism professes to seek 'equality', in this case specifically for women. It rests on the false premise that the natural roles women assume in healthy civilisations are unjust. Thus under the cry of male domination (patriarchy) Feminists drive a wedge between man and woman. The outcome is abolition of the traditional European family resulting in a negative white birth-rate.

Authoritarianism

The central theme of the Feminist branch of Jewish Zio-Marxism is the 'Authoritarian Personality' a construct produced by Daniel Levinson in collaboration with Theodor W. Adorno and Else Frenkel-Brunswik.

While Levinson and his Jewish colleagues formulated the main component of the "authoritarian personality" as susceptibility "to anti-Semitic ideology and anti-democratic political beliefs" (also see Chutzpah) the Feminist branch of Jewish Zio-Marxism uses it to replace 'masculinity' thus making man's natural leadership quality 'hostility'.

This opposes man and women's innate natures and strives to drive a wedge between them. Here transposing man's qualities of virility and protection with hostility and violence renders man and maleness impotent in the face of a feminised society. Thus male virility or white man has been 'castrated' under the fiction of subduing his 'violent nature'.

Femen

FEMEN is a particularly vulgar ‘radical’ feminist group founded in Ukraine in 2008 and now based in Paris. Italian magazine Il Foglio identified a Jewish businessman based in America called Jed Sunden as a key funder of FEMEN.

Therefore, it is no great surprise to find on its official website terms like ‘sextremism’. A construct that could easily have been lifted from perverted Jewish sexologist Magnus Hirschfeld. Like all feminist groups it turns the sexes against each other through the myth of patriarchy but has exhibited a specific hatred of the church.

FEMEN also supports abortion and sexual perversion (homosexuality and gay marriage) and has pledged to fight the sex industry clearly by prostituting itself freely through the streets of Europe. In fact this is closer to the truth for it has been discovered that most of them actually are prostitutes recruited from the porn industry and the activists receive a healthy salary for their lurid antics.

The fact that FEMEN relocated to the centre of France a predominantly Catholic country highlights that the obscene, lewd and irreverent behaviour is meant to push European sensibilities to the limit.

FRANKFURT SCHOOL

This is a Marxist affiliated school of social theory and philosophy. Their origins go back to the Institute for Social Research at the University of Frankfurt. This Institute emerged from a week-long symposium held in Ilmenau, Germany in 1922 the purpose of which was combining the different trends of Marxism.

Jewish Marxist Max Horkheimer was appointed to the chair in 1930 and changed the direction of the Institute from promoting an orthodox Marxist philosophy to Cultural Marxism, better known as Political Correctness. “Frankfurter School” is used as a term for thinkers affiliated with the Institute for Social Research or influenced by them.

Max Horkheimer

Max Horkheimer (14 Feb 1895 to 7 July 1973) was A Jewish Philosopher-Sociologist born in Stuttgart to a wealthy Jewish family. As a member of the 'Frankfurt School' of social research he was most famous for his work in critical theory, a technique of criticising everything but providing no rational alternative. Horkheimer's most important works include The Eclipse of Reason (1947) and, in collaboration with Theodor Adorno, The Dialectic of Enlightenment (1947).

“The Revolution won't happen with guns, rather it will happen incrementally, year by year, generation by generation. We will gradually infiltrate their educational institutions and their political offices, transforming them slowly into Marxist entities as we move towards universal egalitarianism.” – Max Horkheimer

Herbert Marcuse

Herbert Marcuse (19 July 1898 to 29 July 1979) was a Jewish Communist propagandist and agitator born in Germany. Like Horkheimer he was a member of the Frankfurt School and involved in the creation of Marxist critical theory. Marcuse was a father of Cultural Marxism.

He proposed a Judaic subversion of the universities, where Jewish Marxist professors could take advantage of the newly affluent lower middle-classes; brainwashing them into self-loathing subversives, primarily through sociology and literary studies. This dropped completely the Marxist facade of pretending to stand for the working-class, proposing that society could be overthrown by manipulating students and the dark races (such as the Black Panthers). The best known propaganda works by Marcuse are Eros and Civilization, One-Dimensional Man and The Aesthetic Dimension.

Critical Theory

Critical theory is the core of cultural Marxism. It has developed a systematic program of reactionary suppositions that violate the core of traditional ethnic European society. Most significant is the Marxist derivative Feminism whose agenda is to divide man and woman. Consequently the most prominent construct in their arsenal is the illusion of patriarchy. There is a natural order of things in which man and woman complement each other in their instinctive roles. Equality is not a feature of nature.

Marxist Labeling

Jewish Zionism has a knack for producing words and situations that close people and communities down, racism is just one but their most infamous are anti-Semitism and Holocaust. This is a trap that the White race continually falls into. The fallacy of Marxist labeling is that they require one to deny that which does not exist. This only buys in to the enemy's overarching paradigm.

The simplest example is 'atheism'. It was ascribed by the theist-God believer to the none-believer. As such for the none-believer to describe himself as an atheist means that at some level he must believe that a god exists not to believe in!

Therefore, to label oneself an 'anti-racist' presupposes that racism exists the same goes for Holocaust denial. A further element of Jewish Zio-Marxist psychological trickery is used in their ability to re-label sexual depravity; Homosexuality in reality sodomy, Zoophilia being bestiality and Paedophilia child rape.

SEXUAL BOLSHEVISM

Sexual Bolshevism is the politicization of sexual depraved acts and behaviours that are collectively described as mental disorders under the term paraphilias.

Coined in Germany by Ludwig Hoppe, a Lutheran pastor from Berlin who in 1921 authored Sexual Bolshevism and Defense Against Same. Broadly it encapsulates Jewish Marxist persons and groups that continually seek acceptance of sexual depravity and lobby for changes to the legal and medical status of perverted sexual interests and practices. This is the origin of 'sex education' delivered to children in the classroom proving that it is a deliberate policy to undermine Europe.

Homosexuality

The political manipulation of perverted sexual behaviour such as sodomy grew primarily out of the Jewish decadence of the Liberal 19th century. The concept of two people of the same sex being exclusively attracted to each other as a “sexual identity” never existed prior to this. The term “homosexuality” was coined as late as 1869, by Karl-Maria Kertbeny inspired by the Jew Freud’s sexually depraved ideas.

Sodomy constituted no small part to the fall of Rome. Miscegenation brought on through over expansion presented the White Romans with the degenerate practices of alien races.

Homosexuality was once categorized as Paraphilia. The American Psychiatric Association removed homosexuality from the DSM in 1974. Jewish psychiatrist Martin Kafka writes, “Sexual disorders once considered paraphilias (e.g., homosexuality) are now regarded as variants of normal sexuality.” In 1981, an article published in American Journal of Psychiatry described paraphilia as “recurrent, intense sexually arousing fantasies, sexual urges, or behaviors generally involving:

1. Non-human objects
2. The suffering or humiliation of oneself or one’s partner
3. Children
4. Non-consenting persons

Marxist groups are seeking acceptance of sexual diversity, they have lobbied for changes to the legal and medical status of perverted sexual interests and practices. Homosexual physician Charles Allen Moser, has argued that the diagnoses should be eliminated from diagnostic manuals. Indeed those with this mental disorder are 4 times more likely to rape a child.

Wilhelm Reich

Wilhelm Reich (24 Mar 1897 to 3 Nov 1957) was a Jewish Communist propagandist and agitator, involved with Sigmund Freud, he created the Freudo-Marxian psychoanalytic strategy, which became an essential part of Cultural Marxism.

An active member of the Communist Party of Germany, he invaded America along with other Jewish degenerates such as Herbert Marcuse and Theodor Adorno. Reich's central purpose was to launch a pornographic psychological offensive, in an attempt to undermine White Western society and bring family values into disrepute. Like Marx he proposed abolishment of the traditional family, promoted abortion and radical feminism to turn the sexes against each other, hoping to lower their demography by preventing childbirth.

ABORTION

Abortion is the ending of pregnancy by the removal or forcing out from the womb of a child before it is able to survive on its own. Genocide by abortion is an ongoing global depopulation campaign of industrial demographic genocide and dysgenics, particularly targeted at the unborn children of the European race.

Genocidal abortion began in the late 20th century, when Jewish Bolshevism under the Communist dictatorship of Vladimir Lenin became the first state to permit abortion on demand by law, in 1920. This is considered a continuation of the much more open genocide of ethnic Europeans by the Red Army due to the statement of intent in the Communist Manifesto by Karl Marx to "abolish the family".

Simone Veil sustained the Jewish genocidal agenda when she legalized abortion in January 1975. A particularly distasteful aspect to abortion is the method by which it was accepted by mainstream. This involved gradually convincing the public that the unborn child was not a life and as such graded it 'embryo' and 'foetus' to distance mother from baby. A similar approach is being used to introduce paedophilia to mainstream.

Already paedophilia is being redefined as attraction to prepubescent (under 11's) no longer distinguishing 11-14 as children. New labels have been invented-Hebephilia defined as a primary or exclusive sexual interest in 11-14 year old pubescents and Ephebophilia defined as a primary or exclusive sexual interest in 15 to 19 year olds. The purpose is to constantly squeeze the definition of 'child' in the public mind gradually legitimising this form of sexual depravity thus reducing mother and child to material commodity.

CRIMES & CRIMINALITY

Crimes and criminality depicts how the Jewish parasite invaded Europe exposing the European to a degenerate subhuman nature unleashed in the form of the sadistic sexually depraved serial killer. They manifested a powerful criminal underworld with links that corrupted European governments and established their own representatives in positions of power to subvert the European judicial system and write Jewish commercialism into law.

TRAITORS

The simplest definition of a traitor is one who acts against the best interests of their race. Integral to this is that race is nation and the traitor betrays the ties of blood and land by placing foreign interests above his people. Calling the Jew a traitor presupposes he is one of us but it is only a fool who accept the parasite as his brother.

Treason

It is only TREASON if the people committing the crime against the country are of the same race and nation. The government of America as of Britain, Germany and all other White Western Nations have been infiltrated by a parasitic ideology that has intern infused these governments with peoples with interest other than those of the respective hosts (Israel being the prime player).

YES THESE PEOPLE ARE ABSOLUTELY CRIMINALS but they are not traitors for they have not defected from their own tribe they are stealing from ours-the White tribe.

Only a Government created of its own race can truly have its own land and peoples National interests at heart and it is only a fool who accepts them as one of their own. Introduce the foreigner and he will automatically place HIS interests before those of the host Nation.

Nick Griffin

Nicholas John Griffin MEP (born 1 March 1959), better known as Nick Griffin, is a Zionist

politician, allegedly homosexual whose father is a 33 degree mason. Currently chairman of the British National Party after manipulating the position from John Tyndall, in 1999

Griffin embarked on a strategy to make the party “electable”-Zionist ‘double speak’ for distracting members from the core issue. Nick Griffin champions the BNP in its parochial little England flag waving sessions, as it focuses on Islamic miscreants but fails in pointing out who imports them. Meanwhile, Jewish members have hijacked the party and the words ‘Jew’ and ‘Israel’ are subject to the same politically correct criminality as the rest of the Marxist regime.

Paul Golding

A former official from the British National Party (BNP) Paul Golding represents just one of a collection of Zionist stooges assigned to stage manage a media performance of 'disunity' in the faux British 'Nationalist' movement. Forming the Britain First Party using the BNP membership role, it is merely a facsimile of the BNP meant to distract and confuse natives.

"Jews don't cause any problems, The only community that is not willing to integrate into British society is the Islamic one." – Paul Golding

Aaron Kosminski (Jack The Ripper)

Aaron Kosminski, a Jewish immigrant from Poland and always the police' prime suspect is the most notorious modern serial killer 'Jack the Ripper'. Kosminski's arrival in London in the early 1880's corresponded with reactions in Russia to Jewish terrorist activity that had cumulated in the assassination of Tsar Alexander II by a Jew Vera Figner.

Among those leaving Eastern Europe for Britain at that time were malevolent terrorist types such as the Tsar's murderer and British police were investigating this subversive political activity specifically involving Jewish immigrants from Poland and Russia. While it was DNA from the victim's blood and killer's semen, isolated on the shawl found by Catherine Eddowes body that identified Kosminski as the 'Ripper', its pattern of Michaelmas daisies revealed a murderous ritual punishment schedule meted out towards European Christian woman.

The dates of each murder correspond to a Christian festival the sequence he killed in appears as Catholic – Orthodox – Catholic – Orthodox. Here is a case of a Jew specifically choosing ethnic European Christian woman on Christian religious dates for the sole purpose of sexual violation, mutilation and murder. It is difficult to dismiss the charge of ritual murder particularly when related to the current climate, the amount of missing and or defiled children and the Jewish nature of the Paedophile scandal links are undeniable.

POLITICS

Particularly in times of social upheaval the Jew will create or infiltrate established political movements and subvert them to their own interests. Since the Jewish victory in Europe in 1945 Jewish interests occupying Western Governments have engineered the ballot box so that no honest Nationalist Party concerned about the interests of its race will enter government.

POLITICAL MOVEMENTS

A political movement is an entity that is or purports to be driven by a political ideology. In certain cases the political movement maybe wholly driven by a political ideology. However, the Jewish Marxist regime has manufactured fraudulent 'nationalist' movements and infiltrated others to discredit true European Nationalism.

United Against Fascism (UAF)

Unite against Fascism (UAF) is a Marxist construct designed to confront fraudulent 'nationalistic' fronts (BNP, EDL) for media displays to deceive the public into believing the illusion of political choice. Mass support mustered for the UAF arises from disillusioned students and only coalesces at various demos through Jewish Marxist groups and trade Unions.

The Young Turks

The Young Turks movement was one of the first real threats to the Ottoman Throne. A hard-core, conspiratorial group formed in 1889 among the students of the Military Medical School in Constantinople.

The Donmè had disproportionate power and influence (in light of their number) on both the Ottoman Empire and on the Young Turks the later who perpetrated the Armenian genocide. Meaning 'convert' in Turkish, the Donmè was a Hebrew heresy whose followers 'converted' to Islam in the 18th century. According to the Great Hellenic Encyclopedia [Megali Elliniki Enkiklopethia]:

"It is generally accepted that the Donmè secretly continue to adhere to the Hebrew religion and don't allow their kind to intermarry with the Muslims."

In his book, The Rise of Nationality in the Balkans the eminent British historian, R. Seton Watson, wrote "The real brains behind the [Itihàt] movement were Jews...

The wealthy Donmè and Jews of Thessaloniki supported [the Young Turks] economically, and their fellow Jewish capitalists in Vienna and Berlin as well as in Budapest and possibly Paris and London supported them financially as well. In the January 23rd, 1914, issue of the Czarist Police [Okra] Ledger (Number 16609), directed to the Ministry of the Exterior in Saint Petersburg, we read:

“A pan-Islamic convention of Itihàts and Jews was held in the Nouri Osman lodge in Constantinople. It was attended by approximately 700 prominent Itihàts and Jews, including “Minister”

Talaàt Bey, Bentri Bey, Mbekri Bey, and (Donmè) Javit Bey. Among the many Jews in attendance, two of the most prominent were the Head of the Security Service, Samouel Effendi, and the Vice-Administrator of the Police, Abraham Bey.”

Shill

The general concept of a Shill is an apparently neutral individual who publicly sways in favour of a character or organization without disclosing their intimate connection. Also called a plant or a stooge online discussion media uses mock ‘satisfied consumers’ or artificial ‘innocent parties’ to express specific opinions in order to further the interests of particular organizational interests. Examples are commercial vendors like Coca Cola or special interest groups such as Zionist Israel. In academia, this is called opinion spamming. A Shill can also be used pejoratively to describe a critic who appears either all-too-eager to heap glowing praise upon mediocrity, or who acts as an apologist for glaring flaws.

RELIGION

Religion can be the source of much division particularly when the Jew is involved. Indeed the tribe uses religion to conceal its true intent. This section uncovers the reality behind Jewish festivals, covers religious movements and figures both Jewish and apparently gentile detrimental to the European; uncovers the Talmud and hidden Jewish manipulation of certain Christian texts and subversion of Christianity in its entirety by crypto-Jews.

JEWISH FESTIVALS

Jewish festivals record the celebrations of the Jewish tribe’s genocide of ethnic Europeans. Most notable are Passover, Purim and Chanukah. In celebration of Purim and Passover it is understood that the murder of an Ethnic European child by Jews takes place.

The ritual’s purpose is to drain the blood of the child in order to make the three cornered Purim pastries (Hamanteshen) or unleavened bread (matzo) for Passover. Jewish ritual murders have occurred in all ages and still continue today. Most famous is the event exposed in 1989 during the Oprah Winfrey Show.

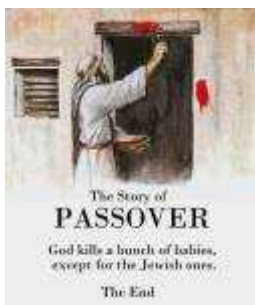

“On 1st May, 1989, the Oprah Winfrey show had as its guest a person who, as a young girl, was forced to participate in a ritual in which an ethnic European Christian infant was sacrificed.

The amazing thing about this guest is that she was not affiliated with some unknown radical bloodletting cult, but that she was a Jew.” (Willie Martin The History of Jewish Human Sacrifice, Pg. 11,1997) Recently in Italy, Ariel Toaff, a Jewish Israeli university professor published the ‘controversial’ book Ebrei d’Europa e Pasque di Sangue (European Jews and Blood Easters) where he hypothesized that past accusations against Jews for their rituals were likely true.

He was harshly criticized and had to re-call his book. The books focus was the figure of 2-year-old Saint Simon of Trento, also called Simonino da Trento, who was kidnapped and murdered by Jews. His body was found in a cellar of a Jewish owned house in Trento, Italy by local magistrates. There was even an eye-witness.

Eight Jews were sentenced to death and executed in late June 1475. The exact number of ethnic European children ritually murdered by Jews is unknown, but the number may be in the millions. Incidentally 140,000 under 18’s vanish across Britain alone each year and the current pedophilic atmosphere provides the perfect camouflage for bestial activity. Indeed the Jewish Marxist introduction of sex education increased unwanted teenage pregnancy facilitating their widespread abortion campaign concealing a further aspect of Jewish ritual murder.

Passover

Passover is the Jewish celebration of their murder of ethnic European first born males of Egypt. The myth of Exodus suggests that ‘God’ helped the Jewish tribe ‘escape’ Egypt. Indeed speculation indicates that many of the initial 9 plagues inflicted on Egypt-water into blood, frogs, lice, flies, deceased livestock, boils and locusts-infer Jewish interference rather than ‘divine’ intervention.

As to the final and most horrific plague, Jewish people (Israelites) were instructed to mark their doorposts with the blood of a slaughtered spring lamb so that during the massacre Jewish terrorists would pass over the first-born in these homes, hence the name of the festival.

The Pharaoh was incensed by the slaughter of his people and had the Jews chased from Egypt. The Jewish tribe had no time to wait for bread dough to rise (leaven) and in commemoration, for the duration of Passover no leavened bread is eaten. Thus Matzo (flat unleavened bread) is eaten during Passover.

Purim

Purim is the Jewish tribe's celebration of the Jewish genocide of 75,000 ethnic Europeans in Persia and their assassination of a Persian politician, Haman. During the 4th century BC Haman was Prime Minister of the Persian Empire. Mordechai, the leader of the Jewish tribe defied the king's orders and refused to follow Haman. Haman was naturally angry and the King issued a decree ordering the expulsion of all Jews from Persia. At this Mordechai mobilised the Jewish tribe into a terrorist mob that began a murderous rampage resulting in 75,000 Persian deaths. Meanwhile, having deliberately concealed her Jewish identity Esther (Mordechai's cousin) had become King Ahasuerus wife following the contrived death of his Queen. She arranged for the king and Haman to join her at a meeting at which she revealed her Jewish identity forcing the King into a compromise to stop Jewish violence against his people.

Haman was hung and Mordechai appointed Prime Minister in his stead. A new decree was issued granting Jews the right to defend themselves against their 'enemies' establishing just how far back Jewish manipulation of ethic European monarchy reaches.

On the anniversary of the massacre and assassination of Haman Jews celebrated in fancy dress and producing and eating triangular-shaped pastries meant to represent Haman's ears! (Hamentaschen). Also consumed are 'Kreplach' dough pockets filled with ground beef symbolizing the beaten flesh of Haman. Purim is celebrated on the 15th of the month of Adar in the Jewish calendar, which is in February or March in the Gregorian calendar.

At a town called Inmester in Syria, a Jewish celebration of Purim turned into an ugly anti-Christian rally. It was the practice to burn or hang an effigy of Haman, an enemy of the Jews, on Purim, yet the Jews at Inmester abducted instead a Christian boy, bound him to a cross, and flogged him to death.

The Roman world was stunned by the crime. Emperor Theodosius II (402-450) responded by excluding Jews from certain government positions and forbidding the construction of new synagogues. In the Theodosian Code, strict regulations were placed on the celebration of Purim.

Christians were also instructed not to have intimate or personal intercourse with Jews, which might lead to intermarriage. This law mirrored similar Jewish restrictions against fraternization with non-Jews. Nevertheless, the code did uphold the rights and citizenship of all Jews and protected existing synagogues.

Chanukah (Hanukkah)

Chanukah is the Jewish celebration of the Jewish genocide of ethnic European Syrian Greeks. In 175 BC, Antiochus IV Epiphanes, the son of Antiochus III invaded Judea. Refusing to mix freely with the Syrian Greeks Mattathias (Mattityahu), a Jewish priest, and his five sons Jochanan, Simeon, Eleazar, Jonathan, and Judah led a Jewish rebellion against Antiochus and his people. Judah became known as Yehuda HaMakabi ("Judah the Hammer"). By 166 BC Mattathias had died, and Judah took his place as leader. The Maccabees annihilated many pagan villages. The revolt itself involved many battles, in which the Maccabean terrorists gained notoriety among the Seleucid army for their use of guerrilla tactics against the Greek people. By 165 BC Jewish terror against the Greek people had succeeded in the overthrow of the Seleucid Monarchy.

Menorah

On capturing the temple in Jerusalem the victorious Jews composed a celebratory myth surrounding their multi-branched candelabra so that the Menorah would stand testament to their genocide of ethnic Greeks.

This tradition has continued into modernity as the erection of the Menorah across Europe signifies Jewish atrocities against the ethnic European people-the Holodomor Genocides, Armenian Genocides, both World Wars and constant war with the Middle East. Chanukkah, the festival celebrating this Jewish genocide of Europeans, is observed for eight nights and days starting on the 25th day of Kislev according to the Hebrew calendar.

This may occur at any time from late November to late December in the Gregorian calendar yet all over Europe the Menorah appears right over the Christmas period to douse the message of hope with genocidal destruction.

Yom Kippur

Yom Kippur is usually expressed in English as “Day of Atonement” and is marketed as a high ‘holy’ day in the Jewish calendar. However, the concept of ‘atonement’ in the religious sense of reconciling with God for wrong doing (sin) is drastically ignored by the Jewish community. In actuality the purpose of Yom Kippur is an undertaking to renounce all vows and undertakings made over the next 12 months.

The core of Yom Kippur is the Kol Nidre prayer recited before sunset on the eve of the so called ‘Holy’ day.

“All [personal] vows we are likely to make, all [personal] oaths and pledges we are likely to take between this Yom Kippur and the next Yom Kippur, we publicly renounce. Let them all be relinquished and abandoned, null and void, neither firm nor established. Let our [personal] vows, pledges and oaths be considered neither vows nor pledges nor oaths.”

Compliant with the Talmud which frequently says Gentiles may be deceived, defrauded and deprived of justice. For example if a Jew finds an object lost by a Goy it does not have to be returned (Baba Mazia 24a) What a Jew steals from a Goy he may keep (Sanhedrin 57a) If a Jew kills a Goy there will be no death penalty. (Sanhedrin 57a) Furthermore, similar to the biblical practice of the scapegoat, where goats or bulls are sacrificed in place of ones sins the ritual of Kapparot (aka. Kaporos) takes place on Yom Kippur.

Here the Jew transfers his oaths and vows for the coming year to the chicken then the bird is ritually slaughtered ‘absolving’ the Jew of responsibility for his criminality in the coming year.

RELIGIOUS SCRIPTURES

This section covers the Jew in the field of religious scripture. While the first religion in Europe was pagan conversion to Christianity took place early so the primary scripture in the West is the Bible comprising the Old and New Testaments. It is critical to note that, while both materials speak of religious experience, a distinction is made between that which was religious scripture and myth.

One is said to be ‘God given’, holy and consigned some kind of credibility and the other relegated to the plane of ‘fairy-tale’. Yet both speak of ‘gods’, ‘giants’ and greatly aged men the only difference appears in the origin. Relegated to myth is European and only credible religious scripture is Semitic makes the parasite ‘chosen’ in a host land. Furthering embedding himself the Jew has manipulated text in the Scofield Bible to endorse his ‘chosen’ status.

Talmud

Forming the moral and social grounding for the worldwide Jewish community and integral to Jewish scholarship it is the Talmud that men study at Yeshivot (Jewish colleges) to become rabbis. Reported to be merely a commentary on the Tenakh (Old Testament) the Talmud actually supersedes the teachings held in the Tenakh.

Meant to be a 'holy' book the Talmud has been denounced numerous times since Pablo Christiani in 1264. The Jews knew why and the Talmud itself even gave warning- To communicate to a Goy anything about our religious relations would be equal to killing all Jews, for if the Goyim knew what we teach about them, they would kill us openly. - Libbre David 37

Yet 'teachings' such as these have reached gentile ears

Mishnah

The Mishnah is the earliest component part of the Talmud (c. 200 AD). This is the first major written production of Jewish moral and social law supporting evidence that the first five books of the Christian Bible are not the 'holy' books of this tribe.

Gemara

The Gemara (c. 500 AD) is the later component of the Talmud. This is analysis of and commentary on the Mishnah.

Torah

Forming part of the Christian Old Testament known as the Pentateuch the Torah is marketed as the books of law in Judaism. It is in here that by a 'divine hand' the Jew identified himself as set apart from the gentile. Yet it is only through the Talmud that worldwide Jewry receives its moral and social grounding.

The Scofield Reference Bible

The Scofield Reference Bible is a widely circulated Zionist indoctrination tool edited and annotated by the American conman and criminal Cyrus I. Scofield. First published in 1909 by Oxford University Press the Scofield Reference Bible is not just another translation of the King James Bible that subverts minor passages a little at a time but radically changes the context of the King James Version.

The concept of the Scofield Bible was to re-write the King James Version of the Bible by inserting Zionist-friendly notes in the margins, between verses and chapters, and on the bottoms of the pages. It was designed to create a subculture around a new worship icon, the modern State of Israel, a state that did not exist at the time of publication, but which was already on the drawing boards of the committed, well-funded authors of World Zionism.

The Oxford University Press owned "The Scofield Reference Bible" from the beginning, as indicated by its copyright and through Jewish lawyer Samuel Untermyer's introduction Scofield received financial backing from numerous Jewish Zionist leaders including Samuel Gompers, Fiorello LaGuardia, Abraham Straus, Bernard Baruch and Jacob Schiff for his trips to Oxford and publication and distribution of his concordance.

Oral Torah

According to Jewish tradition, the Oral Torah or Oral Law represents those laws, statutes, and legal interpretations that were not recorded in the Five Books of Moses, the "Written Torah", but nonetheless are regarded by Jews as prescriptive and co-given.

This holistic Jewish code of conduct encompass a wide swath of ritual, worship, God-man and interpersonal relationships, from dietary laws to Sabbath and festival observance to marital relations, agricultural practices, and civil claims and damages. The major repositories of the Oral Torah are the Mishnah, compiled between 200–220 AD by Rabbi Yehudah haNasi, and the Gemara, a series of running commentaries and debates concerning the Mishnah. Together they are the Talmud, the preeminent text of Jewish Law.

Kabbalah

Kabbalah (Hebrew: קַבָּלָה, literally “receiving/tradition” is a Jewish esoteric method, discipline, and school of thought. According to Jewish tradition Kabbalistic knowledge is an integral part of the Oral Torah although there is a view that Kabbalah began with Adam.

However, contemporary scholarship assert that various schools of Jewish esotericism arose at different periods of Jewish history, each only reflecting prior forms of mysticism, but also the intellectual and cultural milieu of that historical period.

This corresponds with the typical coveting aspect of Jewish character. Jewish Kabbalists believe that the Torah contains secrets of the creation of the universe and forces of nature.

Accordingly the Torah’s description of the creation in the Book of Genesis is supposed to reveal mysteries about God himself, the true nature of Adam and Eve, the Garden of Eden, the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil and the Tree of Life, as well as the interaction of these supernatural entities with the Serpent which leads to disaster when they eat the forbidden fruit, as recorded in Genesis 3.

While the Jewish tribe have been a parasitic scourge on Europeans since Greek and Roman times the esoteric nature of these writing may be a source for their genocidal destruction.

Kohanim

Kohen or cohen (plural kohanim) is the Hebrew word for priest. According to Judaism Kohanim are supposed to be of direct patrilineal descent from the biblical Aaron. Therefore, Jewish propaganda markets the notion that this particular Jewish lineage as a pure pedigree. Quite apart from the fact that the Bible as a historical and scientific source leaves much to be desired the Semite itself is not a pure racial type but a composite. Nevertheless, those of this line are given special status among the Jewish tribe and in the terrorist state of Israel there are specific laws governing their marriage.

Golem

Jewish ‘folklore’ would have it that a golem is an animated anthropomorphic being, magically created entirely from inanimate matter.

The word golem occurs once in the Bible in Psalm 139:16, which uses the word ‘galmi’ (my golem), meaning “my unshaped form”, denoting the unfinished human being before God’s eyes.

The Mishnah uses the term for an uncultivated person. “Golem” passed into Yiddish as goylem to mean someone who is clumsy or slow and in Modern Hebrew golem is used to mean “dumb” or “helpless.” Similarly, it is often used today as a metaphor for a brainless lunk or entity that serves man under controlled conditions but is hostile to him under others.

RELIGIOUS TERMINOLOGY

Religious terminology refers to words and language used in the religious sphere that serves to separate the religious from ordinary life.

Goyim

The term ‘Goy’ (plural goyim) referring to non-Jews actually means cattle as expressed in the Talmud ‘The goyim are not human they are beasts’ [Baba Mazia 114b] and etymologically derived from the Hebrew term שקץ, sheketz, meaning “abomination”, “impure,” or “object of loathing” the Yiddish term for a non-Jewish female ‘Shiksa’ actually denotes a hoar.

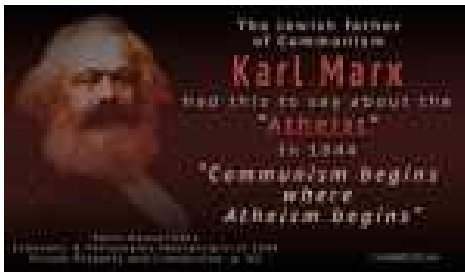

Shabbos Goy

Literally a Shabbos, Shabbat or Shabbos goy (Yiddish: גוי שבת, shabbos goy Modern Hebrew: גוי שבת של גוי, goy shel shabat) is a non-Jew who performs certain types of work (melakha) for a Jew on the Biblical Sabbath, work which Jewish Law (Halachah) prevents the Jew from doing on the Sabbath.

The phrase is a combination of the word “Shabbos” (שבת) meaning the Sabbath, and “Goy”, which means cattle. It has also come to mean a non-Jew who is heavily supportive of Israel and kowtows to every wish and whim of the Jews.

Atheism

Atheism is a label invented by the theist or believer in God to imply one who denies the existence of God. Thus to label oneself an ‘atheist’ presupposes on some level that a ‘God’ must exist for one to deny it is the believer that labels the none-believer a ‘denier’ to ensure his worldview.

The invention of labels by the opposition is a psychological tool to hinder or crush debate, and is used to great effect in Jewish Marxism. Denial of that which evidently does not exist only secures the opposition’s overarching paradigm-‘Holocaust’ and ‘racism’ are prime examples.

On a more practical level the term is used to indicate the radical purge of religiosity from Communism, heralded with mass murders of clergy, and the dramatic switch to materialism. Ironically the argument supporting secularism often quotes religion as a prime source of conflict yet more people have been murdered in a shorter space of time by those that define themselves as Atheists than by those of any religion.

Moreover the theory often used to dispel spirituality-evolution is the absurd Jewish reasoning that nothing is something. While common sense alone informs one that a myriad of objects can issue forth from a small repository under the hand of a creative design.

QUOTES

“We believe in a God Almighty who stands above us; he has created the earth, the Fatherland, and the Volk, and he has sent us the Führer. Any human being who does not believe in God should be considered arrogant, megalomaniacal, and stupid and thus not suited for the SS.” Heinrich Himmler

Gentile

‘Gentile’ is a generic term for non-Jews of any ethnic or racial background. That a word exists to specifically define a Jew from a non-Jew speaks to radical (racial) difference. The Yiddish word ‘Goy’ (plural goyim) also referring to non-Jews actually means cattle openly displaying the contempt the Jewish tribe hold for the gentile.

Kosher

Kosher is that which conform to the regulations of kashrut (Jewish dietary law). Food that may be consumed according to halakha (Jewish law) is termed kosher in English, from the Ashkenazi pronunciation of the Hebrew term kashér (כָּשֵׁר), meaning “fit”. Food that is not in accordance with Jewish law is called treif (Yiddish: טרייף or treyf, derived from Hebrew טְרֵפָה trāfáh).

Animals are only considered ‘kosher’ if they are slaughtered barbarically in a particularly cruel fashion known as Jewish ritual slaughter. Any mixture of meat and milk, wine or grape juice (and their derivatives) produced by gentiles is also considered treif. Many Christians buy Kosher foods with the impression that Kosher is based on the biblical dietary laws which can be seen especially in Leviticus 11.

However, the truth is that the kosher system is based on the Talmud which insults Jesus Christ and the Virgin Mary. A further deception claims that the ‘Kosher’ mark is quality insurance even though kosher products are usually filled with GMO products. This implies a marketing technique to spread the GMO products of international Jewish conglomerates even more probable considering the kosher tax.

This refers to money paid by food producers to Jewish certification programmes in order to have their food classified as conforming to Jewish dietary standards, and the corresponding significant increase in price passed on to consumers. Profits from the kosher tax support Jewish organizations and food producers who refuse to impose this tax are labelled “anti-Semitic”. New laws in 2014, also require the government to stockpile kosher food for national emergencies.

Secularism

In Latin saecularis, from saeculum ‘generation, age’, used in Christianity to mean ‘the world’ as opposed to the Church secularism has become the means by which democracy can completely divorce religious or spiritual from politics. Thus strict separation of the state from religious institutions is enforced ensuring a politically correct environment for the imported races and their religions.

Like the democratic state it is entwined with this system espouses ‘equality’ to conceal the repression of the indigenous ethnic European population and inversion of their traditional values through the protection of perversions such as paedophilia and homosexuality.

RELIGIOUS FIGURES

This section focuses on those figures, both Jewish and gentile, which populate the religious sector to the detriment of the European. The Jewish Rabbi is promoted as an innocent teacher but has been strategically placed to network and many are openly genocidal against Europeans. There are also covert or crypto-Jews parachuted into the various church denominations to corrupt and pervert and without stable or core moral truths the European falls prey to corruption and blackmail.

Sabbatai Zevi

Sabbatai Zevi (1 Aug 1626 to 17 Sept 1676) was a Sephardic Rabbi and kabbalist who claimed to be the long-awaited Jewish Messiah. He was the founder of the Sabbatean movement. Born in Smyrna (İzmir in present-day Turkey) Zevi's family were Romaniote Jews or Romaniots a Jewish community with distinctive cultural features who have occupied Greece and neighbouring areas for more than 2,000 years.

His father Mordecai, a poultry dealer achieved their wealth during the war between Turkey and Venice. Appearing conveniently as Europe was hit by a wave of Millennialism; at age 22 in 1648 Zevi had started declaring to his followers in Smyrna that he was the true Messianic redeemer.

His exploits from this point are invariably an attempt by the international Jewish community to publically disassociate from Zevi, for example 'excommunicating' him from Judaism as they actually prepare a covert operation to infiltrate Ottoman territories. The evidence for this is particularly stark when one considers that Zevi moved to Constantinople and 'converted to Islam on 16th September 1666 coinciding with the year identified by Europe's Christians as apocalyptic.

The sultan was much pleased, and rewarded Sabbatai by conferring on him the title (Mahmed) Effendi, and appointing him as his doorkeeper with a generous salary. Approximately 300 families among Sabbatai's followers also converted to Islam thereafter were known as Donmè (converts) and secretly continued Jewish observances. The Donmè were to have disproportionate power and influence (in light of their number) on both the Ottoman Empire and on the Young Turks the later who perpetrated the Armenian genocide.

Sabbateans

Sabbateans (Sabbatians) are followers or disciples and believers in Sabbatai Zevi (1626–1676), a Jewish rabbi who was proclaimed to be the Jewish Messiah in 1665 by Nathan of Gaza. In 1666 Zevi became a Jewish apostate to Islam. Many within Zevi's inner circle followed him into Islam, including his wife Sarah and most of his closest relatives and friends. Nevertheless, vast numbers of Jews still accepted his claims to "Messiahship" after his apparent conversion.

Ties between Sabbatean Kabbalah and Sufism go back to the days of Sabbatai Zevi. The Dönme community of Salonika, those followers of Zevi who had 'converted' to Islam but who secretly continued Jewish observances, came to play a significant role in the Sufi life of the region and its members actively involved with a number of Sufi orders.

Similarities between Dönme and unorthodox Sufi practice seem to exist, including the violation of kashrut/halal, sexual license, ecstatic singing, mystical interpretations of sacred scripture, and the practice of ritual meals.

Donmè

The Donmè (converts) are decedents of the approximately 300 families among Sabbatai Zevi's (false messiah and founder of the Sabbateans) followers who converted to Islam with him. Secretly continuing Jewish observances the Donmè were to have disproportionate power and influence (in light of their number) on both the Ottoman Empire and on the Young Turks the later who perpetrated the Armenian genocide.

Julia Neuberger

Rabbi Julia Babette Sarah Neuberger, (born 27 February 1950; née Julia Schwab) was made a life peer in June 2004 becoming 'Baroness Neuberger' in order to manoeuvre her into the British House of Lords. She is President of West Central Liberal Synagogue and president of the Liberal Judaism movement since January 2007. Neuberger had Chair of Camden and Islington Community Health Services NHS Trust from 1992 to 1997.

In January 2013, Neuberger was appointed as Chair of an Independent Review of the Liverpool Care Pathway.

The impartiality of the appointment has been criticised by families of the slain, due to her previous endorsement of murder via the pathway written by Dr John Ellershaw, Medical Director of the Marie Curie Palliative Care Institute in Liverpool, in a 2003 BMJ article; and her widely publicised support of the Marie Curie Institute.

Justin Welby

Justin Portal Welby (born 6 January 1956) is the 105th and current Jewish Archbishop of Canterbury and senior bishop in the Church of England. Welby was formerly the vicar of Southam, Warwickshire. As Archbishop of Canterbury he is Primate of all England and the symbolic head of the worldwide Anglican Communion yet recently admitted to doubting the existence of God. He was formerly the Bishop of Durham, serving for just over a year.

The Archbishop worked in the oil industry for more than a decade after reading law and history at Trinity College, the notorious rendezvous of the Cambridge five then applied for 'diplomatic service'. Curiously but a short time later in 1989 Welby said that he sensed a 'calling from God' to be ordained and was almost immediately smuggled behind the Iron Curtain to Communist-controlled Romania and Czechoslovakia.

He fervently denies being MI6 but the circumstances suggest different. Also good friends with Jewish Labour party paedophile Greville Janners daughter rabbi Laura Janner Klausner, Welby is now a member of the House of Lords and sits on the panel of the Parliamentary Commission on Banking Standards where in a very Marxist fashion he is absolving people of personal responsibility

"I don't believe in good human beings," he insisted, "but I believe you can have structures that make it easier to make the right choice or the wrong choice."

Welby's mother was Jane Portal, a former personal secretary to Winston Churchill, but his father was previously married in America to Doris Sturzenegger, a factory owner's daughter. The father was born Bernard Gavin Weiler, the son of a Jewish immigrant born in Germany.

This correlates with Jewish infiltration of the Catholic Church yet the public is led to believe that Welby did not find out about his grandfather's ancestry until he was an adult. An alcoholic, Welby's father first made money bootlegging whisky alongside other Jewish criminals in America during the prohibition years now promoted by Jewish Hollywood as the 'Italian Mafia'. He was a con man that posed as an English aristocrat dating the Marxist actress Vanessa Redgrave while his sister Peggy married a 'former' Communist Labour MP.

A typical Jew Welby himself admitted that his father could not be trusted "He told lots of stories but one was never really sure what was true and what wasn't." Furthermore, both the name and date of the father's birth provided at his time of death were intentionally incorrect to mislead press and researchers.

Nevertheless the most startling aspect to this, particularly given Welby's position is his astonishing lack of shame at the apparent 'revelation' of his father's criminal past. Criminality seems to be rife chemist Dr Gerhard Weiler, a cousin of the Archbishop's father Gavin, moved with his family from Germany later being registered as an "enemy alien" in the UK. Welby apparently unmoved by criminality told the Jewish news;

"We're going to meet up with some cousins who I had no idea about. One of them is a rabbi who recently wrote to me. He's one of the senior teachers at a Jewish college in London. We'll try to meet up, or get them to Lambeth Palace to do something fun to celebrate. To discover you've got a family you didn't know about is really exciting."

Moreover observing the Jewish Marxist agenda Welby has merely continued to speak out strongly against homophobia and stated that he is "always averse to the language of exclusion...." saying

"I know I need to listen very attentively to the LGBT (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender) communities."

Adhering to the Feminist line Welby favours Anglican consecration of women bishops. Following a rejection of female bishops by the General Synod in November 2012, Welby spoke of a "Very grim day, most of all for women priests and supporters".

Rabbi Menachem Mendel Schneerson

(5 April 1902 OS to 12 June 1994)

The last Lubavitcher Rebbe was an Orthodox Jewish rabbi born in the Russian Empire and immigrated to America. Jewish and Marxist media openly promote this creature as a fervent 'humanitarian'.

However, with an international network of over 3000 indoctrination centres as leader of the Chabad-Lubavitch movement Schneerson's real vocation was the perversion, violation and destruction of Europeans. Schneerson had a lifetime of vicious, anti-Gentile writing and his Movement has always equated Gentiles as part of the animal kingdom. In his writing he stated that,

"The difference between a Jewish and a non-Jewish person stems from the common expression: "Let us differentiate." Thus, we do not have a case of profound change in which a person is merely on a superior level. Rather, we have a case of "let us differentiate" between totally different species.

This is what needs to be said about the body: the body of a Jewish person is of a totally different quality from the body of [members] of all nations of the world ...

{p. 60}...However, is so great that the bodies should be considered as completely different species.

This is the reason why the Talmud states that there is an halachic difference in attitude about the bodies of non-Jews [as opposed to the bodies of Jews] " "their bodies are in vain."

An even greater difference exists in regard to the soul. Two contrary types of soul exist, a non-Jewish soul comes from three satanic spheres, while the Jewish soul stems from holiness.

Schneerson died at the Beth Israel Medical Centre on June 12th 1994. Yet according to the Jewish Telegraph Agency (JTA) of June 27th 2006 he along with Rabbi Ginsberg was honoured at the White House. Confirming that Schneerson's destructive Jewish influence in America and Western Europe remains a strangle hold.

Cyrus Ingerson Scofield

(19 Aug 1843 to 24 July 1921)

Was an American conman, criminal, pseudo-theologian made infamous for annotating a tool of Zionist indoctrination called the Scofield Bible for fundamentalist Christians.

Scofield was born in Clinton Township, Lenawee County, Michigan, the seventh and last child of Elias and Abigail Goodrich Scofield. The 17-year-old Scofield enlisted as a private in the 7th Tennessee Infantry. Later Scofield deserted and escaped behind Union lines in Bowling Green, Kentucky. After taking the Union oath of allegiance, Scofield was allowed safe passage to St. Louis, Missouri, where he settled. In 1866, he married Leontine LeBeau Cerrè, a member of a prominent French Catholic family in St. Louis.

As a young con-artist in Kansas in 1873 Scofield met up with John J. Ingalls, an aging Jewish lawyer/senator. Pulling strings both in Kansas and with his compatriots back east, Ingalls assisted Scofield in gaining admission to the Bar and procured his appointment as the federal attorney for Kansas. Scofield committed perjury when he took his oath, stating that he had never voluntarily borne arms against the United States. He was forced to resign after six months because of questionable financial transactions including accepting bribes from railroads, stealing political contributions and securing bank promissory notes by forging signatures.

Scofield was jailed on forgery charges though there is no extant evidence in the public records. In 1877, Scofield had deserted his first wife and his two daughters and left them destitute. Joseph Canfield asserts:

“The very sudden quashing of the criminal charges without proper adjudication suggests that Scofield’s career was in the hands of someone who had clout never available to either Ingalls, Pomeroy, or anyone of the Choteau Clan. But, the career was to be of such a nature that Leontine, the Catholic wife, had to go.” Scofield’s Jewish supporters kept his background secret for a long time in order to make him a licensed minister of the Gospel. The only biography his life is a collection of “Sunday School” articles by Charles G. Trumbull.

Published into a book, The Life Story of C.I. Scofield in 1920 by the Oxford Press, it is the official “white wash” to clean up Scofield for future generations. It contains many inaccuracies, including a “conversion” story that happens, not in jail, but at a law office that did not even exist at the time.

Consequently Scofield was ordained in October 1883 as a Congregationalist minister and was asked to be a pastor at a church in Northfield, MA in 1895. In 1901, Scofield was offered a membership in the Lotus Club of New York, a prestigious club in the literary circles of the United States catering to non-Christians and requiring an invite and sponsor

It was here that he presented his ideas for a new Christian Bible concordance, and was taken under the wing of Samuel Untermyer a Jewish lawyer, fanatical Zionist activist and agent of the Rothschild banking cartel. Untermyer introduced Scofield to numerous Jewish Zionist leaders including Samuel Gompers, Fiorello LaGuardia, Abraham Straus, Bernard Baruch and Jacob Schiff from whom he received financial backing for his trips to Oxford and publication and distribution of his concordance.

Jacob Frank

(1726 – 10 Dec 1791)

Was an 18th-century Jewish religious leader who claimed to be the reincarnation of the self-proclaimed ‘messiah’ Sabbatai Zevi and also of the biblical patriarch Jacob. Born Jakub Lejbowicz to a Jewish family in Korołówka, in Podolia of Eastern Poland (now in Ukraine), in about 1726. His father was a Sabbatean, and moved to Czernowitz, in the Carpathian region of Bukovina in 1730, where the Sabbatean influence at the time was strong. In the early 1750s Frank formed a network between the Donme in Ottoman territories and Sabbatean followers in Podolia using the guise of a traveling merchant or preacher as cover.

Like Zevi almost a century before the Jewish community made a very public show of disassociating themselves from Frank and his followers (excommunicated).

Then just as Zevi and his followers had infiltrated Islamic territory, in 1759 so called ‘Frankists’ (followers of Frank) would to be baptised into the Roman Catholic Church. Frank himself was baptized in Lwów on September 17th, that year.

Nevertheless, just as the Donmè secretly continuing Jewish observances, the Frankists continued to be viewed with suspicion due to their strange doctrines. Frank was arrested in Warsaw on February 6th, 1760 and delivered to the Church’s tribunal on the charge of heresy. He was convicted of teaching heresy, and imprisoned in the monastery of Częstochowa.

Rabbi

While proposed as a teacher of the Torah, Rabbi derived from Hebrew meaning 'my master' has a much more subversive role. Politically motivated and educated as regulator and judge a Rabbi is the figure who connects and leads Jewish communities globally. It is also disturbing that it is the Rabbis who pass sentence in their court (Beth Din) to multiple cases of gentile murder across the globe.

In fact Benjamin Netanyahu has blatantly declared the Jewish international right to lord it over the gentile when he took an oath to punish Syrian individuals for attacking an ISIS faction saying that no one will be allowed to take law in their hands and any disturbance in the mission of Israeli soldiers will not be tolerated. This only proves that the Jew does not recognise the Gentile sovereign/national land but has thechutzpah to believe that it rules the globe.

Meir Katzenellenbogen

Meir ben Isaac Katzenellenbogen (c. 1482 – 12th January 1565) (also, Meir of Padua, or Maharam Padua) was a Jewish rabbi born in Katzenelnbogen, the name of a castle and small city in the district of Rhein-Lahn-Kreis in Rhineland-Palatinate, Prussia-Brandenburg now known as Germany. He went on to found the 'Katzenellenbogen' family a Jewish clan who seized German identity by assuming the name of a German town. By 1549 Katzenellenbogen was already practicing dialectical strategy calculated to frame Europeans.

As today Jews operated under the patronage of a non-Jewish owner. Consequently, any problems the non-Jewish owner would bear the brunt and Jewish anonymity is maintained. Katzenellenbogen's strategy was to arrange a dispute over the publication of a printed edition of Maimonides' Mishneh Torah.

He edited a printed edition of the Mishneh Torah to be published by the European owned Bragadini press. In typical dialectical fashion Jews operating the rival Giustiniani press printed a pirate copy allowing Katzenellenbogen to appeal to his relative Moses Isserles, who replied that the Giustiniani edition violated the prohibition on Hasogas gevul, interfering with another person's livelihood.

Thus the Giustiniani edition was 'denounced' by the Jewish community and Katzenellenbogen made calls to the non-Jewish European owners to recall the offending titles. This culminated in the apparent mass burning of volumes of the Talmud and other Jewish works in the Venetian Republic now used by Jews as an example of European 'anti-Semitism'. Notable descendants of Katzenellenbogen are Karl Marx, Julius Klein and the Rothschild family.

Alfred Walter Frank Blunt

(1879–1957)

Was an Anglican bishop. He was the second Bishop of Bradford from 1931 to 1955 and is best known for a speech that led to the abdication of King Edward VIII. Blunt later declared himself a lifelong communist. Blunt was the younger son in the second marriage of Captain F. T. Blunt (died 1881) of the British colonial service.

He was born in Saint-Malo, France where he was brought up before his mother returned the family to England in 1887. Blunt was ordained deacon in 1904 and priest in 1905 serving as a licensed preacher until 1907, when he became curate at Carrington, Nottingham, an industrial parish. He became its perpetual curate, or vicar, in 1909. In 1917 Blunt moved to Derby, to be Vicar of St Werburgh's, another industrial parish. While in Derby he became a friend of J. H. Thomas, trade unionist, Labour Member of Parliament and future cabinet minister already exposing his political none neutrality.

Then from the time of the general strike of 1926 Blunt was an overt member of the Labour Party. He later advocated Communism openly revealing his ideological agenda and exposing the Labour Party as a Communist front. Blunt's speech was made to his diocesan conference on 1st December 1936 and was a coordinated effort between him and the media to oust a King that had recently shown his sympathies towards National Socialism. Eight days later, under the guise of impropriety, King Edward VIII abdicated.

Menasseh Ben Israel

Manoel Dias Soeiro (1604–20 Nov 1657), better known as Menasseh ben Israel was a Jewish agitator, rabbi, kabbalist, founder of the first Jewish printing press in Amsterdam and most infamous for telling Oliver Cromwell that a readmission of Jews to England would make the nation richer and lead to the imminent return of Jesus Christ. Ben Israel was born on Madeira Island in 1604, with the name Manoel Dias Soeiro.

A year later his parents left mainland Portugal in one of many Jewish global expansions (see Pogrom) making an opportune move to the Netherlands in 1610 while it was in upheaval. The Netherlands was in the middle of a process of religious revolt against Catholic Spanish rule throughout the Eighty Years War (1568–1648). Consequently, Amsterdam became the Jewish centre of operations in Europe at this time.

As well as a rabbi, Ben Israel also became an author and printer, founding the first Jewish propaganda machine (named Emeth Meerets Titsma`h) in Holland, Amsterdam in 1626 from which his later corrupt writings would churn. Ben Israel's financial situation improved in Amsterdam with the arrival of two Jewish entrepreneurs, the brothers Abraham and Isacc Pereyra.

They hired Ben Israel to direct a small Yeshivah they had founded in the city. While this served as an ideal propaganda hub Ben Israel's prime agenda was the occupation of Jews throughout the world. However, unlike the pogrom strategy his method was to convince the Christian population that Jewish global seizure would hasten the coming of Christ.

In 1644, Ben Israel met Antonio de Montezinos, a Marrano Sephardic Jew who used Jewish propaganda to speculate that the South American Andes Indians were the descendants of the lost ten tribes of Israel.

This gave Ben Israel the impetus to turn his attentions to England where, with the expulsion of Jews by Edward I in 1290 the Domus Conversorum (House of the Converts) established in 1232 became the only way for Jews to remain in the country. Yet their crypto status did not hamper their machinations and in 1594 secret Jew Dr Rodrigo Lopez physician to Queen Elizabeth I, was executed for plotting her murder.

Nevertheless, Jewish agent Ben Israel worked hard to assert Jewish power and position; convincing Cromwell that a 'readmission' of Jews to England would make the nation richer and lead to the imminent return of Jesus Christ. The chief aim of Ben Israel's writing's was to back up his messianic claims and ingratiate a corrupt alien tribe into Europe and the world. He died at Middelberg in the Netherlands in the winter of 1657.

Vatican II

The Second Vatican Council (Latin: Concilium Oecumenicum Vaticanum Secundum, informally known as Vatican II) formally opened under the pontificate of Pope John XXIII on 11 Oct 1962 and closed under Pope Paul VI on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception in 1965.

This was presented to the public as simply the Catholic Church wishing to "speak more directly to the modern world" and indeed following the council there was an influx of modern changes many of which remain divisive among the Catholic faithful including but not restricted to the widespread use of vernacular languages in the Mass, subtle disuse of ornate clerical regalia, revision of Eucharistic prayers, abbreviation of the liturgical calendar, and modern aesthetic changes encompassing contemporary Catholic liturgical music and artwork.

However, this was merely a distraction for the real agenda of the Second Vatican Council was to disconnect the Catholic Church from its steady foundations that manifest as dogma. The consequence is that the least capable, most easily corruptible or outright degenerate are promoted as candidates to qualify for priesthood.

The reality is the Catholic Church had been the enemy of the Jew for 2000 years and many Popes will support this fact. Yet in 1938 Marxist infiltration would begin to curb the independence of the Roman Catholic Church and critically support moves made at Vatican II. Indeed a statement from Nostra Aetate ('In our times') on the Jews 'attested' that Christ, his mother and the apostles were Jews, that the church had its origin in the Old Testament and denied that the Jews may be held collectively responsible for Jesus Christ's death.

This only confirms that the documents of Vatican II are a complete reversal of previous Papal Bulls and is a clear demonstration of a change in leadership.

THE SOCIETY OF SAINT PIUS X (SSPX)

The Society of Saint Pius X (SSPX) was a true Catholic organisation, founded in 1970 by the French archbishop Marcel Lefebvre in reaction to Vatican II. Initially appointed by Pope John XXIII to the Central Preparatory Commission for this Council but obviously purposely eclipsed it is clear that Lefebvre did not realise at the time the far reaching ramifications of this Council.

While presented to the public as simply the Catholic Church wishing to “speak more directly to the modern world” and indeed following the council there was an influx of modern changes this was merely a distraction for the real agenda of the Second Vatican Council was to disconnect the Catholic Church from its steady foundations that manifest as dogma. Consequently when Lefebvre founded SSPX it was to confirm the foundations of traditional Catholic dogma and it would only return to Rome when it would reaffirm dogma.

However, since his death in 1991 its current leader Bernard Fellay has been in discussion with Rome though it has shown no signs of consenting to SSPX. Since then some would say the only trusted members have left or in Bishop Williamson’s case been forced out of the organisation which only indicates that SSPX has been compromised.

BETH DIN

While purported to be merely a religious court of Judaism the Beth din being a rabbinical court is much more sinister than it sounds. Politically motivated and educated as regulator and judge a Rabbi is the figure who networks and leads Jewish communities globally. Thus the court or Beth din can be arranged in any city were a Jewish Rabbi can pass sentence.

This has led to multiple cases of gentile murder across the globe and occurs despite national law. Indeed Benjamin Netanyahu has blatantly declared the Jewish international right to lord it over the gentile when he took an oath to punish Syrian individuals for attacking an ISIS faction saying that no one will be allowed to take [international] law in their hands and any disturbance in the mission of Israeli soldiers will not be tolerated. This only proves that the Jew does not recognise Gentile sovereign/national land but has the chutzpah to believe that it rules the globe.

YESHIVA MILITARY SCHOOLS

Yeshiva (plural yeshivot or yeshivos, lit., “sitting”) is generally regarded as a Jewish educational institution that focuses on the study of traditional religious texts, primarily the Talmud and the Torah, however just as the faith is a front for political subversion their study focuses on propaganda and terror. Particularly in Jewish occupied Palestine the Yeshiva are Zionist propaganda hothouses and are aggressively recruiting students for a militant and tyrannical occupation.

EDUCATION

The education of Europeans by Europeans is paramount because it will produce a generation that is secure in its identity. This security stems from the awareness of being part of a distinct, persisting racial group with a duty to extend its history and culture into the future.

However, those outside the racial group are not interested in the persistence of the European genome and the enemy has a vested interest in the destruction of the European. Thus with the infiltration of the Jew into European education institutions European history has been largely replaced by pseudo-courses pandering to imports and were it is taught European history is twisted and inverted. Moreover, outside home and church, school is the primary purveyor of moral guidance, which in the hands of Jews teaches homosexuality, paedophilia and miscegenation as normal.

Cambridge University

The University of Cambridge (informally Cambridge University or simply Cambridge) founded in 1209 in Cambridge, England is the second-oldest university in the English-speaking world and the world's fourth-oldest surviving university. Like Oxford it is consistently ranked as one of the world's best universities and can claim such great students as Sir Isaac Newton. However, during the 1930's the university was infiltrated by Jewish Bolshevik espionage agencies and close-knit left-wing homosexual circles that blatantly encouraged that sort of proclivity in order to compromise future positions gained by students.

While outwardly there was no loss of regard the scandal of the Cambridge spies is testament to the Jewish Bolshevik corruption. The current Chancellor of the University is David John Sainsbury Jewish chair of supermarket chain Sainsbury's and life peer in the House of Lords and a member of the Labour Party. As a result of this the statement that paedophilia is "natural and normal" was made in July 2013 as one of the central claims of an academic presentation delivered, at the invitation of the organisers, to many of the key experts in the field at a conference held by this University.

The University of Oxford

Informally Oxford University or simply Oxford in Oxford, England is the oldest university in the English-speaking world and the world's second-oldest surviving university. While having no known date of foundation, there is evidence of teaching as far back as 1096 making it the oldest university in the English-speaking world. Like Cambridge it is consistently ranked as one of the world's best universities and can claim such great students as Laurence of Arabia (T.E. Laurence). However, Oxford University and its publishing house is intimately involved with "The Scofield Reference Bible" having owned it from the beginning.

This is confirmed by its copyright. Through an introduction by Jewish lawyer Samuel Untermyer Scofield received financial backing from numerous Jewish Zionist leaders including Samuel Gompers, Fiorello LaGuardia, Abraham Straus, Bernard Baruch and Jacob Schiff for his trips to Oxford and publication and distribution of his concordance. In publishing The Life Story of C.I. Scofield in 1920 the Oxford University Press is also responsible for suppressing Scofield's criminal past.

SECURITY

Security refers to the apparatus of defence, protection and safety set in place by the authority whether that is native or occupier. This also extends to the external system of intelligence gathering and if native is in the interests of the host population. However, if it is set in place by the occupier it is to maintain their position and fearing the loss to the territory's true inhabitants they brutally oppress the indigenous people. The outcome is a corrupt, oppressive and tyrannical regime.

SECRET SERVICE

Secret Service is the intelligence gathering aspect of security. Involving espionage it was always understood to be a rather distasteful aspect in European circles. However, a gentleman's code of conduct existed this was until the Jew entered the scene.

Peter Hayman

Sir Peter Telford Hayman KCMG CVO MBE (14 June 1914 to 9 April 1992) was a Paedophilic British Diplomat, Intelligence Operative And Deputy Director Of MI6. In 1981, Hayman was named in the House of Commons as a paedophile by Geoffrey Dickens MP. In October 1978 Hayman's flat at 95 Linden Gardens, Notting Hill Gate London to which his official PIE literature and graphic correspondence with fellow paedophiles was sent was revealed.

Rented under the name of Peter Henderson, the flat was also almost across the road from the Bolshevik embassy giving Hayman plenty of opportunity to act as a double agent. 1981, using parliamentary privilege, MP Geoffrey Dickens asked why Hayman had not been prosecuted, with Dickens saying:

“How did such a potential blackmail risk come to hold highly sensitive posts at the MOD and NATO?” In 1984, Hayman was convicted for an act of gross indecency in a public lavatory though it does not state the age of the child involved.

On 30th January 2015, it was revealed that a file was found in the National Archives titled “SECURITY. Sir Peter Hayman: allegations against former public official of unnatural sexual proclivities; security aspects”. One document within the file relates to the briefing given to ex-Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher concerning Hayman’s perverted urges relating to children. Another document stated that Hayman was vulnerable to blackmail by foreign powers because of his “sexual perversion”.

Sidney Reilly

Sidney George Reilly (c. 1870 c. 1880 c. 1925), was a Jewish secret agent employed by the British Secret Service Bureau, the precursor to the modern British Secret Intelligence Service (MI6/SIS). labelled the so-called “Ace of Spies” and the model for Ian Fleming’s ‘quintessentially English’ James Bond character according to the Ukrainian newspaper Segodnya, Reilly was born Zigmund or Salomon (Shlomo) Markovich Rozenblum (Rosenblum) on 24th March 1874 in Odessa, then a Black Sea port of the Russian Empire.

His father was a Jewish stockbroker and shipping agent, while his mother came from an impoverished noble family. Giles Milton, however who has researched his early life asserts that “Both his parents were Jewish” the illegitimate son of Polina (or “Perla”), his acknowledged mother, and Dr Mikhail Abramovich Rosenblum, the trusted first cousin of Reilly’s putative father, Grigory (Hersh) Rosenblum.

In 1896 a year before the first Zionist congress, Reilly was recruited by Superintendent William Melville for the émigré intelligence network of Scotland Yard’s Special Branch. In 1899 he became ‘Sidney George Reilly’ by receiving a passport from Melville in that name, though he never legally adopted it or became a British subject.

‘Reilly’ was the number one agent for the British intelligence network at least 10 years prior to the foundation of the British Secret Service Bureau, which was founded in 1909 and through his close relationship with Melville, Reilly would be employed as a secret agent for the Secret Service Bureau in 1909. He was also alleged to have spied for at least three other powers-Japan, Russia and Germany.

While espionage was always understood to be rather distasteful in European circles a gentleman's code of conduct existed. Consequently, it was this foreign element with no loyalty to the Empire or European morality that corrupted the secret service from the beginning and it was Winston Churchill who supported Reilly's recruitment into MI6. Melville's own section continued as a separate Special Section.

The endeavour to depose the Bolshevik Government and assassinate Vladimir Lenin is considered by biographers to be Reilly's most daring scheme. The Lockhart Plot, or more accurately the Reilly Plot, has sparked debate over the years: Did the Allies launch a clandestine operation to overthrow the Bolsheviks? If so, did the Cheka uncover the plot at the eleventh hour or had they unmasked the conspirators from the outset? Certain historians have suggested that the Cheka orchestrated the whole conspiracy from the onset concluding that Reilly was a Bolshevik agent provocateur.

On 30th August, a military cadet shot and killed Moisei Uritsky, head of the Petrograd Cheka. On the same day an almost blind Fanya Kaplan, curiously avoiding execution for her infamous involvement in the attempted assassination of Prime Minister Stolypin and murder of 28 others including Stolypin's 15-year-old daughter 12 years previous, shot and wounded Lenin as he left a meeting at the Michelson factory in Moscow. Conveniently, these events were used by the Cheka to implicate any malcontents in a grand conspiracy and warrant a full-scale campaign-the "Red Terror". The Cheka seized and executed thousands of political opponents including those involved in Reilly's pending coup using lists supplied by undercover agents. British intelligence documents released in 2000 state that Reilly was executed in a forest near Moscow on Wednesday 5th November 1925.

According to eyewitness Boris Gudz, the execution of Sidney Reilly was supervised by an OGPU (secret police) officer, Grigory Feduleev; another OGPU officer, George Syroezhkin, fired the final shot into Reilly's chest. Gudz also confirmed that the order to kill Reilly came from Stalin directly. However, there still exist rumours about Reilly's survival. For example, there is speculation that Reilly defected and became an adviser to Soviet intelligence making the British intelligence documents a cover-up.

In fact only a year prior to Reilly's 'death' in 1924 he was implicated in a Jewish Bolshevik conspiracy to drive Great Britain into Communist revolution through its Labour Party. He delivered the Zinoviev Letter written by the Jew Grigory Zinoviev that overtly garnered support and rallied for revolution "in the armed forces" against the British nation. Yet when all out Communist revolution was not achieved 70 years of Jewish propaganda imply a forgery, indicative of the Protocols of the Elders of Zion and an absurd plot by the Bolshevik Government (Comintern-Communist International) to bring down the British Labour Party.

Yet even a quote from Christopher Andrew, the author of Secret Service: The Making of the British Intelligence Community (1985): "A copy of the Russian version of the letter [was] discovered in... Reilly's handwriting, and there can scarcely have been another past or present SIS agent with so few scruples about exploiting it"; emphasising the lack of scruples and knowing his tribe explicitly directs what sort of machinations Reilly was deeply involved in. Therefore, a feigned death in Russia would be a neat way to tie up the loose ends of a cover-up.

Julius Klein

Julius Klein (1901–1984) was a Jewish spy, journalist, business executive and general in the United States Army. Born to a Jewish family Klein is a descendant of Rabbi Meir Katzenellenbogen. After serving as a spy in Germany in World War I, Klein began his civilian career in the 1920s as a criminal reporter.

He initiated the first German language propaganda broadcasts in the United States, and later worked as Hollywood executive. In 1933 Klein joined the Illinois National Guard, becoming a lieutenant colonel in 1941. He formulated the Combat Public Relations plan dealing with psychological warfare and propaganda. In 1947, Klein was elected the National Commander of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America.

On April 4th 1948, as National Commander of the Jewish War Veterans, Klein organized a JWV Zionist parade down New York's Fifth Avenue. His agitation highlighted the United States pro-Jewish stance and by May, 1948 Palestine had been handed to the Jews who called their terrorist occupation 'the state of Israel'. Klein would then become an international lobbyist implementing the theft of millions from Europeans using the Holocaust construct.

One of General Klein's principal clients was the F"orderkreis f"ur Deutsch-Amerikanische Zusammenarbeit (Society for German-American Cooperation), a Wiesbaden-based alliance of Jewish bankers and industrialists that is subsidized by the Jewish occupied West German Government. During 1966 and 1967 alone Klein was raising up to $150,000 a year through this group.

ESPIONAGE

Following the seizure of Russia by Jewish Bolshevism in 1917 the Jewish weapon of Communism had a headquarters from which to coordinate its plans for ethnic European genocide. Marxist spies, some duped gentiles but mostly Jews similar to the modern day Sayanim, were recruited by Jewish Bolshevik agents in many nations to supply the regime with Europe's official secrets.

Morris and Lona Cohen

Morris Cohen (2 July 1910 to 23 June 1995) of the Kohanim line and Leontine Theresa "Lona" Cohen (11 Jan 1913 to 23 Dec 1992) were Jews convicted of espionage for the Soviet construct part of the Portland Spy Ring which operated in England from the late 1950s until 1961. Cohen was born in New York City to Jewish immigrants. His father was from an area near Kiev in present-day Ukraine, and his mother was born in Vilnius in present-day Lithuania. In 1937, Cohen joined the Mackenzie-Papineau Battalion and fought as a foreign national volunteer in the Spanish Civil War with compatriot Amadeo Sabatini, veteran and career Bolshevik spy.

Cohen was injured and in November 1938 returned to the United States where he began serving Soviet foreign intelligence. In 1941, Cohen married Lona an activist in the Communist Party USA recruiting her into Bolshevik espionage in 1939. Lona was part of a ring of atomic spies linked to the Manhattan Project that was far more damaging than the well-known Rosenberg ring.

Sidney Stanley

Sidney (or Sydney) Stanley (né Solomon Wulkan, alias Solomon Koszyski, alias Stanley Rechtdand, later Schlomo ben Chaim) (1899/1905 to 1969) was an illegal Jewish immigrant to the UK via Poland. His dubious activities formed the principal basis for allegations of corruption among British government ministers and civil servants leading to the Lynskey tribunal of 1948. Just prior in November 1947 an MI5 report recorded that cabinet minister Manny Shinwell had been passing information to a man named "Stanley" for Zionist terrorist group Irgun. Though there were no prosecutions, the enquiry resulted in ministerial resignations.

Cambridge Spies

The Cambridge five spy ring refers to the Jewish Bolshevik's espionage agencies infiltration of the UK's government, military and education establishments from the 1930s by using, among other things, close-knit left-wing homosexual circles at Oxbridge, especially the Cambridge Apostles. Kim Philby started at Trinity in October 1929, Guy Burgess in October 1930, and Donald Maclean at Trinity Hall in 1931. Anthony Blunt was elected to a Trinity fellowship in 1932. Burgess and Blunt have been confirmed as homosexuals, while Philby's first wife was the Jewish Communist Litzi Friedmann. Mainstream sources accept the fact that Philby and Burgess were recruited for the KGB in 1934 by a Jew Arnold Deutsch (Code name Otto).

Blunt was also recruited by the NKVD around 1933-4 at least a year following his election to a Trinity fellowship. The 5th man was considered to be Victor Rothschild also at Trinity, recruited Blunt into MI5 and “made sure Russia’s scientists had the basics of every secret project from biological warfare to radar and the various types of potential nuclear bomb.” While this information is supported by ex-KGB Colonel ‘F’ and KGB officer Yuri Modin both who confirmed Victor Rothschild was the key to most of the Cambridge ring’s penetration of British Intelligence the utmost has been done to disregard this as a hoax.

Julius and Ethel Rosenberg

Julius Rosenberg (12 May 1918 to 19 June 1953) and Ethel Greenglass Rosenberg (25 Sept 1915 to 19 June 1953) were Communist Jews in the United States who received international attention when they were executed after spying for the Bolshevik regime.

Julius Rosenberg was born to a family of Jewish immigrants in New York City on May 12th, 1918. Julius became a leader in the Young Communist League where, in 1936, he met Ethel, whom he married three years later. Ethel Greenglass was born on September 25th, 1915, in New York City, also to a Jewish family. She was an aspiring actress and singer, but eventually took a secretarial job at a shipping company.

She became involved in labour disputes and joined the Young Communist League, USA, where she met Julius. According to his former NKVD handler, lifelong Communist Alexandre Feklisov, Julius Rosenberg was originally recruited by the KGB on Labour Day 1942, by NKVD spymaster the Jew Semyon Semenov. Feklisov was in fact covering the role of the Jew Jacob Golos, who in 1942 passed the cell of young Communist engineers headed by Julius Rosenberg into direct contact with Bolshevik operatives in New York.

It was Golos who activated Gold in early 1940. After Semenov was recalled to Moscow in 1944, his duties were taken over by his apprentice, Feklisov. Julius Rosenberg recommended his sister-in-law Ruth Greenglass to his NKVD superiors for the use of her apartment as a safe house for photography, the NKVD realized that David was working on the Manhattan Project. David Greenglass was then recruited into Bolshevik espionage by his wife at Rosenberg’s behest. Julius Rosenberg was relieved of his duties by the NKVD after government officials had discovered his membership in the Communist Party and fired him from the United States Signal Corps. Greenglass provided testimony that helped convict his sister and brother-in-law Ethel and Julius Rosenberg.

David Greenglass

David Greenglass (2 Mar 1922 to 1 July 2014) was an atomic spy for the Bolsheviks. He provided testimony that helped convict his sister and brother-in-law Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, who were executed for their spying activity. Greenglass was born in 1922 in the Lower East Side of Manhattan.

His parents, Barnet and Tessie, were Jewish immigrants from Russia and Austria, respectively. Greenglass married Ruth Printz in 1942, when she was 18 years old. The two joined the Young Communist League shortly before Greenglass entered the U.S. Army in 1943.

After Julius Rosenberg recommended his sister-in-law Ruth Greenglass to his NKVD superiors for the use of her apartment as a safe house for photography, the NKVD realized that David was working on the Manhattan Project. David Greenglass was then recruited into Bolshevik espionage by his wife at Rosenberg's behest.

Julius Rosenberg was relieved of his duties by the NKVD after government officials had discovered his membership in the Communist Party and fired him from the United States Signal Corps. David began to pass nuclear secrets to the Bolshevik Regime via Bolshevik courier Harry Gold and more directly with a Bolshevik official in New York City. Greenglass was a spy for about two years, from November 1944 until he left the military in 1946. Greenglass was sentenced to 15 years in prison. He was released after only nine and a half years.

Harry Gold

Harry Gold (December 11, 1910 – August 28, 1972) was a laboratory chemist who was convicted of being the courier for a number of Bolshevik spy rings. Gold was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Jewish immigrants from Russia. As a young man he was interested in Marxism which eventually led him to contacts within the Communist movement.

Gold was recruited by the Bolsheviks in 1935. He was activated by the Jew Jacob Golos in early 1940 though not recruited into the rezidentura or resident spies the early version of Sayanim, until late 1940 by Jewish Bolshevik Case Officer Semyon Semenov. Semenov remained Gold's control officer until March 1944.

After his arrest Gold admitted that he had been involved in espionage since 1934 and had helped pass information to the Bolsheviks. Gold was sentenced in 1951 to thirty years imprisonment and was paroled in May 1965, after serving just under half of his sentence.

Jacob Golos

Jacob Golos, (born Yakov Naumovich Reizen, 1889–1943), was a Jewish Bolshevik terrorist who became a spy on behalf of the Bolshevik Regime in the United States. A founding member of the Communist Party of the United States of America (CPUSA), around 1930 Golos became involved in the covert work of Bolshevik secret policing agencies, including the procurement of American passports by means of fraudulent documentation and the recruitment and coordination of the activities of a broad network of agents.

Yakov Naumovich Reizen was born April 24th, 1889, in Ekaterinoslav, Russian Empire, now Dnipropetrovsk in Ukraine, to a Jewish family.

A terrorist from a young age, Reizen joined the Russian Social Democratic Labour Party (RSDLP) in 1904, becoming active in the group's Bolshevik wing headed by V.I. Lenin. Reizen was a participant in the attempted seizure of Russia in 1905 and organized a subversive printing press in 1906 for which he was arrested and convicted in the last days of that year.

A sentence of eight years of hard labour was commuted to lifetime exile to Yakutia in northern Siberia by the civilised government of Tsar Nikolai II. Reizen escaped by fleeing to the east, traveling to America by way of China and then through Japan at some point adopting the surname "Golos." By 1912, Golos had found his way to New York City, where he helped to raise funds for Jewish terrorist imprisoned in Russia. Golos was active in the Russian Socialist Federation a movement whose sole purpose was the promotion of Bolshevism by any means necessary.

Towards the end of August 1919 Golos was elected to the Central Executive Committee of the Russian Federation by the organization's 5th Convention, held in Detroit. Immediately after the close of the Detroit gathering, Golos travelled to Chicago to attend another convention which established the Communist Party of America, forerunner of the Communist Party, USA. Golos was also intimately connected with the United States organisation of a Communist Party-sponsored travel agency called World Tourists, Inc established in the year 1927.

Appearing as an innocent economic venture the firm instigated farcical propaganda tours to Bolshevik controlled Europe coordinated to omit the truth and served as a mechanism for facilitating the transit of party officials and Bolshevik agents back and forth between the Bolshevik Regime and the USA under falsified documentation. Throughout the 1930s Golos sat as a member of the CPUSA's Central Control Commission, a body in charge of party discipline, background investigations, and audits.

This position placed Golos in an enviable position to assist in the recruitment and verification of potential agents on behalf of Bolshevik intelligence. As head of World Tourists, Golos visited the Bolshevik Regime every year from 1932 onwards to attend the celebrations of the Bolshevik seizure of Russia in 1917. In 1942, Golos transferred a Communist cell of engineers headed by Julius Rosenberg into the direct contact with Soviet intelligence operatives in New York.

HEALTH

Health is a broad area that encompasses a wide variety of interconnected matters. Particularly large spheres are food and hygiene pertaining both to personal care and household cleanliness. The key issue linking this arena is chemical poisoning and genetic manipulation stemming from the practices of Jewish multinationals like Monsanto. Also linked within the realms of chemical and genetic manipulation is the area of medical intervention with preventative and palliative pharmaceutical care.

This encompasses childhood vaccination suspected in causing autism and chemical birth control waste environmental build-up of which is now believed to cause gender identity issues in children.

FOOD

Like hygiene food is a wide area with a lot of interlinking issues. This stems from the deliberate chemical poisoning and genetic manipulation not contained to processed food stuffs that is practiced by Jewish multinationals the likes of Monsanto. Subsidiaries of such are also responsible for chemical fertilisers and pesticides that are actively destroying traditional farming and personnel allotments through mass soil contamination.

Salt

Added to road and food grade salt as an anticaking agent, Sodium ferrocyanide, also known as yellow prussiate of soda, is a chemical additive known as E 535 in the EU. When combined with iron, it converts to a deep blue pigment called Prussian blue the same colour of walls exposed to the cyanide based gas trademark Zyklon B invented by the Jew Fritz Haber.

HYGIENE

Like food hygiene is a wide area with a lot of interlinking issues. Hygiene covers the whole spectrum of personal care and household cleanliness and therefore covers many products and ranges. Nevertheless, the key issue stems from the deliberate chemical poisoning and genetic manipulation that is practiced by Jewish multinationals the likes of Unilever. It is critical to note here that Unilever performs the function of an umbrella group that merely buys out company's (brands) then inserts their agenda.

PHARMACEUTICALS

Subsidiaries of Jewish multinationals like Monsanto, Rothschild and Goldman Sachs pharmaceutical companies are preventative and palliative medical intervention and lie within the realms of chemical and genetic manipulation. This encompasses childhood vaccination suspected in causing autism and chemical birth control, environmental build-up of which is now believed to cause gender identity issues in children. Pharmaceutical waste also courses tremendous cost to the environment and public health as soil contamination brings it right back into the food chain.

Polio Vaccine

According to American historian William O'Neill, "Paralytic poliomyelitis (its formal name) was, if not the most serious, easily the most frightening public health problem of the post war era." During 1916 in the United States 27,363 cases of polio were counted. New York alone had 9,023 cases, of which 2,448 (28%) resulted in death. However by 1952 nearly 58,000 cases of polio were reported an increase of well over double in a mere 36 year period with 3,145 people usually children dying and 21,269 left with disabling paralysis.

Cases usually increased during the summer when children were home from school. "The public reaction was to a plague," noted O'Neill. "Citizens of urban areas were to be terrified every summer when this frightful visitor returned." Transmitted by fecal matter the attraction of Jews to polio research is understandable, however serendipitous is 3 Jewish virologists Hilary Koprowski, Jonas Salk and Albert Sabin, and all spontaneously developing a vaccine during the same period.

Albert Sabin

Albert Bruce Sabin (26 Aug 1906 to 3 Mar 1993) was a Jewish medical researcher and virologist, best known for developing the oral polio vaccine which has played a key role in nearly eradicating the disease.

Sabin was born in Białystok, then part of the Russian Empire, to Ashkenazi Jewish parents, Jacob Saperstein and Tillie Krugman. In 1922, he immigrated with his family to America. In 1930, he became a naturalized citizen of the United States and changed his name to Sabin, as well as assuming the middle name Bruce. Sabin received a medical degree from New York University in 1931 and in 1934 joined the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research (now Rockefeller University). During this time, he developed an intense interest in infectious diseases. By 1946, Sabin had become the head of Pediatric Research at the University of Cincinnati.

Sabin went to Cuba in 1967 and was in close discussion with Cuban officials in spite of their country's 'apparently' diametrically opposed politics. Less than 2 years later between 1969–72, he was living and working in Jewish occupied Palestine as the President of Weizmann Institute of Science in Rehovot.

Jonas Salk

Jonas Edward Salk (28 Oct 1914 to 23 June 1995) was a Jewish virologist most infamous for contaminating his newly discovered polio vaccine with SV-40 virus and infecting millions of American children. Jonas Edward Salk was born in New York City to Ashkenazi Jewish parents, Daniel and Dora (née Press) Salk. Completing his postgraduate work in virology Salk was immediately attracted to the polio virus, as it is transmitted by fecal matter a fascinating substance for the Jew. Consequently in 1948 he undertook a project funded by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to determine the number of different types of polio virus.

Hilary Koprowski

Hilary Koprowski (5 Dec 1916 to 11 April 2013) was a Jewish virologist and immunologist active in the United States responsible for concealing the AIDS pandemic in live polio vaccines he had devised.

Koprowski was born in Warsaw to a Jewish family. Following WWII Koprowski settled in Pearl River, New York, where he was hired as a researcher for Lederle Laboratories, the pharmaceutical division of American Cyanamid.

Here he began his polio experiments. Koprowski devised the AIDS pandemic from live polio vaccines prepared in chimpanzee tissue cultures and then administered it to up to one million Africans between 1957 and 1960 in experimental mass vaccination campaigns.

Koprowski formulation of the AIDS pandemic was revealed in Rolling Stone but an outcry from the largely Jewish medical community allowed Koprowski to 'win' a defamation suit against the magazine; an award of $1 in damages only confirming what credence should be given to his tribe.

FLUORIDE

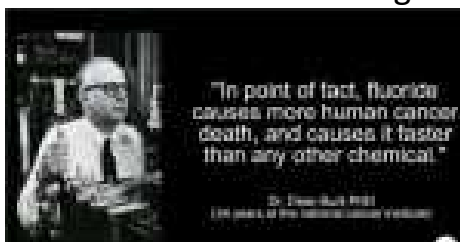

The first modern widespread chemical attack on Caucasians since Jewish war criminal Fritz Haber introduced fatal chemicals to the WWI battle field, the addition of fluoride to the water supply contaminates the environment with heavy amounts of this neurotoxin, poisoning crops and livestock entering the food chain even prior to processing. Using the fluoridated water, processing further contaminates.

To be distinguished from naturally occurring fluoride that appears in some geographic locations never above 0.2mg, hexafluorosilicic acid, most commonly used in the water fluoridation of most countries including the United States, the United Kingdom, and the Republic of Ireland, is a by-product in the manufacture of the synthetic compound aluminium trifluoride known to cause asthma, bone and nervous system disorders.

This known corrosive industrial waste product is used to fluoridate water up to a concentration of 1.0mg per litre, deliberately coursing physical and mental harm to the public.

Hexafluorosilicic acid releases hydrogen fluoride when evaporated inhalation of which causes lung edema. The colourless inorganic compound is rarely encountered undiluted as, like hydrogen fluoride, it attacks glass and stoneware. The colourless or white inorganic solid Sodium fluoride readily soluble in water is the common source of fluoride used in toothpaste and fluoride mouth rinses according to the Centres for Disease Control and Prevention. Sodium fluoride is classed as toxic by both inhalation (of dusts or aerosols) and ingestion and has been shown to affect the heart and circulatory system. It is used as a cleaning agent and as an insect poison. As of 2014 there have been reported cases of fluoride poisoning associated with the ingestion of fluoride-containing toothpaste. As an example, one of these involved a 45 year old woman who came to her doctor complaining of unusual swelling and pain in her fingers.

Tests showed elevated levels of fluoride in her urine and blood. When questioned about this, the woman admitted to the regular ingestion of large amounts of toothpaste, consuming a tube of it every two days and swallowing 68.5 mg of fluoride every day, because she “liked the taste”. While switching to a non-fluoride form of toothpaste, the fluoride levels in her blood and urine dropped dramatically and her condition subsided the effects on her internal organs remained untested.

By the late 90’s, a scientist by the name of Jennifer Luke had carried out the first studies into the effects of sodium fluoride on the pineal gland. Located in the middle of the brain, the pineal gland produces melatonin, a serotonin-derived hormone which modulates sleep patterns in both circadian and seasonal cycles basically a mood stabiliser. Luke determined that it was a target for fluoride.

The pineal gland simply absorbed more fluoride than any other physical matter in the body, even bones. The pineal gland is like a magnet for sodium fluoride calcifying the gland making it no longer effective in balancing the entire hormonal processes through the body inhibiting our ability to accurately calculate our environment. Indeed, while many studies had already demonstrated that increased fluoride exposure causes neurotoxicity in adults, and negative impacts on memory and learning.

The latest work published by Harvard researchers in 2012 has proven that children in high-fluoride areas have significantly lower IQ scores than those who live in low-fluoride areas (dumbing down). All the important intake of fluorine is by mouth. Primarily due to how readily water soluble a poison it has proved to be. When swallowed fluoride is absorbed via the stomach and intestines passing rapidly round the bloodstream.

The most soluble fluoride compound is sodium fluoride and the ion is incorporated into the mineral matrix of bone. Consequently, given the research performed by Jennifer Luke showing that the pineal gland simply absorbed more fluoride than any other physical matter in the body, even bones, there is clear evidence that, while superficially flushed out by the blood and urine continual fluoride use is absorbed by the organs severely damaging the body's internal function.

Water fluoridation began almost immediately after WWII even though it was only during the 1950's, in his post as U.S.-Soviet liaison officer, that USAF Major George R. Jordan testified before Un-American Activity committees of Congress that the Soviets openly admitted to "Using the fluoride in the water supplies in their concentration camps, to make the prisoners stupid, docile, and subservient". In fact it was Sigmund Freud's nephew the Jew Edward Bernays that drove the highly successful media campaign using the American Dental Association that helped the Aluminum Company of America (Alcoa) and other special interest groups to convince the American public that water fluoridation was safe and beneficial to human health.

However, with increasing attacks on their fluoridation scheme the Jew resorted to habit and completely reversed claims against the Bolsheviks made by USAF Major George R. Jordan unashamedly projecting the origins of this genocidal activity onto WWII German Nationalists. To this day this lie is constantly repeated by so called 'truthers'.

Meanwhile, written, directed and produced by the Jew Stanley Kubrick and acted by the Jew Peter Sellers and only 5 years after the Un-American Activity committees of Congress exposed many Jewish Bolshevik spies among us the 1964 film Dr Strangelove was a multimillion dollar Jewish campaign to lessen the credibility of those that knew the dangers of fluoride.

Introduced into the US in 1945 like an open acknowledgement of Jewish Bolsheviks use of fluoride in the Gulag "water supplies...to make the prisoners stupid, docile, and subservient"; assuming that Bolshevik controlled East Germany was already fluoridated, West Germany and Sweden were attacked in 1952, making about 42,000 people "stupid, docile, and subservient" and lending credibility to the Communist defector Anatoliy Golitsyn's claim of the Perestroika deception a decade later.

While head of the National Cancer Institute's Cytochemistry Sector in 1938, Dr Dean Burke's early campaign against water fluoridation attempted to stall the strategy, by mid-1962, about 1 million Europeans in 18 communities in 11 countries were receiving this neurotoxin. The first substantive attack on the UK was established in Birmingham in 1964.
